Reference: FOI 739 Freedom of Information request

Thank you for your email, which we received on 30 March 2026. Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You asked us:

To provide information on prisons in the United Kingdom with forty or more self-inflicted deaths in the last ten years, alongside their total.

Our response:

We have searched our records and we hold the requested information for England and Wales.

From 1 January 2016 to 28 February 2026, the Prisons and Probation Ombudsman (PPO) has been notified of, and began investigations into, forty self-inflicted deaths at HMP Leeds. This is the only prison in England and Wales that recorded forty or more self-inflicted deaths within this time period. This data is correct as of 20 April 2026.

For Scotland, we suggest you contact the Scottish Prison Service. Their email address is SPSFOI@Prisons.gov.scot.

For Northern Ireland, we suggest you contact the Department of Justice for Northern Ireland. Their email address is foi@justice-ni.gov.uk.

I hope that this is helpful.

You have the right to appeal against our response if you think it is incorrect. Details can be found in the 'How to Appeal' section attached at the end of this letter.

The Prisons and Probation Ombudsman (PPO) carries out independent investigations into complaints and deaths in custody. The detailed role and responsibilities of the PPO are set out in our office's Terms of Reference. The PPO has three main duties:

- to investigate complaints made by prisoners, young people in detention (prisons and secure training centres), offenders under probation supervision and individuals detained under immigration powers (detained individuals)
- to investigate deaths of prisoners, young people in detention, approved premises' residents and detained individuals due to any cause, including any apparent suicides and natural causes
- to investigate deaths of recently released prisoners that occur within 14 days of release from prison (except homicide)

The purpose of these investigations is to understand what happened, to correct injustices and to identify learning for the organisations whose actions we oversee so that the PPO makes a significant contribution to safer, fairer custody and offender supervision.

We may use or share your data only to the necessary extent when conducting our independent investigations in the exercise of our official authority. We will share your data with third parties (e.g. the prison) in order to make sure the information is accurate; to prevent or detect failings; and to identify lessons learnt. We may sometimes need to share your data with third parties if required by law. We only keep your personal data for as long as it is needed, as set out in our data retention policy. If you need any further information about how your data is used, please contact us.

How to Appeal

Internal Review

If you are not satisfied with this response, you have the right to an internal review. The handling of your request will be looked at by someone who was not responsible for the original case, and they will make a decision as to whether we answered your request correctly.

If you would like to request a review, please write or send an email to the Prisons and Probation Ombudsman's office within two months of the date of this letter, at the following address:
