Reference: FOI 753 Freedom of Information request

Thank you for your emails, which we received on 7 May 2026 and 27 May 2026. Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You asked us:

To provide the total number of prison deaths that occurred while the individual was located in a segregation unit per calendar year from 2021 to 2025.

Our response:

We have searched our records and we hold the requested information. A copy of the information that you requested is shown below.

Calendar year the PPO was notified of death	Number of deaths in segregation unit
2021	5
2022	5
2023	2
2024	12
2025	7
Total	31

These numbers have been aggregated from case information (relating to deaths of which the PPO has been notified) where segregation unit or care and separation unit have been recorded as the location of the death. However, they may be incomplete due to potential gaps or inconsistencies in how location data has been recorded.

You have the right to appeal against our response if you think it is incorrect. Details can be found in the 'How to Appeal' section attached at the end of this letter.

The Prisons and Probation Ombudsman (PPO) carries out independent investigations into complaints and deaths in custody. The detailed role and responsibilities of the PPO are set out in our office's Terms of Reference. The PPO has three main duties:

- to investigate complaints made by prisoners, young people in detention (prisons and secure training centres), offenders under probation supervision and individuals detained under immigration powers (detained individuals)
- to investigate deaths of prisoners, young people in detention, approved premises' residents and detained individuals due to any cause, including any apparent suicides and natural causes
- to investigate deaths of recently released prisoners that occur within 14 days of release from prison (except homicide)

The purpose of these investigations is to understand what happened, to correct injustices and to identify learning for the organisations whose actions we oversee so that the PPO makes a significant contribution to safer, fairer custody and offender supervision.

We may use or share your data only to the necessary extent when conducting our independent investigations in the exercise of our official authority. We will share your data with third parties (e.g. the prison) in order to make sure the information is accurate; to prevent or detect failings; and to identify lessons learnt. We may sometimes need to share your data with third parties if required by law. We only keep your personal data for as long as it is needed, as set out in our data retention policy. If you need any further information about how your data is used, please contact us.

How to Appeal

Internal Review

If you are not satisfied with this response, you have the right to an internal review. The handling of your request will be looked at by someone who was not responsible for the original case, and they will make a decision as to whether we answered your request correctly.

If you would like to request a review, please write or send an email to the Prisons and Probation Ombudsman's office within two months of the date of this letter, at the following address:
