I can confirm that our publication scheme is published on our website (HM Crown Prosecution Service Inspectorate - Home \(justiceinspectorates.gov.uk\))

HMCPsI is a small department of under 30 staff. As such we have shared agreements for certain streams of work with other government departments. For example, we have shared agreements for HR services and Finance with the Government Legal Department (GLD). This means that all the data that we need to publish for example pay data, grade data, gender balance and financial spend data is included in the figures published by GLD on the Gov.UK website.

In regards to Freedom of Information, all responses are available on our website as per link below:
