2 Application of Code

- (1) The Sentencing Code does not apply where a person is convicted of an offence before the date on which this Act comes into force (see section 284). 15
- (2) Any provision repealed or amended by this Act continues on or after that date to have effect in relation to –
  - (a) dealing with a person in respect of an offence of which the person was convicted before that date, and
  - (b) any sentence passed in respect of an offence of which a person was convicted before that date. 20
- (3) Where on or after that date a court is dealing with a person in relation to an offence of which the person was convicted before that date and is required to treat the person as just convicted of the offence, the requirement does not mean that subsection (2) no longer applies. 25
- (4) In this section references to conviction for an offence include –
  - (a) a special verdict within the meaning of section 1 of the Criminal Procedure (Insanity) Act 1964 being returned in respect of the offence, and

SECOND GROUP OF PARTS

PROVISIONS APPLYING TO SENTENCING COURTS GENERALLY

PART 2

POWERS EXERCISABLE BEFORE PASSING SENTENCE

DEFERMENT OF SENTENCE

3 Deferment order

In this Code “deferment order” means an order –

- (a) deferring passing sentence on an offender in respect of one or more offences until the date specified in the order, and
- (b) imposing requirements (“deferment requirements”) as to the offender’s conduct during the period of deferment which the court considers it appropriate to impose on the offender.

4 Availability of deferment order

The Crown Court or a magistrates’ court may make a deferment order in relation to an offence where –

- (a) the offender is before the court to be dealt with for the offence, and
- (b) no previous deferment order has been made in respect of the offence.

See also section 11(4) (power of Crown Court to make further deferment order where magistrates’ court commits offender for sentence).

5 Making a deferment order

- (1) The purpose for which a deferment order may be made is to enable a court, in dealing with the offender, to have regard to –

- (a) the offender’s conduct after conviction (including, where appropriate, the making by the offender of reparation for the offence), or
- (b) any change in the offender’s circumstances.

- (2) Deferment requirements may include –

- (a) requirements as to the residence of the offender during all or part of the period of deferment;
- (b) restorative justice requirements.

30

- (3) A court may make a deferment order in respect of an offence only if –

- (a) the offender consents,
- (b) the offender undertakes to comply with the deferment requirements,
- (c) if the deferment requirements include a restorative justice requirement, section 7(2) (consent of participants in restorative justice activity) is satisfied, and
- (d) the court is satisfied, having regard to the nature of the offence and the character and circumstances of the offender, that it would be in the interests of justice to make the order.

- (4) The date specified under section 3(a) in the order may not be more than 6 months after the date on which the order is made.
- (5) A court which makes a deferment order must forthwith give a copy of the order –
- (a) to the offender, 5
  - (b) if the deferment requirements include a restorative justice requirement, to every person who would be a participant in the activity concerned (see section 7(1)),
  - (c) where an officer of a provider of probation services has been appointed to act as a supervisor, to that provider, and 10
  - (d) where a person has been appointed under section 8(1)(b) to act as a supervisor, to that person.
- (6) A court which makes a deferment order may not on the same occasion remand the offender, notwithstanding any enactment.
- 6 Effect of deferment order 15
- (1) - Where a deferment order is made in respect of an offence, the court dealing with the offender for the offence may have regard to –
- (a) - the offender’s conduct after conviction, or
  - (b) - any change in the offender’s circumstances.
- (2) - Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1)(a), the matters to which the court may have regard in dealing with the offender include – 20
- (a) - where appropriate, the making by the offender of reparation for the offence, and
  - (b) - the extent to which the offender has complied with any deferment requirements. 25
- (3) - Subsection (4) applies where –
- (a) - the court which made a deferment order proposes to deal with the offender on the date specified in the order, or
  - (b) - the offender does not appear on that date.
- (4) - The court may – 30
- (a) - issue a summons requiring the offender to appear before the court at the time and place specified in the summons, or
  - (b) - issue a warrant for the offender’s arrest which requires the offender to be brought before the court at the time and place specified in the warrant. 35
- (5) - Subsection (6) applies where a magistrates’ court makes a deferment order.
- (6) - In making the order the court is to be regarded as having adjourned the trial under section 10(1) of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980. Accordingly, sections 11(1) and 13(1) to (3A) and (5) of that Act (non-appearance of the accused) apply if the offender does not appear on the date specified in the deferment order (but this is without prejudice to subsection (4)). 40

7 Restorative justice requirements

- (1) - Any reference in section 5 or this section to a restorative justice requirement is to a requirement to participate in an activity –
  - (a) where the participants consist of, or include, the offender and one or more of the victims, 5
  - (b) which aims to maximise the offender’s awareness of the impact of the offending concerned on the victims, and
  - (c) which gives an opportunity to a victim or victims to talk about, or by other means express experience of, the offending and its impact.
- (2) A restorative justice requirement may be imposed as a deferment requirement only with the consent of every person who would be a participant in the activity. 10
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a supervisor and the offender do not count as proposed participants.
- (4) A person running an activity for the purposes of a restorative justice requirement must have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State with a view to encouraging good practice in connection with such an activity. 15
- (5) In this section “victim” means a victim of, or other person affected by, the offending concerned.

8 Deferment order: supervisor 20

Appointment of supervisor

- (1) - Where a court makes a deferment order, it may appoint –
  - (a) - an officer of a provider of probation services, or
  - (b) - any other person the court thinks appropriate who consents to the appointment, 25 to act as a supervisor in relation to the offender.

Function of supervisor

- (2) - A supervisor must –
  - (a) - monitor the offender’s compliance with the deferment requirements, and 30
  - (b) - provide the court which deals with the offender for any offence in respect of which the order was made with such information as the court may require relating to the offender’s compliance with the deferment requirements.

Supervisor appointed under subsection (1)(b): power of magistrates’ court to issue summons 35

- (3) - Where –
  - (a) - a deferment order has been made,
  - (b) - it falls to a magistrates’ court to –
    - (i) - deal with the offender for any offence in respect of which the order was made, or
    - (ii) - determine under section 9(3)(b) whether the offender has failed to comply with a deferment requirement, and 40

(c) a justice of the peace is satisfied that a supervisor appointed under subsection (1)(b) –

(i) is likely to be able to give evidence that may assist the court in determining that matter, and

(ii) will not voluntarily attend as a witness, 5

the justice may issue a summons directed to that supervisor requiring the supervisor to attend before the court at the time and place appointed in the summons to give evidence.

9 Failure to comply with deferment requirement

(1) - This section applies where – 10

(a) - a court has made a deferment order, and

(b) - a supervisor has reported to the court that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the deferment requirements.

(2) - The court may issue –

(a) - a summons requiring the offender to appear before it at the time and place specified in the summons, or 15

(b) - a warrant for the offender's arrest which requires the offender to be brought before it at the time and place specified in the warrant.

(3) - The court may deal with the offender before the end of the period of deferment if – 20

(a) - the offender appears or is brought before the court under subsection (2), and

(b) - the court is satisfied that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the deferment requirements.

For the powers of the court in dealing with the offender under this subsection, see section 11. 25

10 Conviction of offence during period of deferment

(1) - This section applies where a court has made a deferment order in respect of an offence.

Power of court which made deferment order 30

(2) - The court which made the order ("the original court") may deal with the offender before the end of the period of deferment if during that period the offender is convicted in Great Britain of any offence.

For the powers of the original court in dealing with the offender under this subsection, see section 11. 35

(3) - Where the original court proposes to deal with the offender by virtue of subsection (2) before the end of the period of deferment, it may issue –

(a) - a summons requiring the offender to appear before the court at the time and place specified in the summons, or

(b) - a warrant for the arrest of the offender, requiring the offender to be brought before the court at the time and place specified in the warrant. 40

Power of court which sentences offender for later offence

(4) - Subsection (5) applies where during the period of deferment the offender is convicted in England and Wales of any offence ("the later offence").

This is subject to subsection (6).

- (5) - The court which passes sentence on the offender for the later offence may also deal with the offender for the offence or offences in respect of which the deferment order was made (if this has not already been done).
For the powers of the court in dealing with the offender under this subsection, see section 11. 5
- (6) - Subsection (5) does not apply where –
  - (a) - the deferment order was made by the Crown Court, and
  - (b) - the court which passes sentence on the offender for the later offence is a magistrates’ court. 10
- (7) - Subsection (5) –
  - (a) - is without prejudice to subsection (2), and
  - (b) - applies whether or not the offender is sentenced for the later offence during the period of deferment.

11 Powers of court dealing with offender following deferment order 15

- (1) - Subsection (2) applies where an offender who is subject to a deferment order is being dealt with for any offence in respect of which the order was made –
  - (a) - by the court which made the order (“the original court”) –
    - (i) - at the end of the period of deferment, in accordance with the deferment order, 20
    - (ii) under section 9(3) (failure to comply with deferment requirement), or
    - (iii) under section 10(2) (original court dealing with offender following conviction during period of deferment), or
  - (b) by any court under section 10(5) (conviction during period of deferment: convicting court dealing with offender). 25
- (2) - The court may deal with the offender in any way in which the original court could have dealt with the offender if it had not made a deferment order.
- (3) - Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2), where a magistrates’ court is dealing with the offender, its power under that subsection includes the power conferred by section 13 to commit the offender to the Crown Court for sentence. 30
- (4) - Where a magistrates’ court deals with the offender by committing the offender to the Crown Court under section 13, the power of the Crown Court to deal with the offender includes the same power to make a deferment order as if the offender had just been convicted of the offence on indictment before it. 35

12 Deferment orders: interpretation and supplementary

- (1) - Nothing in this Chapter affects –
  - (a) - the power of the Crown Court to bind over an offender to come up for judgment when called upon, or 40
  - (b) - any other power of a court to defer passing sentence.
- (2) - In this Chapter –

“deferment requirement” has the meaning given by section 3(b);

“period of deferment”, in relation to a deferment order, means the period from the date on which the deferment order is made until the date specified in the order under section 3(a);

“restorative justice requirement” has the meaning given by section 7;

“supervisor”, in relation to a deferment order, means a person appointed under section 8(1). 5

- (3) In relation to a deferment order made by a magistrates’ court, any reference in this Chapter to the court which made the order includes a reference to any magistrates’ court acting in the same local justice area as that court.

COMMITTAL TO THE CROWN COURT FOR SENTENCE

Committal following summary trial: adults and corporations

13 Committal for sentence on summary trial of offence triable either way: adults and corporations

- (1) This section applies where – 15

(a) on the summary trial of an offence triable either way a person aged 18 or over is convicted of the offence, and

(b) the court is of the opinion that –

(i) the offence, or

(ii) the combination of the offence and one or more offences associated with it, 20

was so serious that the Crown Court should have the power to deal with the offender in any way it could deal with the offender if the offender had been convicted on indictment.

This is subject to the provisions mentioned in subsection (4). 25

- (2) The court may commit the offender in custody or on bail to the Crown Court for sentence in accordance with section 20(2).

- (3) For powers of the court, where it commits a person under subsection (2), also to commit in respect of other offences, see section 19.

- (4) For offences in relation to which this section does not apply see sections 17D and 33 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980 (exclusion in respect of certain offences where value involved is small). 30

- (5) This section applies to a corporation as if –

(a) the corporation were an individual aged 18 or over, and

(b) in subsection (2) the words “in custody or on bail” were omitted. 35

14 Committal for sentence of dangerous adult offenders

- (1) This section applies where –

(a) on the summary trial of a specified offence (see section 221) triable either way a person aged 18 or over is convicted of the offence, and

- (b) - the court is of the opinion that an extended sentence of detention in a young offender institution or of imprisonment (see section 181 or 194) would be available in relation to the offence.
- (2) The court must commit the offender in custody or on bail to the Crown Court for sentence in accordance with section 20(2). 5
- (3) For powers of the court, where it commits a person under subsection (2), also to commit in respect of other offences, see section 19.
- (4) In reaching any decision under or taking any step contemplated by this section, the court is not bound by any indication of sentence given in respect of the offence under section 20 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (procedure where summary trial appears more suitable). 10
- (5) Nothing the court does under this section may be challenged or be the subject of any appeal in any court on the ground that it is inconsistent with an indication of sentence.
- (6) - Nothing in this section prevents the court from committing an offender convicted of a specified offence to the Crown Court for sentence under section 13 or 17 if the provisions of that section are satisfied. 15

Committal following summary trial: persons under 18

15 Committal for sentence of young offenders on summary trial of certain serious offences 20

- (1) - This section applies where –
  - (a) - on the summary trial of an offence within paragraph 1 or 2 of Schedule 6 (offences punishable with imprisonment for 14 years or more and certain sexual offences), a person is convicted of the offence,
  - (b) - the person is aged under 18 at the time of conviction, and 25
  - (c) - the court is of the opinion that –
    - (i) - the offence, or
    - (ii) - the combination of the offence and one or more offences associated with it, was such that the Crown Court should have power to deal with the offender by imposing a sentence of detention under section 168. 30
- (2) - The court may commit the offender in custody or on bail to the Crown Court for sentence in accordance with section 21(2).
- (3) - For powers of the court, where it commits a person under subsection (2), also to commit in respect of other offences, see section 19. 35

16 Committal for sentence of dangerous young offenders

- (1) - This section applies where –
  - (a) - on the summary trial of a specified offence (see section 221) a person aged under 18 is convicted of the offence, and
  - (b) - the court is of the opinion that an extended sentence of detention under section 164 would be available in relation to the offence. 40
- (2) - The court must commit the offender in custody or on bail to the Crown Court for sentence in accordance with section 21(2).

- (3) For powers of the court, where it commits a person under subsection (2), also to commit in respect of other offences, see section 19.
- (4) Nothing in this section prevents the court from committing a person convicted of a specified offence to the Crown Court for sentence under section 15 or 18 if the provisions of that section are satisfied.

- that the person would plead guilty if the offence were to proceed to trial, and

- (7) For the purposes of this section –
- (a) “related offence” means an offence which, in the opinion of the court, is related to the offence, and
  - (b) one offence is related to another if, were they both to be prosecuted on indictment, the charges for them could be joined in the same indictment. 10
- (8) The court is not bound, in doing anything under this section, by any indication of sentence given in respect of the offence under section 20 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980 (procedure where summary trial appears more suitable). 15

- it must adjourn the proceedings relating to the offence until after it has made those determinations.
- (3) Where the court – 40

  - (b) the person or the person's representative indicates under section 24A or 24B of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (child or young person to indicate intention as to plea in certain cases) that the person would plead guilty if the offence were to proceed to trial, and 10

19 Committal in certain cases where offender committed in respect of another offence

- (1) - This section applies where a magistrates' court ("the committing court") commits an offender to the Crown Court under— 25

  - (b) - paragraph 5(3) of Schedule 2 (further offence committed by offender given conditional discharge order), or
  - (c) - paragraph 11(2)(a) of Schedule 10 (committal to Crown Court where offender convicted during operational period of suspended sentence), 30
  - (d) - the Vagrancy Act 1824 (incorrigible rogues),
- to be sentenced or otherwise dealt with in respect of an offence ("the relevant offence").
- (2) - Where—
- (a) - the relevant offence is an indictable offence, and 35
  - (b) - the committing court has power to deal with the offender in respect of another offence,
- the committing court may also commit the offender to the Crown Court to be dealt with in respect of the other offence.
- (3) - It is immaterial for the purposes of subsection (2) whether the court which convicted the offender of the other offence was the committing court or another court. 40

  - (c) section 17(1) (committal for sentence on indication of guilty plea to offence triable either way).
- (2) The Crown Court— 25
  - (a) must inquire into the circumstances of the case, and
  - (b) may deal with the offender in any way in which it could deal with the offender if the offender had just been convicted of the offence on indictment before the court.

This is subject to subsections (4) and (5). 30
- (3) Any duty or power which, apart from this subsection, would fall to be discharged or exercised by the magistrates' court—
  - (a) is not to be discharged or exercised by that court, but
  - (b) is instead to be discharged or may instead be exercised by the Crown Court. 35

This does not apply to any duty imposed on a magistrates' court by section 25(1) or (2) of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (duties relating to information).
- (4) Subsection (5) applies where a magistrates' court—
  - (a) commits an offender under section 17(1) to be dealt with in respect of an offence ("the offence"), but 40

- (5) - Unless the offender is convicted before the Crown Court of at least one of the offences for which the magistrates' court has sent the offender for trial (see section 17(1)(b)) –
- (a) subsection (2)(b) does not apply, and
  - (b) the Crown Court may deal with the offender for the offence in any way in which the magistrates' court could deal with the offender if it had just convicted the offender of the offence. 5
- (6) Section 20A(1) of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (which relates to the effect of an indication of sentence under section 20 of that Act) does not apply in respect of a specified offence – 10
- (a) in respect of which the offender is committed under section 14(2) (dangerous adult offenders), or
  - (b) in respect of which –
    - (i) the offender is committed under section 17(1) (guilty plea to offence triable either way), and 15
    - (ii) the court makes a statement under section 17(4) that, in its opinion, it also has power to commit the offender under section 14(2).

- This is subject to subsections (4) and (5).
- (3) - Any duty or power which, apart from this subsection, would fall to be discharged or exercised by the magistrates' court – 35
- (a) - is not to be discharged or exercised by that court, but

- (5) Unless the offender is convicted before the Crown Court of at least one of the offences for which the magistrates' court has sent the offender for trial (see section 18(1)(a)) –
  - (a) subsection (2)(b) does not apply, and

22 Power of Crown Court on committal for sentence under section 19

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where under section 19(2) or (4)(a) (committal for sentence in certain cases where offender committed in respect of another offence) a magistrates' court commits a person to be dealt with by the Crown Court in respect of an offence. 10
- (2) The Crown Court –
  - (a) must inquire into the circumstances of the case, and

This is subject to subsections (3) and (4) (offender aged under 18 when tried).
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if the offence –
  - (a) is triable only on indictment in the case of an adult, but
  - (b) was tried summarily because of the offender's being aged under 18. 20
- (4) Once the offender has reached the age of 18, the Crown Court's power under subsection (2) in respect of the offender is a power to do either or both of the following –
  - (a) to impose a fine not exceeding £5,000; 25

CHAPTER 3

REMISSION FOR SENTENCE: YOUNG OFFENDERS ETC

24 Power and duty to remit young offenders to youth courts for sentence

- (1) - This section applies where a person aged under 18 is convicted by or before a court ("the convicting court") of an offence other than homicide. 20
- (2) - If the convicting court is the Crown Court, it must remit the offender to a youth court acting for the place where the sending court sat, unless satisfied that it would be undesirable to do so.
 The "sending court" is the magistrates' court which sent the offender to the Crown Court for trial. 25
- (3) - If the convicting court is a youth court, it may remit the offender to another youth court.
- (4) - If the convicting court is a magistrates' court other than a youth court –
  - (a) - where subsection (10) or (11) applies, it may remit the offender to a youth court, and 30
  - (b) - otherwise, it must remit the offender to a youth court.
- (5) - Any remission of an offender under subsection (3) or (4) must be to a youth court acting for –
  - (a) - the same place as the remitting court, or 35
  - (b) - the place where the offender habitually resides.
- (6) - Where an offender is remitted to a youth court under this section –
  - (a) - the offender must be brought before the youth court accordingly, and
  - (b) - that court may deal with the offender in any way in which it could have dealt with the offender if the offender had just been tried and convicted by that court. 40

- (7) Where the Crown Court remits an offender to a youth court under this section, it may, subject to section 25 of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 (restrictions on granting bail), give such directions as appear to be necessary –
- (a) with respect to the custody of the offender, or
  - (b) for the offender’s release on bail,
- 5
- until the offender can be brought before the youth court.
For provisions applying to a magistrates’ court which remits an offender under this section, see section 27.
- (8) A court which remits an offender to a youth court under this section must provide to the designated officer for the youth court a certificate which –
- (a) sets out the nature of the offence, and
  - (b) states –
- (i) that the offender has been convicted of the offence, and
  - (ii) that the offender has been remitted for the purpose of being dealt with under subsection (6).
- 10
15
- (9) An offender who is remitted under this section –
- (a) has no right of appeal against the order of remission, but
  - (b) has the same right of appeal against an order of the court to which the offender is remitted as if convicted by that court.
- (10) This subsection applies if the court would be required by section 16(2) of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 to refer the offender to a youth offender panel if it did not remit the offender to the youth court.
- 20
- (11) This subsection applies if subsection (10) does not apply but the court is of the opinion that the case is one which can properly be dealt with by means of –
- (a) an order for absolute discharge or an order for conditional discharge, or
  - (b) an order for the payment of a fine, or
  - (c) an order (under section 150 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000) requiring the offender’s parent or guardian to enter into a recognizance to take proper care of, and exercise proper control over, the offender,
- 25
- with or without any other order that the court has power to make when making an order for absolute discharge or an order for conditional discharge.
- (12) In subsection (11) “care” and “control” are to be construed in accordance with section 150(11) of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000.
- (13) A document which purports –
- (a) to be a copy of an order made by a court under this section, and
  - (b) to be certified as a true copy by the designated officer for the court,
- is to be evidence of the order.
- 35
- 25 Power of youth court to remit offender who attains age of 18 to magistrates’ court other than youth court for sentence
- 40
- (1) Subsection (2) applies where a person who appears or is brought before a youth court charged with an offence subsequently reaches the age of 18.
- (2) The youth court may, at any time after conviction and before sentence, remit the offender for sentence to a magistrates’ court other than a youth court (“the adult court”).
- 45

- (3) Where an offender is remitted under subsection (2), the adult court may deal with the case in any way in which it would have power to deal with it if all proceedings relating to the offence which took place before the youth court had taken place before the adult court.
- (4) But where an offender is remitted under subsection (2), section 24(4) (duty of adult magistrates' court to remit young offenders to youth court for sentence) does not apply to the adult court. 5
- (5) An offender who is remitted under subsection (2) has no right of appeal against the order of remission.
 This is without prejudice to any right of appeal against an order made in respect of the offence by the adult court. 10
- 26 Power of magistrates' court to remit case to another magistrates' court for sentence
- (1) - Subsection (2) applies where –
- (a) - a person aged 18 or over ("the offender") has been convicted by a magistrates' court ("the convicting court") of an offence ("the present offence") which is punishable with –
    - (i) - imprisonment, or
    - (ii) - driving disqualification,
  - (b) - it appears to the convicting court that some other magistrates' court ("the other court") has convicted the offender of another such offence in respect of which the other court has not –
    - (i) - passed sentence on the offender,
    - (ii) - committed the offender to the Crown Court for sentence, nor
    - (iii) - dealt with the offender in any other way, and 20
  - (c) - the other court consents to the offender's being remitted to it under this section. 25
- (2) - The convicting court may remit the offender to the other court to be dealt with in respect of the present offence by the other court instead of by the convicting court. 30
- (3) - For the purposes of subsection (1)(a) an offence is punishable with driving disqualification if the convicting court has a power or duty to order the offender to be disqualified under section 34, 35 or 36 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (disqualification for certain motoring offences) in respect of it. 35
- (4) - Where the convicting court remits the offender to the other court under this section the other court may deal with the case in any way in which it would have power to deal with it if all proceedings relating to the present offence which took place before the convicting court had taken place before the other court. 40
 This is subject to subsection (8).
- (5) - The power conferred on the other court by subsection (4) includes, where applicable, the power to remit the offender under this section to another magistrates' court in respect of the present offence.
- (6) - Where the convicting court has remitted the offender under this section, the other court may remit the offender back to the convicting court; and where it 45 does so subsections (4) and (5) (so far as applicable) apply with the necessary modifications.

- (7) An offender who is remitted under this section has no right of appeal against the order of remission.

This is without prejudice to any right of appeal against an order made in respect of the present offence by the other court. 5

- (8) Nothing in this section precludes the convicting court from making any order which it has power to make under section 148 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (restitution orders) by virtue of the offender's conviction of the present offence. 10

- (9) In this section “conviction” includes a finding under section 11(1) of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (remand for medical examination) that the person in question did the act or made the omission charged, and “convicted” is to be read accordingly.

27 Remission by magistrates' court: adjournment and remand 15

- (1) Where a magistrates' court (“the remitting court”) remits an offender under section 24, 25 or 26 to another magistrates' court (“the other court”) to be dealt with in respect of an offence –

(a) the remitting court must adjourn proceedings in relation to the offence, and 20

(b) any remand enactment has effect, in relation to the remitting court's power or duty to remand the offender on that adjournment, as if any reference to the court to or before which the person remanded is to be brought or appear after remand were a reference to the other court.

- (2) In this section, “remand enactment” means section 128 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (remand in custody or on bail) or any other enactment, whenever passed or made, relating to remand or the granting of bail in criminal proceedings; and for this purpose – 25

(a) “enactment” includes an enactment contained in any order, regulation or other instrument having effect by virtue of an Act, and 30

(b) “bail in criminal proceedings” has the same meaning as in the Bail Act 1976.

- (3) If the offender is under 18, the court must obtain and consider a pre-sentence report before forming the opinion unless – 5
  - (a) there exists a previous pre-sentence report obtained in respect of the offender, and

    - (i) in the circumstances of the case, and
    - (ii) having had regard to the information contained in that report or, if there is more than one, the most recent report, 10 that it is unnecessary to obtain a pre-sentence report.
- (4) Where a court does not obtain and consider a pre-sentence report before forming an opinion in relation to which the pre-sentence report requirements apply, no custodial sentence or community sentence is invalidated by the fact that it did not do so. 15

  - (b) - reproduces the actual wording of the matter asserted or contains its substance. 45

- (3) Nothing in section 37 or 38 affects any prohibition or restriction imposed by virtue of any other enactment on a publication or on matter included in a programme.

CHAPTER 3

SURCHARGE

41 Court’s duty to order payment of surcharge

- (1) A court when dealing with a person for one or more offences committed on or after 1 April 2007 must also order the person to pay a surcharge. This is subject to subsections (2) and (3).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in such cases as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State. 10
- (3) Where a court dealing with an offender considers –
- (a) that it would be appropriate to make one or more of –
    - (i) a compensation order,
    - (ii) an unlawful profit order, and 15
    - (iii) a slavery and trafficking reparation order, but

  - (c) the age of the offender.

CHAPTER 4

  - (b) in subsection (11)(b), for “section 21A of the Prosecution of Offences Act 1985” substitute “section 45 of the Sentencing Code”.

45 Criminal courts charge duty

- (1) Where the criminal courts charge duty applies to a court in relation to an offender, the court must order the offender to pay a charge in respect of relevant court costs, unless –
  - (a) the offender was under 18 when the offence was committed, 5
  - (b) the offence was committed before 13 April 2015, or
  - (c) the case is, or is of a class, prescribed by the Lord Chancellor by regulations.
- (2) In this section –
  - “court costs” means costs of providing the judiciary and the rest of the system of courts, but does not include defence or prosecution costs; 10
  - “relevant court costs” means court costs incurred in connection with –

  - (a) an offence, or
  - (b) a failure to comply with a requirement. 35
- (2) In dealing with the offender (other than under the duty) for the offence or failure, the court must not take into account –
  - (a) the criminal courts charge duty, or
  - (b) any criminal courts charge order.

47 Amount of criminal courts charge

- (1) A charge ordered to be paid by a criminal courts charge order must be of an amount specified by the Lord Chancellor by regulations.

- (2) - When specifying amounts under this section, the Lord Chancellor must seek to secure that an amount specified in respect of a class of case does not exceed the relevant court costs reasonably attributable to a case of that class.
- (3) - In this section “relevant court costs” has the same meaning as in section 45.

48 Interest on criminal courts charge 5

- (1) The Lord Chancellor may by regulations provide that a person who is ordered by a criminal courts charge order to pay a charge must pay interest on the charge if or to the extent that it remains unpaid.
- (2) The regulations may, in particular –

  - (b) make provision about periods when interest is or is not payable, and
  - (c) make provision by reference to a measure or document as amended from time to time.
- (3) The regulations may not make provision for a rate of interest that is higher than the rate that the Lord Chancellor considers would maintain the value in real terms of amounts that remain unpaid. 15
- (4) An amount of interest payable under the regulations is to be treated as part of the charge ordered to be paid by the criminal courts charge order.

49 Power of magistrates’ court to remit criminal courts charge

- (1) - A magistrates’ court may remit the whole or part of a criminal courts charge, but this is subject to subsections (2) to (4). 20
- (2) - It may remit the charge only if –

  - (b) - it is satisfied that collection and enforcement of the charge is impracticable. 25
- (3) - It may not remit the charge at a time when the person is detained in prison.
- (4) - It may not remit the charge unless each of the following has expired –

  - (a) - reduce the total number of hours or days to which the order relates by the same proportion as the amount remitted bears to the total amount in respect of which the order was made, or 40
  - (b) - if the total number of hours or days would be reduced to nil under paragraph (a), revoke the order.

- (6) In calculating a reduction required by subsection (5), any fraction of an hour or day is to be rounded down to the nearest hour or day.
- (7) In this section –
  - “prison” includes any place where a person serving a sentence of detention for an offence is liable to be detained; 5
  - “specified period” means a period of a length specified by the Lord Chancellor by regulations.

CHAPTER 5

DUTIES TO EXPLAIN OR GIVE REASONS

- 50 Duty to give reasons for and to explain effect of sentence 10
  - (1) A court passing sentence on an offender has the duties in subsections (2) and (3).
  - (2) The court must state in open court, in ordinary language and in general terms, the court’s reasons for deciding on the sentence.
  - (3) The court must explain to the offender in ordinary language – 15
    - (a) the effect of the sentence,
    - (b) the effects of non-compliance with any order that the offender is required to comply with and that forms part of the sentence,
    - (c) any power of the court to vary or review any order that forms part of the sentence, and 20
    - (d) the effects of failure to pay a fine, if the sentence consists of or includes a fine.
  - (4) Criminal Procedure Rules may –
    - (a) prescribe cases in which either duty does not apply, and
    - (b) make provision about how an explanation under subsection (3) is to be given. 25
  - (5) Subsections (6) to (8) are particular duties of the court in complying with the duty in subsection (2).
  - (6) The court must identify any sentencing guidelines relevant to the offender’s case and – 30
    - (a) explain how the court discharged any duty imposed on it by section 56 or 57 (duty to follow guidelines unless satisfied it would be contrary to the interests of justice to do so);
    - (b) where the court was satisfied it would be contrary to the interests of justice to follow the guidelines, state why. 35
  - (7) Where as a result of taking into account any matter mentioned in section 67(2) (guilty pleas), the court imposes a punishment on the offender which is less severe than the punishment it would otherwise have imposed, the court must state that fact.
  - (8) Subsections (9) and (10) apply where the offender is under 18. 40
  - (9) If the court imposes a youth rehabilitation order with supervision and surveillance, or a youth rehabilitation order with fostering, within the meaning of Part 1 of the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008, it must state why it is of the opinion mentioned in each of –

- (a) paragraph (b) and, if applicable, paragraph (c) of section 1(4) that Act, and
- (b) section 132.

- (10) If the court imposes a sentence that may only be imposed in the offender's case if the court is of the opinion mentioned in section 159(2) (discretionary custodial sentence), the court must state why it is of that opinion.

51 Court to give reasons where compensation order not made

- (1) This section applies where –
  - (a) a court is dealing with an offender in respect of an offence, and
  - (b) a compensation order is available.
- (2) When the court sentences the offender, if it does not make a compensation order, it must give reasons for not doing so.

52 Travel restriction orders: duty to give reasons where order not made

15

For the duty of the court, in certain circumstances, to give reasons for a decision not to make a travel restriction order, see section 33 of the Criminal Justice and Police Act 2001 (travel restriction orders in conjunction with sentence of imprisonment for certain drug-trafficking offences).

53 Offences under Animal Welfare Act 2006: duty to give reasons for not making certain orders

For duties of the court to give reasons in certain circumstances where it does not make an order under the Animal Welfare Act 2006 in a case where the order is available, see –

- (a) section 33(6) of that Act (deprivation);
- (b) section 34(1) of that Act (disqualification).

PART 4

EXERCISE OF COURT'S DISCRETION

CHAPTER 1

PURPOSES OF SENTENCING

30

54 Purposes of sentencing: adults

- (1) This section applies where –
  - (a) a court is dealing with an offender in respect of an offence, and
  - (b) the offender was 18 or over at the time of conviction.
- (2) The court must have regard to the following purposes of sentencing –
  - (a) the punishment of offenders,
  - (b) the reduction of crime (including its reduction by deterrence),
  - (c) the reform and rehabilitation of offenders,

- (d) the protection of the public, and
- (e) the making of reparation by offenders to persons affected by their offences.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply –
  - (a) to an offence in relation to which a mandatory sentence requirement applies (see section 274), or 5
  - (b) in relation to making any of the following under Part 3 of the Mental Health Act 1983 –
    - (i) a hospital order (with or without a restriction order),
    - (ii) an interim hospital order, 10
    - (iii) a hospital direction, or
    - (iv) a limitation direction.

55 Offenders aged under 18: considerations of court not affected by Code

Nothing in this Code affects the duties of the court –

- (a) to have regard to the principal aim of the youth justice system (which is to prevent offending (or re-offending) by persons aged under 18: see section 37 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998); 15
- (b) under section 44 of the Children and Young Persons Act 1933 (to have regard to welfare and in certain cases to take steps in relation to surroundings and provision of education etc). 20

CHAPTER 2

SENTENCING GUIDELINES

56 Sentencing guidelines: general duty of court

- (1) Every court –
  - (a) must, in sentencing an offender, follow any sentencing guidelines which are relevant to the offender's case, and
  - (b) must, in exercising any other function relating to the sentencing of offenders, follow any sentencing guidelines which are relevant to the exercise of the function, unless the court is satisfied that it would be contrary to the interests of justice to do so. 30

- (2) The duty imposed by subsection (1) is subject to –
  - (a) section 87(1) (fine must reflect seriousness of offence);
  - (b) section 132(2) (restriction on community order);
  - (c) section 136(2) and (5) (restrictions on choice of requirements of community order);
  - (d) section 159 (threshold for imposing discretionary custodial sentence);
  - (e) section 160 (custodial sentence must be for shortest term commensurate with seriousness of offence);
  - (f) sections 188 and 198 (life sentence for second listed offence for certain dangerous offenders); 40
  - (g) section 234 and Schedule 14 (determination of minimum term in relation to mandatory life sentence);

- (h) the provisions mentioned in section 274(1)(c) (mandatory minimum sentences).
- (3) Nothing in this section or section 57 or 58 is to be taken as restricting any power (whether under the Mental Health Act 1983 or otherwise) which enables a court to deal with an offender suffering from a mental disorder in the manner it considers to be most appropriate in all the circumstances. 5

57 Sentencing guidelines: determination of sentence

- (1) This section applies where –
  - (a) a court is deciding what sentence to impose on an offender for an offence, and 10
  - (b) offence-specific guidelines have been issued in relation to the offence.
- (2) The principal guidelines duty includes a duty to impose on the offender, in accordance with the offence-specific guidelines, a sentence which is within the offence range.
- (3) Subsection (2) is subject to – 15
  - (a) section 67 (reduction in sentences for guilty pleas),
  - (b) sections 68 and 266 (assistance by offenders: reduction or review of sentence) and any other rule of law by virtue of which an offender may receive a discounted sentence in consequence of assistance given (or offered to be given) by the offender to the prosecutor or investigator of an offence, and 20
  - (c) any rule of law as to the totality of sentences.
- (4) If the offence-specific guidelines describe different seriousness categories –
  - (a) the principal guidelines duty also includes a duty to decide which of the categories most resembles the offender's case in order to identify the sentencing starting point in the offence range, but 25
  - (b) nothing in this section imposes on the court a separate duty to impose a sentence which is within the category range.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply if the court is of the opinion that, for the purpose of identifying the sentence within the offence range which is the appropriate starting point, none of the categories sufficiently resembles the offender's case. 30
- (6) Subsections (2) and (4) (except as applied by section 58) are subject to any power a court has to impose an extended sentence.

58 Determination of notional determinate terms etc

Extended sentence: determination of appropriate custodial term 35

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where a court is considering whether to impose an extended sentence for an offence.
- (2) In determining the appropriate custodial term for the purposes of section 166(2), 183(2) or 196(2) (extended sentence for certain violent or sexual offences), section 57 applies to the court as it applies to a court in determining the sentence for an offence. 40

Life sentence for second listed offence: determination of sentence condition

- (3) Subsection (4) applies where a court is considering whether to impose a sentence under 188 or 198 (life sentence for second listed offence) for an offence.
  - (4) In determining, for the purpose of deciding whether the sentence condition in section 188(3) or 198(3) is met, the sentence that it would have passed as mentioned in that condition, section 57 applies to the court as it applies to a court in determining the sentence for an offence. 5
- Tariff for non-fixed life sentence*
- (5) Subsection (6) applies where a court has imposed a non-fixed life sentence for an offence. 10
  - (6) Section 57 applies to the court in determining the notional determinate term in respect of the offence for the purpose of determining the order to be made under section 236 (minimum term order for non-fixed life sentence).
  - (7) For the purposes of subsection (6), the notional determinate term is the determinate sentence that would have been passed in respect of the offence if the court had not been required by the need to protect the public and the potential danger of the offender to impose a non-fixed life sentence. 15
  - (8) In this section “non-fixed life sentence” means –
    - (a) a sentence of imprisonment for life (other than a sentence fixed by law),
    - (b) a sentence of detention for life under section 168, or
    - (c) a sentence of custody for life under section 187. 20

59 Sentencing guidelines duties: interpretation

- (1) In this Chapter –
  - “mental disorder”, in relation to a person, has the same meaning as in the Mental Health Act 1983; 25
  - “the principal guidelines duty” means the duty, imposed by section 56(1)(a), of a court, in sentencing an offender, to follow any sentencing guidelines which are relevant to the offender’s case;
  - “offence-specific guidelines” means any sentencing guidelines issued in relation to a particular offence which are structured in the way described in section 121(2) to (5) of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (and “the offence-specific guidelines”, in relation to an offence, means, if any such guidelines have been issued in relation to the offence, those guidelines); 30
  - “the sentencing starting point”, in relation to the offence range, has the meaning given by section 121(10) of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009. 35
- (2) For the purposes of this Chapter –
  - (a) references to the following are to be read in accordance with section 121 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (sentencing ranges) –
    - the offence range; 40
    - the category range;
    - the starting point;
    - the appropriate starting point;
  - (b) offence-specific guidelines describe different seriousness categories if they describe different categories of case in accordance with subsection (2) of that section. 45

CHAPTER 3

SERIOUSNESS AND DETERMINING SENTENCE

Generally

60 Application of Chapter

This Chapter applies where a court is considering the seriousness of an offence for the purposes of sentencing. 5

61 Assessing seriousness

Where a court is considering the seriousness of any offence, it must consider –

- (a) the offender's culpability in committing the offence, and
- (b) any harm which the offence – 10
  - (i) caused,
  - (ii) was intended to cause, or
  - (iii) might foreseeably have caused.

Aggravating factors

62 Offence committed on bail 15

In considering the seriousness of an offence committed while the offender was on bail, the court must treat the fact that it was committed in those circumstances as an aggravating factor.

63 Previous convictions

- (1) This section applies where a court is considering the seriousness of an offence ("the current offence") committed by an offender who has one or more relevant previous convictions. 20
- (2) The court must treat as an aggravating factor each relevant previous conviction that it considers can reasonably be so treated, having regard in particular to –
  - (a) the nature of the offence to which the relevant previous conviction relates and its relevance to the current offence, and 25
  - (b) the time that has elapsed since the relevant previous conviction.
- (3) In subsections (1) and (2) "relevant previous conviction" means –
  - (a) a previous conviction by a court in the United Kingdom,
  - (b) a previous conviction of a relevant offence under the law of another member State by a court in that State, 30
  - (c) a previous conviction of a service offence (see subsection (4)), or
  - (d) a finding of guilt in respect of a member State service offence (see subsection (5)).
- (4) In subsection (3)(c) (previous convictions of service offences) – 35
  - (a) "conviction" includes anything that under section 376(1) and (2) of the Armed Forces Act 2006 is to be treated as a conviction (which relates to summary hearings and the Summary Appeal Court);

- (b) “service offence” means –
  - (i) a service offence within the meaning of the Armed Forces Act 2006, or
  - (ii) an SDA offence within the meaning of the Armed Forces Act 2006 (Transitional Provisions etc) Order 2009 (S.I. 2009/1059); 5
- (c) the previous convictions referred to are to be taken to include a previous finding of guilt in –
  - (i) proceedings under the Army Act 1955, the Air Force Act 1955 or the Naval Discipline Act 1957 (whether before a court-martial or any other court or person authorised under any of those Acts to award a punishment in respect of any offence); or 10
  - (ii) proceedings before a Standing Civilian Court established under section 6 of the Armed Forces Act 1976.
- (5) In subsection (3)(d) “member State service offence” means an offence which –
  - (a) was the subject of proceedings under the service law of a member State other than the United Kingdom, and 15
  - (b) would constitute an offence under the law of any part of the United Kingdom, or a service offence (within the meaning of the Armed Forces Act 2006), if it were done in any part of the United Kingdom, by a member of Her Majesty’s forces, at the time of the conviction of the defendant for the current offence, 20 and, for that purpose –

  - “Her Majesty’s forces” has the same meaning as in the Armed Forces Act 2006;
  - “service law”, in relation to a member State other than the United Kingdom, means the law governing all or any of the naval, military or air forces of that State. 25- (6) For the purposes of this section, an offence is “relevant” if the offence would constitute an offence under the law of any part of the United Kingdom if it were done in that part at the time of the conviction of the defendant for the current offence. 30

64 Hostility

- (1) This section applies where a court is considering the seriousness of an offence which was aggravated by –
  - (a) racial hostility, 35
  - (b) religious hostility,
  - (c) hostility related to disability,
  - (d) hostility related to sexual orientation, or
  - (e) hostility related to transgender identity.

This is subject to subsection (3). 40
- (2) The court –
  - (a) must treat the fact that the offence was aggravated by hostility of any of those types as an aggravating factor, and
  - (b) must state in open court that the offence was so aggravated.
- (3) So far as it relates to racial and religious hostility, this section does not apply in relation to an offence under sections 29 to 32 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (racially or religiously aggravated offences). 45

- (4) For the purposes of this section, an offence is aggravated by hostility of one of the kinds mentioned in subsection (1) if –
- (a) at the time of committing the offence, or immediately before or after doing so, the offender demonstrated towards the victim of the offence hostility based on –
    - (i) the victim's membership (or presumed membership) of a racial group,
    - (ii) the victim's membership (or presumed membership) of a religious group,
    - (iii) a disability (or presumed disability) of the victim,
    - (iv) the sexual orientation (or presumed sexual orientation) of the victim, or (as the case may be)
    - (v) the victim being (or being presumed to be) transgender, or
  - (b) the offence was motivated (wholly or partly) by –
    - (i) hostility towards members of a racial group based on their membership of that group,
    - (ii) hostility towards membership of a religious group based on their membership of that group,
    - (iii) hostility towards persons who have a disability or a particular disability,
    - (iv) hostility towards persons who are of a particular sexual orientation, or (as the case may be)
    - (v) hostility towards persons who are transgender.
- (5) For the purposes of paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (4), it is immaterial whether or not the offender's hostility is also based, to any extent, on any other factor not mentioned in that paragraph.
- (6) In this section –
- (a) references to a racial group are to a group of persons defined by reference to race, colour, nationality (including citizenship) or ethnic or national origins;
  - (b) references to a religious group are to a group of persons defined by reference to religious belief or lack of religious belief;
  - (c) "membership" in relation to a racial or religious group, includes association with members of that group;
  - (d) "disability" means any physical or mental impairment;
  - (e) references to being transgender include references to being transsexual, or undergoing, proposing to undergo or having undergone a process or part of a process of gender reassignment;
  - (f) "presumed" means presumed by the offender.

65 Terrorist connection

- (1) - This section applies where a court is considering the seriousness of an offence specified in Schedule 1 (offences where terrorist connection to be considered).
- (2) - If the offence has a terrorist connection, the court –
- (a) - must treat that fact as an aggravating factor, and
  - (b) - must state in open court that the offence was so aggravated.
- (3) - For the purposes of this section, an offence has a terrorist connection if the offence –

- (a) - is, or takes place in the course of, an act of terrorism, or
- (b) - is committed for the purposes of terrorism.

For this purpose, “terrorism” has the same meaning as in the Terrorism Act 2000 (see section 1 of that Act).

66 Other aggravating factors 5

Other obligations of the court to treat a matter as an aggravating factor in considering the seriousness of an offence include those under –

- (a) section 4A of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971 (offences relating to drugs: proximity to school or involvement of young courier);
- (b) section 29 of the Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006 (using minor to mind weapon); 10
- (c) section 6 of the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016 (offences relating to psychoactive substances: proximity to school, involvement of young courier or commission of offence in custodial institution).

Mitigating factors 15

67 Reduction in sentences for guilty pleas

- (1) - This section applies where a court is determining what sentence to pass on an offender who has pleaded guilty to an offence in proceedings before that or another court.
- (2) - The court must take into account the following matters – 20
  - (a) - the stage in the proceedings for the offence at which the offender indicated the intention to plead guilty, and
  - (b) - the circumstances in which the indication was given.
- (3) - Subsections (4) and (5) apply if a mandatory sentence requirement applies in relation to the offence (see section 274) by virtue of – 25
  - (a) - section 1A(5) of the Prevention of Crime Act 1953 (minimum sentence for threatening in public place with offensive weapons);
  - (b) - section 139AA(7) of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 (minimum sentence for threatening with article with blade or point or offensive weapon);
  - (c) - section 226 (minimum of 7 years for third class A drug trafficking offence); 30
  - (d) - section 227 (minimum of 3 years for third domestic burglary);
  - (e) - section 228 (minimum sentence for repeat offence involving weapon).
- (4) - The mandatory sentence requirement does not prevent the court, after taking into account any matter referred to in subsection (2), from imposing a sentence that is less than the sentence which would otherwise be required by that requirement (“the mandatory sentence”). 35
- (5) - But if the offender was 18 or over at the time of conviction, the court may not impose a sentence that is less than 80 per cent of the mandatory sentence.

68 Reduction in sentence for assistance to prosecution 40

- (1) - This section applies where the Crown Court is determining what sentence to pass in respect of an offence on an offender who –

- (a) pleaded guilty to the offence,
  - (b) was convicted in the Crown Court or committed to the Crown Court for sentence, and
  - (c) pursuant to a written agreement made with a specified prosecutor, has assisted or offered to assist –
    - (i) the investigator,
    - (ii) or the specified prosecutor or any other prosecutor, in relation to that or any other offence.
- (2) The court may take into account the extent and nature of the assistance given or offered.
- (3) - If the court passes a sentence which is less than it would have passed but for the assistance given or offered, it must state in open court –
  - (a) - that it has passed a lesser sentence than it would otherwise have passed, and
  - (b) what the greater sentence would have been.
 This is subject to subsection (4).
- (4) - If the court considers that it would not be in the public interest to disclose that the sentence has been discounted by virtue of this section –
  - (a) - subsection (3) does not apply,
  - (b) - the court must give a written statement of the matters specified in subsection (3)(a) and (b) to –
    - (i) - the prosecutor, and
    - (ii) - the offender, and
  - (c) - sections 50(2) and 235(4) (requirement to explain reasons for sentence or other order) do not apply to the extent that the explanation will disclose that a sentence has been discounted by virtue of this section.
- (5) - Nothing in –
  - (a) - any of the provisions listed in section 274(1)(b) or (c) (minimum sentences in certain circumstances), or
  - (b) - section 234 (and Schedule 14) (determination of minimum term in relation to mandatory life sentence), affects the Crown Court's power under subsection (2).

69 Specified prosecutors

- (1) - In the reduction in sentence provisions, “specified prosecutor” means –
  - (a) - the Director of Public Prosecutions;
  - (b) - the Director of the Serious Fraud Office;
  - (c) - the Financial Conduct Authority;
  - (d) - the Prudential Regulation Authority;
  - (e) - the Bank of England, where the offence is an offence under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;
  - (f) - the Secretary of State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy, acting personally;
  - (g) - a prosecutor designated for the purposes of the reduction in sentence provisions by a prosecutor mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (f).
- (2) - In exercising the power to designate a prosecutor under subsection (1)(g), the Financial Conduct Authority, the Prudential Regulation Authority, the Bank of England and the Secretary of State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy may each designate only –

- (a) one prosecutor (a “chief prosecutor”) to act at any one time, and
  - (b) an alternative prosecutor (a “deputy prosecutor”) to act as a specified prosecutor –
    - (i) when the chief prosecutor is unavailable, or
    - (ii) during any period when no chief prosecutor is designated.
- (3) The provisions listed in column 1 of the following table (powers to delegate) do not apply to the exercise of powers conferred by the reduction in sentence provisions on the authorities specified in the corresponding entries in column 2 –

Provision that normally confers power to delegate	Body on whom power normally conferred
Paragraph 8(1) of Schedule 1ZA to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000	Financial Conduct Authority	15
Paragraph 17(1) of Schedule 6A to the Bank of England Act 1998	Prudential Regulation Authority
Paragraph 11 of Schedule 1 to the Bank of England Act 1998	Bank of England	20

- (4) The Attorney General may issue guidance to specified prosecutors about the exercise by them of any of their powers under the reduction in sentence provisions. 25
- (5) The Attorney General may from time to time revise any guidance issued under subsection (4).
- (6) In this section “the reduction in sentence provisions” means –
- (a) section 68;
  - (b) this section;
  - (c) sections 265 to 269 (review of sentence in cases of assistance for prosecutor etc).
- 30

Effect of Code on other powers of court in assessing seriousness

70 Effect of Chapter on other powers of court to consider seriousness

Nothing in this Chapter that requires or permits a court to take any matter into account for the purposes of sentencing an offender for an offence is to be taken to prevent a court taking any other matter into account for that purpose. 35

71 Basis of opinion provisions not to affect power to mitigate sentences

- (1) Nothing in any of the basis of opinion provisions prevents a court from mitigating an offender's sentence by taking into account any matters that, in the opinion of the court, are relevant in mitigation of sentence.
- (2) Section 159(2) does not prevent a court, after taking into account such matters, 5 from passing a community sentence even though it is of the opinion that—
  - (a) the offence, or
  - (b) the combination of the offence and one or more offences associated with it,was so serious that a community sentence could not normally be justified for the offence. 10
- (3) - Nothing in any of the basis of opinion provisions prevents a court—
  - (a) - from mitigating any penalty included in an offender's sentence by taking into account any other penalty included in that sentence, and
  - (b) - in the case of an offender who is convicted of one or more other offences, from mitigating the offender's sentence by applying any rule of law as to the totality of sentences. 15
- (4) - Subsections (2) and (3) are without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1).
- (5) - In this section “basis of opinion provision” means any of the following—
  - (a) - section 28 or 31 (pre-sentence reports and other requirements); 20
  - (b) - section 86, 87 or 88 (fixing of fines);
  - (c) - section 132 (imposing community sentences);
  - (d) - section 159, 160 or 161 (imposing custodial sentences);
  - (e) - paragraph 3 of Schedule 1 to the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 (youth rehabilitation order with intensive supervision and surveillance), or
  - (f) - paragraph 4 of Schedule 1 to that Act (youth rehabilitation order with fostering). 25

72 Basis of opinion provisions: offenders suffering from a mental disorder

- (1) - Nothing in any of the basis of opinion provisions is to be taken— 30
  - (a) - as requiring a court to pass—
    - (i) - a custodial sentence, or
    - (ii) any particular custodial sentence,on an offender suffering from a mental disorder, or
  - (b) - as restricting any power (whether under the Mental Health Act 1983 or otherwise) which enables a court to deal with such an offender in the manner it considers to be most appropriate in all the circumstances. 35
- (2) - In this section—

“mental disorder” has the same meaning as in the Mental Health Act 1983 (see section 1 of that Act); 40

“basis of opinion provision” has the same meaning as in section 71.

- (5) The period of conditional discharge specified in an order for conditional discharge must be a period of not more than 3 years beginning with the day on which the order is made.
- (6) - On making an order for conditional discharge, the court may, if it thinks it expedient for the purpose of the offender's reformation, allow any person who consents to do so to give security for the good behaviour of the offender. 20

- (7) - Nothing in this section precludes a court, on making an order for conditional discharge in respect of an offence, from— 25

Schedule 2 makes provision that applies where a person in respect of whom an order for conditional discharge has been made commits a further offence during the period of conditional discharge. 40

76 Effect of discharge

- (1) - This section applies where—
- (a) - an order for absolute discharge, or

- (b) an order for conditional discharge, is made in respect of an offence.
- (2) The conviction of that offence is to be deemed not to be a conviction for any purpose other than the purposes of –
- (a) the proceedings in which the order is made, and 5
- (b) in the case of an order for conditional discharge, any subsequent proceedings which may be taken against the offender under Schedule 2.
- This is subject to subsection (3).
- (3) In the case of an order for conditional discharge, if the offender is sentenced (under Schedule 2) for the offence – 10
- (a) the order ceases to have effect, and
- (b) if the offender was aged 18 or over at the time of conviction of the offence, subsection (2) ceases to apply to the conviction.
- (4) Without prejudice to subsections (2) and (3), the offender’s conviction is in any event to be disregarded for the purposes of any enactment or instrument which – 15
- (a) imposes any disqualification or disability upon convicted persons, or
- (b) authorises or requires the imposition of any such disqualification or disability. 20
- (5) Subsections (2) to (4) do not affect –

FINES

Availability

80 Availability of fine: magistrates' court

- (1) A fine of a particular amount is available for a magistrates' court dealing with an offender for an offence if under the relevant offence provision a person who is convicted of that offence is liable to a fine. 15
- (2) If under the relevant offence provision the offender is liable to –
  - (a) a fine of a specified amount,
  - (b) a fine of not more than a specified amount, 20
 the amount of the fine –
  - (i) must not be more than that amount, but
  - (ii) may be less than that amount (unless an Act passed after 31 December 1879 expressly provides to the contrary).
- (3) This is subject to – 25
  - (a) section 83 (availability: fines not to be combined with certain other orders);
  - (b) section 85 (limit on fines imposed by magistrates' courts in respect of young offenders).
- (4) In this section “relevant offence provision”, in relation to an offence, means – 30
  - (a) the enactment creating the offence or specifying the penalty to which a person convicted of the offence is liable, or
  - (b) that provision read in accordance with –
    - (i) section 85 of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (removal of limit on certain fines on conviction by magistrates' court) and regulations under that section; 35

- (ii) section 86 of that Act (power to increase certain other fines on conviction by magistrates’ court) and regulations under that section;
- (iii) section 32 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980 (penalties on summary conviction for offences triable either way);
- (iv) section 81 (power of magistrates’ court to fine where only imprisonment etc specified);
- (v) section 84 (standard scale of fines).

81 Power of magistrates’ court to fine where only imprisonment etc specified

- (1) This section applies where under an enactment a magistrates’ court has power to sentence an offender to imprisonment or other detention but not to a fine. It is immaterial whether the enactment was passed or made before or after the commencement of this Act. 10
- (2) The magistrates’ court may impose a fine instead of sentencing the offender to imprisonment or other detention. 15
- (3) In the case of an offence which –
  - (a) is triable either way, and
  - (b) was committed before 12 March 2015, a fine imposed under subsection (2) may not exceed the prescribed sum (within the meaning of section 32 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980). 20
- (4) In the case of a fine imposed under subsection (2) for a summary offence –
  - (a) the amount of the fine may not exceed level 3 on the standard scale, and
  - (b) the default term must not be longer than the term of imprisonment or detention to which the offender is liable on conviction of the offence.
For this purpose “default term” means the term of imprisonment or detention under section 108 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 to which the offender would be subject in default of payment of the fine. 25
- (5) In this section “enactment” includes an enactment contained in a local Act or in any order, regulation or other instrument having effect by virtue of an Act.

82 General power of Crown Court to fine offender convicted on indictment

- (1) A fine is available for the Crown Court where it is dealing with an offender for an offence –
  - (a) instead of, or
  - (b) in addition to, dealing with the offender in any other way which is available to the court. 35
- (2) Subsection (1) –
  - (a) does not apply where the offence is one for which the sentence –
    - (i) is fixed by law, or
    - (ii) falls to be imposed under a provision mentioned in subsection (3),
  - (b) is subject to any other enactment requiring the offender to be dealt with in a particular way, and
  - (c) does not apply if the court is precluded from sentencing the offender by its exercise of some other power. 40

- (3) Those provisions are –
- (a) section 226(2) or 227(2) (mandatory minimum sentences for certain repeated offences of drug trafficking or burglary committed by offenders aged 18 or over);
  - (b) a provision mentioned in section 274(1)(b) (required life sentences). 5
- (4) Nothing in subsection (1) affects the maximum amount of a fine to which a person is liable for an offence committed before 17 July 1978.

83 Availability of fine: effect of other orders

For circumstances in which a fine is not available see –

- (a) section 37(8) of the Mental Health Act 1983 (hospital order or guardianship order in case where person convicted of offence punishable with imprisonment); 10
- (b) section 19 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (referral order).

Magistrates' court 15

84 The standard scale of fines for summary offences

- (1) The standard scale of fines for summary offences, which is known as “the standard scale”, as it has effect for Code offences, is as follows –

Level on the scale	Amount of fine
	Offence committed on or after 11 April 1983 and before 1 October 1992	Offence committed on or after 1 October 1992
1	£25	£200	20
2	£50	£500
3	£200	£1,000
4	£500	£2,500	30
5	£1,000	£5,000

- (2) In relation to a Code offence, a relevant reference to a particular level on the standard scale is to be read as referring to that level on the scale set out in the column of the table in subsection (1) that applies to offences committed on the date on which the offence was committed. 35
- (3) In relation to –
- (a) a relevant reference in an enactment passed or made before 12 March 2015 to level 5 on the standard scale, and
  - (b) an offence committed on or after that date, subsection (2) is subject to section 85 of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (removal of limit on certain fines on conviction by magistrates’ court).

- (4) A reference to a level on the standard scale in an enactment (whenever passed or made) is a “relevant reference” to that level if the enactment – 5
    - (a) provides that a person convicted of a summary offence is liable on conviction to a fine or maximum fine by reference to that level, or
    - (b) confers power by subordinate instrument to make a person liable on conviction of a summary offence (whether or not created by the instrument) to a fine or maximum fine by reference to that level. 10
- In this section, “Code offence” is an offence of which the offender is convicted after the Code comes into force.

85 Limit on fines imposed by magistrates’ courts in respect of young offenders

- (1) This section applies where an offender – 15
  - (a) was convicted by a magistrates’ court,
  - (b) was under 18 at the time of conviction, and
  - (c) is before that court to be sentenced.
- (2) The court may not impose a fine of more than – 20
  - (a) £250, if the offender was under 14 at the time of conviction, or
  - (b) £1,000, if the offender was 14 or over at the time of conviction.

Exercise of powers

86 Fixing of fines: duty of court to inquire into individual offender’s circumstances

- (1) Before fixing the amount of any fine to be imposed on an offender who is an individual, a court must inquire into the offender’s financial circumstances. 25
- (2) For the power to make a financial circumstances order, see section 34.

87 Fixing of fines: exercise of court’s powers

- (1) The amount of any fine fixed by a court must be such as, in the opinion of the court, reflects the seriousness of the offence.
- (2) In fixing the amount of any fine to be imposed on an offender (whether an individual or other person), a court must take into account the circumstances of the case including, among other things, the financial circumstances of the offender so far as they are known, or appear, to the court. 30
- (3) Subsection (2) applies whether taking into account the financial circumstances of the offender has the effect of increasing or reducing the amount of the fine. 35
- (4) In applying subsection (2), a court must not reduce the amount of a fine on account of any surcharge it orders the offender to pay under section 41, except to the extent that the offender has insufficient means to pay both.

88 Power to determine financial circumstances where offender is absent or fails to provide information

- (1) This section applies where an offender –
  - (a) has been convicted in his or her absence –
    - (i) in pursuance of section 11 or 12 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (non-appearance of accused), or 5
    - (ii) in proceedings conducted in accordance with section 16A of that Act (trial by single justice on the papers), or
  - (b) has failed –
    - (i) to provide a statement of the offender's financial circumstances in response to a request which is an official request for the purposes of section 20A of the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (offence of making false statement as to financial circumstances), 10
    - (ii) to comply with an order under section 34(2) (statement as to offender's financial circumstances), or 15
    - (iii) otherwise to co-operate with the court in its inquiry into the offender's financial circumstances.
- (2) - If the court considers that it has insufficient information to make a proper determination of the financial circumstances of the offender for the purposes of section 87, it may make such determination as it considers appropriate. 20

89 Remission of fines following determination under section 88

- (1) - This section applies where a court has, in fixing the amount of a fine, determined the offender's financial circumstances under section 88 (offender absent or failing to provide information). 25
- (2) - If on subsequently inquiring into the offender's financial circumstances the court is satisfied that, had it had the results of that inquiry when sentencing the offender, it –
  - (a) - would have fixed a smaller amount, or
  - (b) - would not have fined the offender, 30 it may remit the whole or part of the fine.
- (3) - Where under this section the court remits the whole or part of a fine after a term of imprisonment, or detention under section 108 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000, has been fixed under –
  - (a) - section 91, or 35
  - (b) - section 82(5) of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (magistrates' powers in relation to default), it must reduce the term by the corresponding proportion.
- (4) - In calculating any reduction required by subsection (3), any fraction of a day is to be ignored. 40
- (5) - Subsection (6) applies where –
  - (a) - under this section the court remits the whole or part of a fine,
  - (b) - the offender was ordered under section 41 to pay a surcharge, and
  - (c) - the amount of the surcharge was set by reference to the amount of the fine. 45
- (6) - The court must –

- (a) - determine how much the surcharge would have been if the fine had not included the amount remitted, and
- (b) - remit the balance of the surcharge.

Fines: payment

90 Fine imposed by Crown Court: power to allow time for payment or payment by instalments 5

When the Crown Court imposes a fine on an offender, it may make an order –

- (a) - allowing time for the payment of the fine, or
- (b) - directing payment of the fine by instalments of the amounts and on the dates specified in the order.

91 Fine imposed on offender by Crown Court: duty to make term in default order

- (1) - This section applies when the Crown Court imposes a fine on an offender. But it does not apply in relation to a fine imposed by the Crown Court on appeal against a decision of a magistrates' court.

- (2) - Subsections (3) to (5) also apply in relation to a fine imposed on an offender – 15
  - (a) - by the criminal division of the Court of Appeal, or
  - (b) - by the Supreme Court on appeal from that division.

- (3) - The court must make an order (a “term in default order”) fixing a term –
  - (a) - of imprisonment, or
  - (b) - of detention under section 108 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000, 20 which the offender is to undergo if any sum which the offender is liable to pay is not duly paid or recovered.

- (4) - Column 3 of the following Table sets out the maximum term of imprisonment or detention under section 108 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 which may be fixed by a term in default order in relation to a sum that is – 25
  - (a) - more than the corresponding entry (if any) in column 1, but
  - (b) - not more than the corresponding entry (if any) in column 2.

Amount of sum		Maximum term	30

- (5) - The offender may not be committed to prison, or detained, by virtue of a term in default order on the same occasion as the fine is imposed unless – 10
- (a) - the offence to which the fine relates is punishable with imprisonment and the offender appears to the court to have sufficient means to pay the sum forthwith,
  - (b) - it appears to the court that the offender is unlikely to remain long enough at a place of abode in the United Kingdom to enable payment of the sum to be enforced by other methods, 15
  - (c) - on that occasion the court sentences the offender to immediate imprisonment, custody for life or detention in a young offender institution for that or another offence, or
  - (d) - the offender is already serving a sentence of custody for life or a term – 20
    - (i) - of imprisonment,
    - (ii) - of detention in a young offender institution, or
    - (iii) - of detention under section 108 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (detention in default).
- (6) - Where any person liable for the payment of a fine to which this section applies is sentenced by the court to, or is serving or otherwise liable to serve, a term (“the current term”) – 25
- (a) - of imprisonment,
  - (b) - of detention in a young offender institution, or
  - (c) - of detention under section 108 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (detention in default), 30
- the court may order that any term of imprisonment or detention fixed by a term in default order is not to begin to run until after the end of the current term.
- (7) - Nothing in any enactment which authorises the Crown Court to deal with an offender in any way in which a magistrates’ court might have dealt, or could deal, with the offender restricts the powers conferred by this section. 35
- This is subject to subsection (8).
- (8) - Where –
- (a) - the Crown Court imposes a fine in exercise of powers to deal with an offender in any way in which a magistrates’ court might have dealt, or could deal, with the offender, and 40
  - (b) - section 149(1) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 (maximum periods of imprisonment in default of payment of certain fines) specifies a period that would have applied to the fine had it been imposed by a magistrates' court, the term imposed by the Crown Court under subsection (3) in relation to the fine must not exceed that period.

- (9) For the purposes of any reference in this section, however expressed, to the term of imprisonment or other detention – 5
- (a) to which a person has been sentenced, or
  - (b) which, or part of which, the person has served,
- consecutive terms and terms which are wholly or partly concurrent are treated as a single term, unless the context otherwise requires. 10
- (10) Any reference in this section, however expressed, to a previous sentence is to be read as a reference to a previous sentence passed by a court in Great Britain.

92 Enforcement of fines imposed on offenders by Crown Court

- (1) A fine imposed on an offender by the Crown Court is to be treated for the purposes of collection, enforcement and remission as having been imposed – 15
- (a) by a magistrates' court specified in an order made by the Crown Court, or
  - (b) if no such order is made, by the magistrates' court by which the offender was sent to the Crown Court for trial under section 51 or 51A of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998, 20
- and as having been so imposed on conviction by the magistrates' court in question.
This is subject to subsection (5).
- (2) Subsection (3) applies where a magistrates' court issues a warrant of commitment on a default in the payment of a fine imposed by the Crown Court on an offender. 25
- (3) The term of imprisonment, or detention under section 108 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000, specified in the warrant of commitment as the term which the offender is liable to serve is to be –
- (a) the term fixed by the Crown Court under section 91(3), or 30
  - (b) if that term has been reduced under section 79(2) of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (part payment) or section 85(2) of that Act (remission), that term as so reduced,
- even if that term exceeds the period applicable to the case under section 149(1) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 (maximum periods of imprisonment in default of payment of certain fines). 35
- (4) Subsections (1) to (3) apply in relation to a fine imposed on an offender –
- (a) by the criminal division of the Court of Appeal, or
  - (b) by the Supreme Court on appeal from that division,
- as they apply in relation to a fine imposed by the Crown Court. 40
References in those subsections to the Crown Court (except the reference in subsection (1)(b)) are to be read accordingly.
- (5) A magistrates' court must not, under section 85(1) or 120 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 as applied by subsection (1), remit the whole or any part of a fine imposed by – 45
- (a) the Crown Court,

- (b) the criminal division of the Court of Appeal, or
  - (c) the Supreme Court on appeal from that division,
- without the consent of the Crown Court.

- (6) Where payment of a fine is enforceable by a magistrates' court by virtue of this section, the fine is to be treated for the purposes of section 38 of the Courts Act 2003 (application of receipts of designated officers) as having been imposed by a magistrates' court. 5

93 Power of Crown Court to allow time for payment, or payment by instalments, of costs and compensation

Where the Crown Court makes an order mentioned in Part 1 of Schedule 9 to the Administration of Justice Act 1970 (orders against accused for the payment of costs or compensation), the court may – 10

- (a) allow time for the payment of the sum due under the order;
- (b) direct payment of that sum by instalments of the amounts and on the dates specified in the order. 15

COMPENSATION ORDERS

Compensation orders

94 Compensation orders

In this Code “compensation order” means an order made in respect of an offender for an offence that requires the offender – 20

- (a) to pay compensation for any personal injury, loss or damage resulting from –
  - (i) the offence, or
  - (ii) any other offence which is taken into consideration by the court in determining the sentence for the offence, or 25
- (b) to make payments for –
  - (i) funeral expenses, or
  - (ii) bereavement, 30

in respect of a death resulting from any such offence.

Making a compensation order

95 Compensation orders: availability

- (1) A compensation order is available for a court by or before which an offender is convicted of an offence.
This is subject to section 97 (road accidents). 35
- (2) Where a compensation order is available, the court may make such an order whether or not it also deals with the offender for the offence in any other way.

96 Compensation orders: exercise of court’s powers

- (1) The amount to be paid under a compensation order must be specified in the order.
- (2) That amount must be the amount that the court considers appropriate, having regard to any evidence and any representations that are made by or on behalf of the offender or the prosecution. 5
But see also sections 97 to 100.
- (3) In determining –
  - (a) whether to make a compensation order against an offender, or
  - (b) the amount to be paid under such an order, 10 the court must have regard to the offender’s means, so far as they appear or are known to the court.
- (4) Where the court considers –
  - (a) that it would be appropriate both to impose a fine and to make a compensation order, but 15
  - (b) that the offender has insufficient means to pay both an appropriate fine and appropriate compensation, the court must give preference to compensation (though it may impose a fine as well).

Particular cases 20

97 Road accidents

- (1) A compensation order may not be made in respect of funeral expenses or bereavement in respect of a death due to a road accident.
- (2) A compensation order may be made in respect of injury, loss or damage due to a road accident only if it is in respect of – 25
  - (a) loss suffered by a person’s dependants in consequence of the person’s death,
  - (b) damage which is treated by section 98 as resulting from an offence under the Theft Act 1968 or Fraud Act 2006, or
  - (c) uninsured harm. 30
- (3) In subsection (2), “uninsured harm” means injury, loss or damage as respects which –
  - (a) the offender was uninsured in relation to the use of the vehicle in question, and
  - (b) compensation is not payable under any arrangements to which the Secretary of State is a party. 35

An offender is not uninsured in relation to the use of a vehicle for this purpose if that use of it is exempted from insurance by section 144 of the Road Traffic Act 1988.
- (4) Where a compensation order is made in respect of injury, loss or damage due to a road accident, the amount to be paid may include an amount representing all or part of any loss of, or reduction in, preferential rates of insurance attributable to the accident. 40

- (5) In this Chapter, “road accident” means an accident arising out of the presence of a motor vehicle on a road.

98 Damage to property and clean-up costs resulting from certain offences

- (1) Subsection (2) applies in the case of an offence under the Theft Act 1968 or Fraud Act 2006, where the property in question is recovered. 5
- (2) Any damage to the property occurring while it was out of the owner’s possession is to be treated for the purposes of section 94 as having resulted from the offence.
This applies regardless of how the damage was caused and who caused it.
- (3) Section 29 of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979 makes provision about the person in whose favour a compensation order relating to certain offences involving damage to monuments is to be made. 10
- (4) Section 33B of the Environmental Protection Act 1990 (clean-up costs) provides for certain costs connected with certain offences relating to waste to be loss or damage resulting from those offences for the purposes of section 94. 15

99 Funeral expenses and bereavement: cases other than road accidents

- (1) A compensation order in respect of funeral expenses may be made for the benefit of anyone who incurred the expenses.
- (2) A compensation order in respect of bereavement may be made only for the benefit of a person for whose benefit a claim for damages for bereavement could be made under section 1A of the Fatal Accidents Act 1976. 20
- (3) The amount to be paid in respect of bereavement under a compensation order must not exceed the amount for the time being specified in section 1A(3) of that Act.

Limits on compensation orders made by magistrates’ court in respect of young offenders 25

100 Limit on amount payable under compensation order of magistrates’ court in case of young offender

- (1) This section applies where –
- (a) a magistrates’ court is dealing with an offender for one or more offences (each, a “main offence”) of which the offender was convicted when under 18, and
  - (b) the court makes a compensation order in respect of –
    - (i) a main offence, or
    - (ii) any offence taken into consideration by the court in determining sentence for a main offence (a “TIC offence”). 30
- (2) The compensation in respect of a main offence must not exceed £5,000.
- (3) The total compensation in respect of main offences and TIC offences must not exceed £5,000 multiplied by the number of main offences.
- (4) For this purpose, “the compensation” in respect of a main offence or a TIC offence means the amounts to be paid under any compensation order or compensation orders made in respect of that offence. 40

- (5) This section is subject to section 33B(6) of the Environmental Protection Act 1990 (clean-up costs relating to certain offences relating to waste).

Supplementary

101 Compensation orders: suspension of entitlement and appeals etc

- (1) A person in whose favour a compensation order is made is not entitled to receive the amount due to the person until there is no further possibility of the order being varied or set aside on appeal (disregarding any power to grant leave to appeal out of time). 5
- (2) Criminal Procedure Rules may make provision regarding the way in which the appropriate court is to deal with money paid in satisfaction of a compensation order where the entitlement of the person in whose favour it was made is suspended under subsection (1). 10
- (3) The Court of Appeal may by order annul or vary any compensation order made by the Crown Court, even if the conviction is not quashed.
- (4) Where a compensation order is annulled or varied under subsection (3) – 15
- (a) the compensation order –
    - (i) if annulled, is not to take effect;
    - (ii) if varied, is to take effect as varied;
  - (b) the Court of Appeal must also vary any order previously made under section 41 (court’s duty to order payment of surcharge) so as to secure that the offender’s liability under that order is the same as it would have been if the offender were being dealt with by the Crown Court. 20
- (5) Where a compensation order has been made against an offender in respect of an offence taken into consideration by the court in determining sentence for one or more other offences (each, a “main offence”) – 25
- (a) the order ceases to have effect if the offender successfully appeals against conviction of the main offence or, if more than one, all the main offences;
  - (b) the offender may appeal against the order as if it were part of the sentence imposed in respect of the main offence or, if more than one, any of the main offences. 30

Reviews and appeals

102 Review of compensation orders

- (1) This section applies where –
- (a) a compensation order has been made against an offender, 35
  - (b) there is no further possibility of the compensation order being varied or set aside on appeal (disregarding any power to grant leave to appeal out of time), and
  - (c) the offender has not paid into court the whole of the amount required to be paid under the order. 40
- (2) The appropriate court may, on the application of the offender –
- (a) discharge the order, or
  - (b) reduce the amount which remains to be paid.

This is subject to subsection (3).

- (3) - The appropriate court may exercise that power only –
  - (a) - if it appears to the court that the injury, loss or damage in respect of which the compensation order was made has been held in civil proceedings to be less than it was taken to be for the purposes of the order, 5
  - (b) - if, in the case of a compensation order in respect of the loss of any property, it appears to the court that the property has been recovered by the person in whose favour the order was made, or
  - (c) if – 10
    - (i) it appears to the court that the offender’s means are insufficient or have been reduced (see subsections (5) and (6)), and
    - (ii) where the compensation order was made by the Crown Court, the appropriate court has obtained the consent of the Crown Court. 15
- (4) - Subsections (5) to (7) apply for the purposes of subsection (3)(c).
- (5) - The offender’s means are “insufficient” if they are not sufficient to satisfy in full –
  - (a) - the compensation order, and
  - (b) - every order of any of the following kinds made against the offender in the same proceedings – 20
    - (i) - a confiscation order under Part 6 of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 or Part 2 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002;
    - (ii) - an unlawful profit order under section 4 of the Prevention of Social Housing Fraud Act 2013; 25
    - (iii) - a slavery and trafficking reparation order under section 8 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
- (6) - The offender’s means “have been reduced” if they –
  - (a) - have unexpectedly been substantially reduced since the compensation order was made, and 30
  - (b) - seem unlikely to increase for a considerable period.
- (7) - If the compensation order was made on appeal it is to be treated –
  - (a) - if made on an appeal from a magistrates’ court, as if made by that magistrates’ court;
  - (b) - if made on an appeal – 35
    - (i) - from the Crown Court, or
    - (ii) from the criminal division of the Court of Appeal, as if made by the Crown Court.

103 Effect of compensation order on subsequent award of damages in civil proceedings 40

- (1) - This section has effect where –
  - (a) - a compensation order has been made in favour of any person in respect of any injury, loss or damage, and
  - (b) - a claim by the person in civil proceedings for damages in respect of the injury, loss or damage subsequently falls to be determined. 45

- (2) - The damages in the civil proceedings must be assessed without regard to the order. -
- (3) - But the plaintiff may recover only an amount equal to the aggregate of –
  - (a) - any amount by which the damages assessed exceed the compensation, and
  - (b) - a sum equal to any portion of the compensation which the person fails to recover (“unrecovered compensation”).
- (4) - The plaintiff may not enforce the judgment, so far as it relates to unrecovered compensation, without the leave of the court. -

Interpretation

10

104 Compensation orders: interpretation

- (1) - In this Chapter –
  - “appropriate court”, in relation to a compensation order, means the magistrates’ court which, by virtue of section 41(1) of the Administration of Justice Act 1970, for the time being has functions in relation to collection and enforcement of the order;
  - “compensation order” has the meaning given by section 94;
  - “court” does not include the Court Martial;
  - “road accident” has the meaning given by section 97.
- (2) - For the purposes of this Chapter a compensation order is made in respect of an offence if it relates to personal injury, loss, damage or death resulting from that offence.
 For this purpose “offence” includes an offence taken into consideration by a court when sentencing an offender for an offence of which the offender has been convicted.

  - (b) - deprives the offender of any rights in the property to which it relates.

106 Deprivation orders: availability

35

(ii) a summons in respect of it was issued,
 if subsection (3) or (5) applies.

- (3) This subsection applies if the court is satisfied that the property –
- (a) has been used for the purpose of committing, or facilitating the commission of, any offence, or 5
  - (b) was intended by the offender to be used for that purpose.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), facilitating the commission of an offence includes taking any steps after it has been committed for the purpose of –
- (a) disposing of any property to which the offence relates, or
  - (b) avoiding apprehension or detection. 10
- (5) This subsection applies if –

108 Exercise of power to make deprivation order

- (1) - In considering whether to make a deprivation order in respect of any property, a court must have regard to –
- (a) - the value of the property, and

- (b) the likely financial and other effects on the offender of making the order (taken together with any other order that the court contemplates making).
  - (2) Where a deprivation order is available for an offence, the court may make such an order whether or not it deals with the offender in any other way for the offence. 5
- 109 Deprivation order: property to be taken into possession of police or Secretary of State

  - (3) Property that is taken into the possession of the Secretary of State by virtue of subsection (2) is to be treated for the purposes of section 26 of the UK Borders Act 2007 (disposal of property) as property that has come into the possession of the Secretary of State as mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of that section. 20
  - (4) Unless the court makes an order under subsection (2), the property is to be taken into the possession of the police (if it is not already in their possession).
- 110 Property to which a deprivation order applies: orders by magistrates’ court
  - (1) This section applies where property to which a deprivation order relates is in the possession of the police by virtue of section 109(4). 25
  - (2) A magistrates’ court may, on the application of a police officer or a claimant of the property –

    - (b) if its owner cannot be ascertained, make any other order about the property. 30This is subject to subsection (3).
  - (3) If the application is made by a claimant of the property, the court may make an order under subsection (2) only if –
    - (a) the application is made before the end of the period of 6 months beginning with the day after the deprivation order is made, and 35
    - (b) the claimant satisfies the court –
      - (i) that the claimant did not consent to the offender’s possession of the property, or
      - (ii) if the deprivation order was made by virtue of section 106(3) (property used for purposes of offence), that the claimant did not know, and had no reason to suspect, that the property was likely to be used for a purpose mentioned in section 106(3). 40

- (4) Any right of a person to take legal proceedings against a person in possession of property by virtue of an order under subsection (2) –
- (a) ceases at the end of the 6 month period mentioned in subsection (3)(a), but
  - (b) is not otherwise affected by the order.

- (3) - Regulations made by virtue of this section may not provide for the local policing body to become the owner of property which is the subject of an order under section 112 (court order as to application of property subject to deprivation order). 20

112 Application of proceeds of property subject to deprivation order

- (1) - This section applies where a court makes a deprivation order in respect of any property and –

- are to be paid to the person.
- (3) - The court may make an order under this section only if it is satisfied that, but for the inadequacy of the offender's means, it would have made a compensation order under which the offender would have been required to pay compensation of an amount not less than the amount specified under subsection (2)(b). 35
- (4) - An order under this section has no effect –
- (a) - before the end of the 6 month period mentioned in section 110(3)(a), or

DISQUALIFICATION

CHAPTER 1

DRIVING DISQUALIFICATION ORDERS

116 Driving disqualification order

In this Code “driving disqualification order” means an order made under this Chapter in respect of an offender that the offender is disqualified, for the period specified in the order, for holding or obtaining a driving licence.

117 Driving disqualification: availability for any offence

- (1) - A driving disqualification order is available for the court by or before which an offender is convicted of an offence if –
  - (a) - the offence was committed on or after 1 January 1998, and
  - (b) - the court has been notified by the Secretary of State that the power to make such orders is exercisable by the court (and the notice has not been withdrawn).
- (2) - Where a driving disqualification order is available by virtue of this section, the court may make a driving disqualification order whether or not it also deals with the offender for the offence in any other way. -

118 Driving disqualification order: availability where vehicle used for purposes of crime

30

- (1) - A driving disqualification order is available also where –
  - (a) - an offender has been convicted of an offence punishable on indictment with imprisonment for a term of 2 years or more,
  - (b) - the offender is before the Crown Court, having been –
    - (i) - convicted of the offence before that court, or 35

- (ii) - committed to that court for sentence under section 13 (committal for sentence on summary trial of offence triable either way: adults) in respect of the offence, and
    - (c) - the Crown Court is satisfied that a motor vehicle was used (by the offender or by anyone else) for the purpose of committing, or facilitating the commission of, the offence. 5
  - (2) - For the purposes of subsection (1), facilitating the commission of an offence - includes taking any steps after it has been committed for the purpose of – -
    - (a) - disposing of any property to which the offence relates, or
    - (b) - avoiding apprehension or detection. 10
  - (3) - A driving disqualification order is available also where –
    - (a) - an offender is convicted by or before a court of –
      - (i) - common assault, or
      - (ii) - any other offence involving an assault (including an offence of aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring, or an offence under Part 2 of the Serious Crime Act 2007 (encouraging or assisting) related to, an offence), and 15
    - (b) - the court is satisfied that the assault was committed by driving a motor vehicle.
  - 119 Disqualification period 20

Where a court makes a driving disqualification order against an offender in respect of an offence, the disqualification period must be such period as the court considers appropriate.

But this is subject to sections 121 and 122.
  - 120 Requirement to produce licences where driving disqualification order made 25

A court which makes a driving disqualification order in respect of an offender must require the offender to produce any (and, if more than one, all) of the following held by the offender –

    - (a) - a driving licence;
    - (b) - a Northern Ireland licence (within the meaning of Part 3 of the Road Traffic Act 1988); 30
    - (c) - a Community licence (within the meaning of Part 3 of the Road Traffic Act 1988).
  - 121 Extension of disqualification where custodial sentence also imposed
    - (1) - This section applies where a court – 35
      - (a) - imposes a custodial sentence on an offender for an offence, and
      - (b) - makes a driving disqualification order in respect of the offender for the same offence.
    - (2) - But this section does not apply where the custodial sentence is – 40
      - (a) - a suspended sentence, or
      - (b) - a life sentence in relation to which the court makes a whole life order under section 234(2)(b).
    - (3) - The disqualification period must be –

- (a) - the discretionary disqualification period, and
  - (b) - the appropriate extension period.
- (4) - The discretionary disqualification period is the period which the court would, in the absence of this section, have specified in the driving disqualification order. 5
- (5) - The appropriate extension period for a sentence specified in column 2 is equal to the period calculated in accordance with column 3 –

	Sentence	Length of appropriate extension period
1	a detention and training order under section 163 (offenders under 18: detention and training orders)	half the term of the detention and training order	10
2	an extended sentence of detention under section 164 (persons under 18)	two-thirds of the term imposed pursuant to section 164(a) (the appropriate custodial term)	15
3	a sentence under section 180 (special custodial sentence for certain offenders of particular concern: adults aged 18 to 20)	half the term imposed pursuant to section 180(2)(a) (the appropriate custodial term)
4	an extended sentence of detention in a young offender institution	two-thirds of the term imposed pursuant to section 181(a) (the appropriate custodial term)	20
5	a sentence under section 193 (special custodial sentence for certain offenders of particular concern: adults aged 21 and over)	half the term imposed pursuant to section 193(2)(a) (the appropriate custodial term)	25
6	an extended sentence of imprisonment	two-thirds of the term imposed pursuant to section 194(a) (the appropriate custodial term)
7	a life sentence in relation to which a minimum term order is made under section 234(2)(a)	the term specified in the minimum term order	30
8	any other case	half the custodial sentence imposed.

- (6) Any period determined under subsection (5) which includes a fraction of a day must be rounded up to the nearest number of whole days. 35

122 Effect of custodial sentence in other cases

- (1) This section applies where a court makes a driving disqualification order against an offender in respect of an offence, and –
- (a) it imposes a custodial sentence (other than a suspended sentence) on the offender for another offence, or 40

- (b) a custodial sentence previously imposed on the offender has not expired.
- (2) In determining the disqualification period, the court must, if and to the extent that it is appropriate to do so, have regard to the diminished effect of disqualification as a distinct punishment if the person who is disqualified is also detained in pursuance of a custodial sentence. 5
 But the court may not take into account for this purpose any custodial sentence that it imposes on the offender for the offence.

123 Driving disqualification orders: interpretation

- In this Chapter – 10
  - “disqualification period”, in relation to a driving disqualification order made in respect of an offender, means the period specified in the order as the period for which the offender is disqualified for holding or obtaining a driving licence;
  - “driving licence” means a licence to drive a motor vehicle granted under Part 3 of the Road Traffic Act 1988. 15

130 Availability of community order

- (1) A community order is available for a court by or before which an offender is convicted of an offence if—
  - (a) the offender was aged 18 or over at the time of the conviction, and
  - (b) the offence is punishable with imprisonment.
- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to—
  - (a) subsection (3),
  - (b) section 131 (restriction on making both community order and suspended sentence order), and
  - (c) section 37(8) of the Mental Health Act 1983 (community order not to be made in combination with hospital order or guardianship order in respect of same offence).
- (3) A community order is not available in respect of an offence in relation to which a mandatory sentence requirement applies (see section 274).
- (4) For the purposes of determining whether a community order is available for a sentencing court, the offence is to be regarded as punishable with imprisonment only if it is punishable with imprisonment by the sentencing court (or would be if the offender were aged 21 or over).

131 Restriction on making both community order and suspended sentence order

- A court may not make a community order in respect of an offence if it makes a suspended sentence order in respect of—
- (a) the offence,
  - (b) any other offence of which the offender is convicted by or before it, or
  - (c) any other offence for which it deals with the offender.

Exercise of power to make community order 35

132 Exercise of power to impose community order: general considerations

- (1) This section applies where a community order is available.
- (2) The court must not make a community order in the offender's case unless it is of the opinion that—
  - (a) the offence, or

- (b) the combination of the offence and one or more offences associated with it, was serious enough to warrant the making of such an order.
- (3) In forming that opinion, the court must take into account all the information that is available to it about the circumstances of the offence, or of it and the associated offence or offences, including any aggravating or mitigating factors. 5
- (4) The pre-sentence report requirements (see section 28) apply to the court in relation to forming that opinion.
- (5) The fact that a court may, by virtue of subsection (2), make a community order in relation to an offence does not require it to do so. 10

133 Community order: effect of remand in custody

- (1) - In determining the restrictions on liberty to be imposed by a community order in respect of an offence, the court may have regard to any period for which the offender has been remanded in custody in connection with—
  - (a) - the offence, or 15
  - (b) - any other offence the charge for which was founded on the same facts or evidence.
- (2) - For this purpose a person is remanded in custody if—
  - (a) - remanded in or committed to custody by order of a court,
  - (b) - remanded to youth detention accommodation (see subsection (3)), or 20
  - (c) - remanded, admitted or removed to hospital under section 35, 36, 38 or 48 of the Mental Health Act 1983.
- (3) - The reference in subsection (2)(b) to being remanded to youth detention accommodation—
  - (a) - has the same meaning as in Chapter 3 of Part 3 of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (remands of children otherwise than on bail): see, in particular, section 91 of that Act, but 25
  - (b) - also includes a reference to being remanded or committed before 3 December 2012 to local authority accommodation under section 23 of the Children and Young Persons Act 1969 and— 30
    - (i) - kept in secure accommodation (within the meaning of that section), or
    - (ii) - detained in a secure training centre pursuant to arrangements under subsection (7A) of that section. 35

Available requirements

134 Community orders: available requirements

- (1) - A court may not make a community order which imposes a community order requirement that is not an available requirement.
- (2) - A community order requirement is an available requirement unless a provision mentioned in column 3 of the entry for that requirement in the community order requirements table (see section 129) provides otherwise. 40

135 Community order: availability of particular requirements

Alcohol abstinence and monitoring requirement

- (1) An alcohol abstinence and monitoring requirement is not an available requirement unless it is available by virtue of piloting regulations (see Schedule 16 [to be added]). 5
- (2) An alcohol abstinence and monitoring requirement is not an available requirement unless regulations are in force under paragraph 25(7)(c) of Schedule 3 (prescribed arrangements for monitoring).
- (3) An alcohol abstinence and monitoring requirement imposing a requirement within paragraph 25(1)(a)(ii) of Schedule 3 (alcohol level to be kept below specified level) is not an available requirement unless regulations are in force under 25(7)(b) of that Schedule (prescribed alcohol level). 10

Attendance centre requirement

- (4) An attendance centre requirement is not an available requirement unless the offender was aged under 25 at the time of conviction of the offence. 15

Electronic compliance monitoring requirement

- (5) An electronic compliance monitoring requirement is not an available requirement in relation to a community order unless the community order imposes at least one other available requirement, other than – 20
  - (a) an alcohol abstinence and monitoring requirement;
  - (b) an electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement.

Electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement

- (6) An electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement is available only –
  - (a) in relation to –
    - (i) a local justice area specified in the Crime and Courts Act 2013 (Commencement No. 15, Transitional and Savings Provisions) Order 2016 (S.I. 2016/962), or 25
    - (ii) an area specified in another order made under section 61(2) of the Crime and Courts Act 2013 bringing into force Part 4 of Schedule 16 to that Act in relation to that area; 30
  - (b) in relation to any such area, only for so long as such an order provides that that Part of that Schedule is in force in relation to it, and, accordingly, does not apply where an order is made or amended under Part 1 or 2 of Schedule 5 (transfer to Scotland or Northern Ireland).

Exercise of power to impose requirements 35

136 Community order: exercise of power to impose particular requirements

- (1) This section applies where a court makes a community order.

Suitability of requirements

- (2) The particular requirement or requirements forming part of the community order must be such as, in the opinion of the court is, or taken together are, the most suitable for the offender. 40

- (3) In forming that opinion the court may take into account any information about the offender which is before it.
- (4) The pre-sentence report requirements (see section 28) apply to the court in relation to forming any opinion as to the suitability for the offender of the particular requirement or requirements to be imposed by the community order. 5

Considerations of seriousness and punishment etc

- (5) The restrictions on liberty imposed by the order must be such as are in the opinion of the court commensurate with the seriousness of –
  - (a) the offence, or 10
  - (b) the combination of the offence and one or more offences associated with it.
- (6) In forming that opinion, the court must take into account all the information that is available to it about the circumstances of the offence, or of it and the associated offence or offences, including any aggravating or mitigating factors. 15
- (7) The pre-sentence report requirements (see section 28) apply to the court in relation to forming that opinion.
- (8) The order must include at least one requirement imposed for the purpose of punishment.
- (9) Subsection (8) does not apply where – 20
  - (a) the court also imposes a fine, or
  - (b) there are exceptional circumstances relating to the offence or to the offender which –
    - (i) would make it unjust in all the circumstances for the court to impose a requirement for the purpose of punishment in the particular case, and 25
    - (ii) would make it unjust in all the circumstances for the court to impose a fine for the offence concerned.

Compatibility with other matters

- (10) If the order imposes two or more different community order requirements, the court must, before making the order, consider whether, in the circumstances of the case, the requirements are compatible with each other. 30
- (11) The court must ensure, so far as practicable, that any community order requirement imposed by the order is such as to avoid any conflict with the offender's religious beliefs. 35
- (12) The court must also ensure, so far as practicable, that any community order requirement imposed by the order is such as to avoid –
  - (a) any conflict with the requirements of –
    - (i) any other community order or any youth rehabilitation order, or 40
    - (ii) any suspended sentence order, to which the offender may be subject, and
  - (b) any interference with the times, if any, at which the offender normally –
    - (i) works, or 45
    - (ii) attends any educational establishment.

137 Duty to impose an electronic compliance monitoring requirement in particular cases

- (1) - A community order which imposes –
  - (a) - a curfew requirement, or
  - (b) an exclusion requirement, must also impose an electronic compliance monitoring requirement unless the court considers it inappropriate to do so in the particular circumstances of the case. 5
- (2) - This is subject to –
  - (a) - paragraph 34 of Schedule 3 (consent of person whose co-operation is required), and 10
  - (b) - paragraph 35(1) of that Schedule (availability of arrangements in local area).

Making a community order

138 Community order to specify end date etc 15

- (1) - A community order must specify a date (the “end date”) by which all the requirements in it must have been complied with. -
- (2) - The end date must not be more than 3 years after the date of the order.
- (3) - If a community order imposes two or more different community order requirements – 20
  - (a) - the order may also specify, for each of the requirements, a date by which the requirement must have been complied with, and
  - (b) - if it does so, the last of those dates must be the same as the end date.
- (4) - Section 149 sets out the effect of the end date.

139 Community order to specify offender’s home local justice area 25

- (1) - A community order must specify the area which is the offender’s home local justice area. -

141 Power to provide for court review of community orders

- (a) enable or require a court making a community order to provide for the community order to be reviewed periodically by that or another court,
  - (b) enable a court to amend a community order so as to include or remove a provision for review by a court, and
  - (c) make provision as to the timing and conduct of reviews and as to the powers of the court on a review. 5
- (2) Regulations under this section may, in particular, make provision in relation to community orders corresponding to any provision made by sections 208 and 209 in relation to suspended sentence orders.
- (3) Regulations under this section may repeal or amend any provision of this Code. 10

142 Provision of copies of community order and related documents

- (1) This section applies when a court makes a community order.
- (2) The proper officer of the court must provide copies of the order –
  - (a) to the offender, 15
  - (b) to the responsible officer,
  - (c) to an officer of a provider of probation services that is a public sector provider who is acting at the court, and
  - (d) if the court does not act in the offender's home local justice area, to a provider of probation services that is a public sector provider and is operating in that area. 20
- (3) If the order imposes any requirement specified in column 1 of the following table, the proper officer of the court must also provide the person specified in the corresponding entry in column 2 with a copy of so much of the order as relates to the requirement. 25

The requirement	The person to whom a copy must be provided

	Any person by virtue of whose consent the requirement is included in the order.

- (4) If the court does not act in the offender’s home local justice area, the proper officer must provide to the magistrates’ court acting in that area – 20
- (a) a copy of the order, and
  - (b) such documents and information relating to the case as the proper officer considers likely to be of assistance to a court acting in that area in the exercise of its functions in relation to the order. 25
- (5) In this section, “proper officer” means –

Exercise of functions by responsible officer 10

- (4) The responsible officer must ensure, as far as practicable, that any instruction given or requirement imposed by the responsible officer is such as to avoid any conflict with the offender’s religious beliefs.

- (a) any conflict with the requirements of –
    - (i) any other community order or any youth rehabilitation order, or
    - (ii) any suspended sentence order, 20 to which the offender may be subject, and

For this purpose “appropriate court” has the same meaning as in Schedule 4 (see paragraph 1 of that Schedule). - 5
- (5) - A court may also give permission in any proceedings before it under Schedule 4 (breach or amendment of orders etc). -
- (6) - The grounds on which the responsible officer or court may refuse an application for permission are that, in the opinion of the officer or court, the change in residence— 10
  - (a) - is likely to prevent the offender complying with a requirement imposed by the relevant order, or
  - (b) - would hinder the offender’s rehabilitation.
- (7) - The responsible officer must refuse an application for permission if— 15
  - (a) - the offender’s present residence is in England or Wales, and
  - (b) - the offender’s proposed residence is outside England and Wales.

    - (i) - with the end date (see section 138), or
    - (ii) - if later, when the offender has completed any unpaid work requirement imposed by the order.

- (2) But a community order ceases to be in force when it is revoked.
- (3) An unpaid work requirement is completed when the offender has worked under it for the number of hours specified in the order.

is to be disregarded.

- (5) For those purposes, “sentence of imprisonment” does not include a committal for contempt of court or any kindred offence (and “sentenced to imprisonment” is to be read accordingly). 5

When a person is legally represented

- (6) For the purposes of this section an offender is legally represented in a court if the offender has the assistance of counsel or a solicitor to represent him or her in the proceedings in that court at some time after being found guilty and before being sentenced. 10

Relevant representation: failure or ineligibility to benefit

  - (i) been informed of the right to apply for it, and 20
  - (ii) had the opportunity to do so,
- (b) the offender’s application for relevant representation was refused on financial grounds, or
- (c) relevant representation was made available to the offender but withdrawn – 25

157 Restriction on imposing imprisonment on persons under 21

Sentence of imprisonment

- (1) No court may pass a sentence of imprisonment on an offender for an offence if the offender is under 21 when convicted of the offence.

Committal to prison 35

- (2) No court may commit a person who is under 21 to prison for any reason, except as provided by subsection (3).

- (b) committed in custody for sentence, or
- (c) sent in custody for trial under section 51 or 51A of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998.

Exercise of powers to impose discretionary custodial sentences

159 Threshold for imposing discretionary custodial sentence

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where a person is convicted of an offence which is punishable with a custodial sentence.
This is subject to subsection (3). 15
- (2) The court must not pass a custodial sentence unless it is of the opinion that –
  - (a) the offence, or
  - (b) the combination of the offence and one or more offences associated with it, was so serious that neither a fine alone nor a community sentence can be justified for the offence. 20

Threshold generally not applicable where mandatory sentence requirement applies

- (3) This section does not apply if the offence is one in relation to which a mandatory sentence requirement applies (see section 274), except as provided in sections 188(3) and 198(3) (pre-condition for life sentence for second listed offence). 25

Exceptions to subsection (2) relating to community sentences

- (4) Nothing in subsection (2) prevents the court from passing a custodial sentence on the offender if the offender fails to express willingness to comply with a requirement – 30
  - (a) which the court proposes to include in a community order, but
  - (b) which may be included only if the offender expresses willingness to comply with it.
- (5) Subsection (2) is also subject to –
  - (a) paragraph 22(5)(b) of Schedule 3 (power to deal with offender who does not express willingness to comply with amended drug rehabilitation requirement); 35
  - (b) paragraph 10(9) of Schedule 4 (power of magistrates' court to impose custodial sentence following wilful and persistent breach of community order); 40
  - (c) paragraph 11(7) of that Schedule (corresponding power of Crown Court);

- (d) paragraph 18(10)(b) of that Schedule (power to deal with offender who does not express willingness to comply with amended treatment requirement).

Procedure for forming opinion

- (6) In forming the opinion mentioned in subsection (2), the court must take into account all the information that is available to it about the circumstances of the offence, or of it and the associated or offence or offences, including any aggravating or mitigating factors. 5
- (7) The pre-sentence report requirements (see section 28) apply to the court in relation to forming that opinion. 10
- (8) See also –
- (a) section 71(2) (effect of mitigation);
  - (b) section 161 (additional requirements for offender suffering from mental disorder).

160 Length of discretionary custodial sentences: general provision 15

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where a court passes a custodial sentence in respect of an offence.
This is subject to subsections (3) to (5).
- (2) The custodial sentence must be for the shortest term (not exceeding the permitted maximum) that in the opinion of the court is commensurate with the seriousness of – 20
- (a) the offence, or
  - (b) the combination of the offence and one or more offences associated with it.

Application of subsection (2) to mandatory sentences and extended sentences 25

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply where the sentence is –
- (a) fixed by law, or
  - (b) a required life sentence,
- except as provided in sections 188(3) and 198(3) (pre-condition for life sentence for second listed offence). 30
- (4) Subsection (2) is subject to the provisions listed in section 274(c) (minimum sentences).
- (5) Subsection (2) does not apply where the custodial sentence is an extended sentence, except as provided in sections 166(2), 183(2) and 196(2) (determination of appropriate custodial term). 35

Procedure for forming opinion

- (6) In forming the opinion mentioned in subsection (2), the court must take into account all the information that is available to it about the circumstances of the offence, or of it and the associated offence or offences, including any aggravating or mitigating factors. 40
- (7) The pre-sentence report requirements (see section 28) apply to the court in relation to forming that opinion, except where the sentence is an extended sentence.

- (8) See section 161 for additional requirements in the case of an offender suffering from a mental disorder.

161 Additional requirements in case of offender suffering from mental disorder

- (1) This section applies where –
  - (a) the offender is or appears to be suffering from a mental disorder, and 5
  - (b) the court passes a custodial sentence other than one fixed by law (“the sentence”).
- (2) Before passing the sentence, the court must obtain and consider a medical report unless, in the circumstances of the case, it considers that it is unnecessary to obtain a medical report. 10
- (3) Before passing the sentence, the court must consider –
  - (a) any information before it which relates to the offender’s mental condition (whether given in a medical report, a pre-sentence report or otherwise), and
  - (b) the likely effect of such a sentence on that condition and on any treatment which may be available for it. 15
- (4) If the court did not obtain a medical report where required to do so by this section, the sentence is not invalidated by the fact that it did not do so.
- (5) Any court, on an appeal against the sentence, must –
  - (a) obtain a medical report if none was obtained by the court below, and 20
  - (b) consider any such report obtained by it or by that court.
- (6) In this section –

“medical report” means a report as to an offender’s mental condition made or submitted orally or in writing by a registered medical practitioner who is approved for the purposes of section 12 of the Mental Health Act 1983 – 25

  - (a) by the Secretary of State, or
  - (b) by another person by virtue of section 12ZA or 12ZB of that Act, as having special experience in the diagnosis or treatment of mental disorder; 30

“mental disorder” has the same meaning as in the Mental Health Act 1983.
- (7) Nothing in this section is to be taken to limit the generality of –
  - (a) the pre-sentence report requirements (see section 28), or
  - (b) any requirement for a court to take into account all information that is available to it about the circumstances of any offence, including any aggravating or mitigating factors. 35

CHAPTER 9

SENTENCE ADMINISTRATION

Declaration about time to count as served 35

238 Direction for time on bail under certain conditions to count as time served

- (1) This section applies where –
  - (a) a court passes a determinate sentence on an offender in respect of an offence (see subsection (5)),
  - (b) the offender was remanded on bail by a court in course of or in connection with proceedings for the offence, or any related offence, and 40
  - (c) the offender’s bail was subject to a qualifying curfew condition and an electronic monitoring condition (“the relevant conditions”).

- (2) The court must give a direction specifying the credit period for the purposes of section 240A of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (time remanded on bail to count towards time served) in relation to the sentence.
- (3) The credit period is calculated by taking the following steps.
  - Step 1* 5
  - Add –
    - (a) the day on which the offender’s bail was first subject to the relevant conditions (and for this purpose a condition is not prevented from being a relevant condition by the fact that it does not apply for the whole of the day in question), and 10
    - (b) the number of other days on which the offender’s bail was subject to those conditions (but exclude the last of those days if the offender spends the last part of it in custody).
  - Step 2*
  - Deduct the number of days on which the offender, whilst on bail subject to the relevant conditions, was also – 15
    - (a) subject to any requirement imposed for the purpose of securing the electronic monitoring of the offender’s compliance with a curfew requirement, or
    - (b) on temporary release under rules made under section 47 of the Prison Act 1952. 20
  - Step 3*
  - From the remainder, deduct the number of days during that remainder on which the offender has broken either or both of the relevant conditions.
  - Step 4* 25
  - Divide the result by 2.
  - Step 5*
  - If necessary, round up to the nearest whole number.
- (4) Where the court gives a direction under subsection (2) it must state in open court – 30
  - (a) the number of days on which the offender was subject to the relevant conditions, and
  - (b) the number of days (if any) which it deducted under each of steps 2 and 3.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a) a court passes a determinate sentence if it – 35
  - (a) sentences the offender to imprisonment for a term, or
  - (b) passes a determinate sentence of detention in a young offender institution, or
  - (c) passes a determinate sentence of detention under section 164 or 168 (offenders aged under 18). 40
- (6) Section 240ZA of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 makes provision about time remanded in custody which is to count as time served.

239 Section 238: interpretation

- (1) For the purposes of section 238, “sentence of imprisonment” does not include a committal – 45

- (a) in default of payment of any sum of money, other than one adjudged to be paid on a conviction,
  - (b) for want of sufficient distress to satisfy any sum of money, or
  - (c) for failure to do or abstain from doing anything required to be done or left undone, and references to sentencing an offender to imprisonment are to be read accordingly.

This definition has effect in place of the definition of “sentence of imprisonment” in section 273 for those purposes.

- (2) For the purposes of section 238, a suspended sentence – 10
  - (a) - is to be treated as a sentence of imprisonment when it is activated under paragraph 13(1)(a) or (b) of Schedule 10, and
  - (b) - is to be treated as being imposed by the order under which it is activated.
- (3) - For the purposes of the reference in section 238(2) to the term to which a person has been sentenced (that is to say, the reference to the offender’s “sentence”), consecutive terms and terms which are wholly or partly concurrent are to be treated as a single term if – 15
  - (a) - the sentences were passed on the same occasion, or
  - (b) - where they were passed on different occasions, the person has not been released at any time during the period beginning with the first and ending with the last of those occasions. 20
- (4) - In section 238 –
  - “curfew requirement” means a requirement (however described) to remain at one or more specified places for a specified number of hours in any given day, which – 25
    - (a) - is imposed by a court or the Secretary of State, and
    - (b) arises as a result of a conviction;
  - “electronic monitoring condition” means any electronic monitoring requirements imposed under section 3(6ZAA) of the Bail Act 1976 for the purpose of securing the electronic monitoring of a person’s compliance with a qualifying curfew condition; 30
  - “qualifying curfew condition” means a condition of bail which requires the person granted bail to remain at one or more specified places for a total of not less than 9 hours in any given day. 35

  - (a) - was tried for the offence in respect of which the sentence was imposed, or received the sentence – 40
    - (i) - after having been extradited to the United Kingdom, and
    - (ii) - without having first been restored or had an opportunity of leaving the United Kingdom, and
  - (b) - was for any period kept in custody while awaiting extradition to the United Kingdom as mentioned in paragraph (a). 45
- (2) - In this section “fixed term sentence” means –
  - (a) - a sentence of imprisonment for a determinate term,

- (b) a determinate sentence of detention in a young offender institution, or
  - (c) a determinate sentence of detention under section 164 or 168.
- (3) The court must specify in open court the number of days for which the prisoner was kept in custody while awaiting extradition.

Recommendations

241 Power of court to recommend licence conditions for certain prisoners

- (1) This section applies where a court sentences an offender to –
  - (a) a term of imprisonment, or
  - (b) a term of detention in a young offender institution, of 12 months or more in respect of any offence. 10

- (3) A recommendation under subsection (2) is not to be treated for any purpose as part of the sentence passed on the offender. 15

Conversion of sentence of detention or custody to sentence of imprisonment

242 Conversion of sentence of detention to sentence of imprisonment

- (1) This section applies where an offender has been sentenced to a term of detention by a relevant custodial sentence and – 20
  - (a) has reached the age of 21, or
  - (b) has reached the age of 18 and has been reported to the Secretary of State by the independent monitoring board of the institution in which the offender is detained as –
    - (i) exercising a bad influence on the other inmates of the institution, or 25
    - (ii) behaving in a disruptive manner to the detriment of those inmates.
- (2) The Secretary of State may direct that the offender is to be treated as if sentenced to imprisonment for the same term. 30
This is subject to the following provisions of this section.

Effect of direction

- (3) Subsections (4) and (5) apply where the Secretary of State gives a direction under subsection (2) in relation to the offender.
- (4) The portion of the term of detention imposed under the relevant sentence of detention which the offender has already served is to be deemed to have been a portion of a term of imprisonment. 35
- (5) If the relevant custodial sentence is –
  - (a) an extended sentence of detention under section 164, or
  - (b) an extended sentence of detention in a young offender institution (see section 181), 40 the offender is to be treated as if sentenced to an extended sentence of imprisonment under section 194.

- (6) - Rules under section 47 of the Prison Act 1952 may provide that any award for an offence against discipline made in respect of an offender serving a relevant sentence of detention is to continue to have effect after a direction under subsection (2) has been given in relation to the offender. 5

“Relevant custodial sentence”

- (7) - In this section “relevant custodial sentence” means any sentence imposed under Chapter 2 or 3 of this Part (custodial sentences for offenders aged under 21) other than a detention and training order. 10

FOURTH GROUP OF PARTS

  - (5) The prosecution must find out the views of the local youth offending team before applying for a criminal behaviour order to be made if the offender will be under the age of 18 when the application is made. 5
  - (6) In this section “local youth offending team” means the youth offending team in whose area it appears to the prosecution that the offender lives.
- 245 Proceedings on an application for an order 10

  - (2) It does not matter whether the evidence would have been admissible in the proceedings in which the offender was convicted. 15
  - (3) The court may adjourn any proceedings on an application for a criminal behaviour order even after sentencing the offender.
  - (4) If the offender does not appear for any adjourned proceedings the court may –

    - (a) has had adequate notice of the time and place of the adjourned proceedings, and
    - (b) has been informed that if the offender does not appear for those proceedings the court may hear the proceedings in the offender’s absence. 30
  - (7) Subsection (8) applies in relation to proceedings in which a criminal behaviour order is made against an offender who is under the age of 18.

    - (b) section 39 of that Act (power to prohibit publication of certain matters) does so apply.

  - (1) A criminal behaviour order that includes a requirement must specify the person who is to be responsible for supervising compliance with the requirement.

The person may be an individual or an organisation.

- (2) - Before including a requirement, the court must receive evidence about its suitability and enforceability from –
  - (a) the individual to be specified under subsection (1), if an individual is to be specified; 5
  - (b) an individual representing the organisation to be specified under subsection (1), if an organisation is to be specified.

  - (a) make any necessary arrangements in connection with the requirements for which the person has responsibility (the “relevant requirements”);
  - (b) promote the offender’s compliance with the relevant requirements;

  - (b) notify the person of any change of address. 25

These obligations have effect as requirements of the order.

247 Duration of order etc

- (2) - If on the day a criminal behaviour order (“the new order”) is made the offender is subject to another criminal behaviour order (“the previous order”), the new order may be made so as to take effect on the day on which the previous order ceases to have effect. 30
- (3) - A criminal behaviour order must specify the period (“the order period”) for which it has effect. 35
- (4) - In the case of a criminal behaviour order made before the offender has reached the age of 18, the order period must be a fixed period of –
  - (a) - not less than 1 year, and

- |    |   |    |

| 8  | Detailed consideration of aggravating or mitigating factors may result in a minimum term of any length (whatever the starting point), or in the making of a whole life order.                                 | 10 |
| 9  | Aggravating factors (additional to those mentioned in paragraph 2(2), 3(2) and 4(2)) that may be relevant to the offence of murder include –  |    |

|    | (d) the fact that the offender was provoked (for example, by prolonged stress) in a way not amounting to a defence of provocation in the case of a murder committed before 4 October 2010,                    |    |
|    | (e) the fact that the offender acted to any extent in self-defence or, in the case of a murder committed on or after 4 October 2010, in fear of violence,   | 35 |
|    | (f) a belief by the offender that the murder was an act of mercy, and   |    |
|    | (g) the age of the offender.  |    |
| 11 | Nothing in this Schedule restricts the application of –   |    |

- (2) If the court makes a minimum term order, the minimum term must, in the opinion of the court, be no be greater than the period which, under the practice followed by the Secretary of State before December 2002, the Secretary of State would have been likely to notify to the offender as the minimum period which, in the view of the Secretary of State should be served before the prisoner's release on licence. 5
- (3) The court may not make a whole life order unless it is of the opinion that, under the practice followed by the Secretary of State before December 2002, the Secretary of State would have been likely to notify the prisoner that the Secretary of State did not intend that the prisoner should ever be released on licence. 10

B I L L

TO

Make provision for amendments to give effect to Law Commission recommendations relating to commencement of enactments relating to sentencing law and to make other pre-consolidation amendments of sentencing law.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows: –

1 Consolidation of sentencing legislation: amendment of law for old offences

(1) - In this section –

“repealed provision” means –

(a) - an enactment, to the extent that it is to be repealed or revoked by the sentencing consolidation;

(b) a provision made under such an enactment;

“transition time”, in relation to a repealed provision, means a time that is specified in, or determined in accordance with, an enactment relating to the coming into force of the repealed provision or any other enactment;

“trigger event”, in relation to an offence, means the commission of the offence or any event related to the commission of the offence, including any event –

(a) - connected with, or which constitutes any part of, the commission of the offence, or

(b) - related to the investigation of, or proceedings related to, the offence.

(2) - Subsection (3) applies if a person is convicted of an offence on or after the consolidation date. -

(3) - Where –

20

(a) - the application to the offence of a repealed provision depends on the time at which a particular trigger event occurred in relation to a particular transition time, and

- (b) the transition time fell after the trigger event occurred, the repealed provision has effect as if the transition time had instead fallen before the trigger event occurred.
- (4) Subsection (3) is subject to—
- (a) Schedule 1 (exceptions); 5
  - (b) any provision made by regulations made by the Secretary of State for the purpose of securing that subsection (3) does not affect the application of particular repealed provisions.
- (5) The following have effect subject to subsections (3) and (4)—
- (a) a commencement or transitional provision relating to the coming into force of a repealed provision or any other enactment; 10
  - (b) a saving subject to which a repealed provision, or any other enactment, has previously been repealed or revoked.
- (6) In this section—
- “repealed provision” does not include a provision to the extent that it is not in force immediately before the consolidation date, except to the extent that it will come into force on or after that date by virtue of provision passed or made before that date; 15
  - a reference to the application of a repealed provision includes a reference to whether or not it applies (or applies for a particular purpose), and to the form in which it applies (or applies for a particular purpose); 20
  - references to a repealed provision or to any commencement or transitional provision or saving include references to a provision passed or made after the passing of this Act.
- 2 Pre-consolidation amendments relating to sentencing 25
- (1) - Schedule 2 contains pre-consolidation amendments of sentencing legislation.
- (2) - The Secretary of State may by regulations make such further amendments of sentencing legislation as in the Secretary of State’s opinion facilitate, or are otherwise desirable in connection with, the consolidation of the whole or a substantial part of the Acts relating to sentencing (with or without other sentencing legislation). 30
- (3) - In exercising the power under this section, the Secretary of State may have regard in particular to the desirability of removing differences between provisions relating to—
- (a) - forfeiture; 35
  - (b) - powers of different courts to deal with offenders subject to particular sentences;
  - (c) - powers of different courts to provide for when sentences are to take effect.
- (4) - The Secretary of State may by regulations amend or modify any provision of sentencing legislation which— 40
- (a) - confers power to make legislation, and
  - (b) is subject to a relevant restriction,
- so as to amend, modify or remove that restriction.
- A “relevant restriction” is one by virtue of which legislation made in exercise of the power is to come into force only for cases in which commission or 45 conviction of an offence, or any other event, occurs after the time when the legislation is made or comes into force, or any other particular time.
