

Francesca Alozie

Second Six Pupil

Called to the Bar (-) The Honourable Society of Middle Temple YEAR 2022

Francesca joined the PDS in September 2024, her pupil supervisor is David Aubrey KC

Experience

Francesca has a strong commitment to criminal defence, with a particular focus on representing vulnerable adults and young people.

Before pupillage, she volunteered with the Innocent Project, investigating wrongful convictions and preparing applications to the Criminal Cases Review Commission. She also has experience in human resources administration, equipping her with strong advocacy, case management, and client-facing skills.

Francesca has undertaken specialist advocacy training, including the Kalisher Trust Advocacy Training Course, which aims to develop advocacy skills and encourage people from diverse backgrounds to pursue careers at the criminal bar. Additionally, she completed the ICCA Advocacy for Children in Conflict with the Law Course, a national training program for advocates prosecuting and defending young people in the Youth and Crown Courts.

Outside of law, Francesca enjoys keeping fit, running, and travelling.

Education, Scholarships and Awards

EDUCATION

- Bar Practice Course, The University of Law (2020-2022)
- LLB Law with Criminology, University of East London (2015-2018)

SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS

- Harmsworth Scholarship, Middle Temple (2020)
- Blackstone Entrance Exhibition Award, Middle Temple (2020)
- Winner, UEL Mooting and Debating Society Moot Competition (2016)

0203-334-4253

pdsclerks@justice.gov.uk