1	The Governor and Head of Healthcare should ensure that prisoners do not miss hospital appointments for suspected cancer and other urgent matters, unless there are properly justified, exceptional and fully recorded reasons.	Accepted	The Head of Healthcare has communicated to all staff via a full staff meeting in December 2015 that prisoners must not miss hospital appointments for suspected cancer and other urgent matters, unless there are properly justified, exceptional and fully recorded reasons. All hospital appointments of prisoners are recorded on SystemOne (prisoner electronic records), which is monitored by the Head of Healthcare on a weekly basis. The Head of Healthcare will also contact the respective hospital to rearrange any missed appointments for all prisoners. Hospital appointments are discussed at the weekly healthcare provider meetings.	Head of Healthcare Governor Completed
