Position: Accredited Police Station Representative
Dean is an experienced and fully Accredited Police Station Representative who has represented clients all over the South West for the past twenty years. He has represented clients detained on suspicion of having committed all manner of offences from Murder, Serious Assault and Rape, to Fraud, Burglary, Theft and Serious Drugs Offences. He looks after the interests of client's who find themselves in police custody and does his best to ensure that they feel supported throughout their time in custody and that they are given careful and considered advice so that they present their case its best possible light. Being arrested can be a frightening and lonely experience particularly for vulnerable suspects and so Dean makes sure that every client is treated fairly and equally and that their basic and legal rights are protected throughout. He takes a no nonsense approach with police investigators and ensures in so far as he can, that they are acting impartially. Dean always seeks to achieve the best possible outcome for his client. Dean also specialises in the preparation of serious crown court cases and prides himself on his meticulous preparation and attention to detail. He has worked on many murder cases, large scale drugs cases and a number of high profile conspiracies to steal and burgle. Dean is a dedicated legal aid practitioner who is committed to excellent client care.
