Dear

FOI Request

Thank you for your further email dated 16th July relating to a Freedom of Information request that you initially submitted dated 22nd June.

Public authorities are not obligated to create new information if they don't already hold it in recorded form. The FOI Act only applies to information that already exists. If the requested information is not held, the authority can inform the applicant of this fact. HM CPSI does not hold this information. However, in the spirit of fairness and transparency we have requested this information from GLD for you.

I will send this onto you as soon as I can.

Yours sincerely

HM Crown Prosecution Inspectorate
