

New Futures Network

Discover a hidden workforce grow your business, create social impact

Across England and Wales, businesses are discovering a reliable, skilled workforce inside prisons delivering commercial-standard services from engineering and textiles to agriculture and contact centres.

This is not just outsourcing. It's a chance to expand your capacity, reduce recruitment costs, and deliver measurable social value. Established partners such as Timpson, Müller UK & Ireland, and Sunbelt Rentals are already seeing proven results from in-prison workshops.

Why new futures?

—

Reliable production, industry-standard quality.

Built-in recruitment pipeline – identify motivated individuals while in custody.

Social value that resonates – reduce reoffending and aid community resilience.

Flexible partnership models – bespoke on-site workshops or outsourced contracts via HMPPS.

Take the next step

—

Partnership launch takes just a few months and comes with full support from our team.

To explore models, success stories, and implementation steps, request our full brochure or contact New Futures Network directly for guidance and next steps.

Contact New Futures Network (part of HM Prison & Probation Service).

They broker prison-employer partnerships in England and Wales, guide you through recruitment pathways, facilitate site visits, and act as your single point of contact'.

Contact

—

Visit New Futures Network website to register your interest.

HM Prison &
Probation Service

newfuturesnetwork.gov.uk