On Saturday 15th August 1998 at approximately 1.45 pm to 2 pm I was travelling in my lorry along the Omagh Ballygawley Road in the direction of Ballygawley. As I approached the Meat Factory on the left hand side about one mile out of Omagh, I noticed two cars parked on the left hand side of the road. Both cars were facing in the direction of Omagh. The car parked in front was a red coloured car, I did not get any registration number or make. The second car was a grey coloured two door car. What drew my attention to this was that both doors on the car were wide open. There were five male persons stand around the grey car, three of the people were in the age bracket of about 17 years to 20 years. The other two people were older, approximately 30 to 40 years. The three young men were standing at the back of the grey car, one of them who was wearing a grey blue coloured top was leaning over the roof of the car. The two older men were standing at the front passenger door of the grey car. I can't recall what any of the other people were wearing other than they were all about approximately 5 foot 6 inches in height. As I passed the two cars two of the younger men turned around and watched me pass.
