

1 MR MURPHY: Edna Barr, Reserve Constable PW [I&S] It's a statement dated the 9th of
2 April 2004. My Lord, the first date in the statement is incorrect and, as I said, corrected
3 in the additional evidence statement. It should read on the 2nd of April 1998 rather 4 than on the 2nd of April 2004 and I'll proceed on that basis.

5
6 "On the 2nd of April 1998 I was a reserve constable in the Royal Ulster Constabulary
7 attached to Newry Subdivision. On this date, I was detailed station duty officer. At 8 approximately 1558 hours, I received a telephone call from a person who identified
9 himself as miles 1 of the Samaritans, Newry. He reported that he had just received a 10 call from a male caller with a southern accent who quoted the codeword, Martha Pope,
11 and stated, 'There is a bomb on the red bridge outside Newry and it's failed to go off'. I
12 informed the control room of the call and entered it on the command and control log
13 under serial 429, dated 2 April 1998".

14
15 For completeness, my Lord, the additional evidence statement at page 8 of the 16 additional evidence is dated the 10th of November 2004 and it reads: "Regarding my 17 previous statement of evidence dated 9 April 2004, I would like to point out that the 18 date on the first line of that statement contains a mistake which is the date. It should 19 read 2 April 1998".

20
21 The next bundle, my Lord, is that then containing pages 1684 onwards. The first 22 statement is that of Kim Galway at page 1684. This statement is dated the 1st of May 23 1998. The statement reads:

24
25 "I'm employed with the Irish News, 113-117 Donegal Street, Belfast. At 1038 hours on 26 Thursday the 30th of April 1998, I received a telephone call on [I&S] The 27 incoming call was recorded as 01693848729. It was a male caller with south Armagh
28 accent and I would age him between 30 to 40 years. He was very calm. He then stated,
29 'Have you got a pen ready?' I told him to hold. He told me to get a pen. He was going
30 to give me a very clear message, 'There is a car bomb parked in the middle of Lisburn.
31 It's in a grey Toyota Corolla import and it is going to go off in an hour or 45 minutes'. I
