2 (10.00 am)
3 MS LANGDALE: Chair, may I call, please, Emma and David 4 Webber.

5 EMMA WEBBER (sworn)

6 DAVID WEBBER (sworn)

7 THE CHAIR: Yes, Ms Langdale.

8 Questioned by MS LANGDALE

9 MS LANGDALE: You have prepared a statement together dated 10 17 December 2025. Can you each please confirm that the 11 contents are true and accurate as far as you're 12 concerned?

13 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.

14 DAVID WEBBER: Yes.

15 Q. Can I ask firstly, please, about the 13 June 2023 and 16 how and when you learnt about Barney's death?

17 DAVID WEBBER: I'll start, shall I? So we were in Cornwall, 18 and we were getting up in the morning. Emma had to 19 work, I had to work. I turned the TV on and saw the 20 media light up and my first instinct was to message 21 Barney to see if he was okay.

22 I messaged him, got no response. So at one point 23 I thought I'll phone him, so I phoned, still got no 24 response, which was quite unusual, because Barney would 25 normally answer the phone, unlike his brother who

1

1 work, and I was preparing to go to see a client in 2 Cornwall. I started to get a bit worried, and then on 3 the news I saw Ilkeston Road come up, and I thought hold 4 on a second and then started looking to see where the 5 phone was and thinking that's actually in a very close 6 location to where they're saying these attacks had 7 happened.

8 They were already talking at that point about a man
9 and a woman, you know, young man and woman, I think it 10 was. So, yeah, I got a bit worried, said --

11 EMMA WEBBER: You said, because I was on the call and you 12 said Barney's phone's in Ilkeston Road, and it was on -- 13 BBC was on, and the "man and woman found dead in 14 Ilkeston Road", and that's when that happen, when you 15 said it.

16 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah, I know. And then I just saw the phone 17 start to move, and that's when I really panicked.
18 I phoned it a couple of times thinking: oh maybe he's 19 just there. And we tracked the phone, watched it go all 20 the way to Radford Road Police Station and that's where 21 I think Emma was on the call and I said, "We've got to 22 go now", I just said, "Something is wrong," and we just 23 grabbed our dogs. I think we left half our stuff in 24 Cornwall and had some friends go and pick it up for us, 25 and we just jumped in the car and drove as quickly as we

1 wouldn't answer the phone.

2 So I did that, and then -- I then decided to have 3 a look on Find My Phone to see if I could see where he 4 was. I could see he was in Ilkeston Road, but he was 5 quite close to his accommodation, or the phone was quite 6 close to his accommodation, so I didn't really think too
7 far beyond that. But I started saying to Emma that I'm 8 not sure, we can't get hold of Barney, it's not like 9 him.

10 So the morning then went on a little bit longer and 11 in the end once I started seeing some more news coming 12 out I decided to phone. Well, Emma phoned the NHS, the 13 hospital, to see if there was anything there. I phoned 14 the police. I said who I was, and said who my son was, 15 and I remember a distinct change in the tone from the 16 lady I was speaking to, who said that it was 17 a fast-changing scene, and there was no one that could 18 talk to me but someone would call me back as soon as 19 possible.

20 Q. And what time, roughly, was this, do you think?

21 DAVID WEBBER: I think that would have been around about --

22 EMMA WEBBER: About 9.30, 9.45.

23 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah. So Emma was on a Teams call, I think.

24 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.

25 DAVID WEBBER: You were actually on a call at the time with

2

1 could -- my intention was just to get to Nottingham as 2 quick as I could. And then we took the call.

3 Q. When did you get the call from the police?

4 DAVID WEBBER: I think that call would have come in at 5 around about -- just after 10.00. So we'd -- we'd sort 6 of --

7 EMMA WEBBER: We were about three miles outside of -- if you
8 know Cornwall -- outside of Camelford, and the phone 9 call came in on the speaker, and it was a lady that 10 turned out to be one of our Family Liaison Officers.
11 And --

12 DAVID WEBBER: And you just know something's wrong straight 13 away when she asked if we were driving and I said, 14 "Yes." I think I might have even said, "We're driving 15 to Nottingham." And she said, "Oh is there somewhere 16 you can pull in that's safe?"

17 And I said, funnily enough we were coming to a pub 18 car park and I said, "Well I can pull in here," and 19 yeah, we pulled in and I think Emma just basically said, 20 "Just tell us, just tell us now."

21 And she just said, "Look, we have -- there's a man 22 who's been murdered, and basically his ID --"

23 EMMA WEBBER: It's -- the driving licence says, "Barney 24 Webber".

25 DAVID WEBBER: Then I think everything just became a blur,

4

1 didn't it? You screamed and jumped out of the car.
 2 EMMA WEBBER: In a gravel car park in Cornwall.
 3 DAVID WEBBER: And just broke down, and I was just speaking 4 to -- I was speaking to the police officer and I said,
 5 "Look, I'm really sorry, I think we need to go."
 6 I remember her distinctly saying, you know, "Where 7 are you?" And I told her roughly where we were and she 8 said, "Do you want me to get the police to come and get 9 you?" And I said, "No. I can drive."
 10 I think I even said, "I think I need to get to my 11 other son now," because I knew that I did not want him 12 hearing about it any other way.
 13 Q. And that's what you did: went to your other son.
 14 DAVID WEBBER: Yes. So luckily, if you want to call it 15 that, Charlie was, he was on a week's residential 16 holiday and they'd actually gone to Torquay to do cliff 17 jumping, and where they were in Torquay -- well, he 18 wouldn't have had his phone anyway because they were 19 jumping off cliffs, but he didn't have any signal, so 20 Emma was busy getting hold of the school to get hold of 21 them so that we could just get to -- get to him as quick 22 as possible.
 23 Then I went -- we found out where he was, pulled 24 into the car park, and he was already back. One of the 25 teachers that was taking it, who taught Barnaby as well,

5

1 the police from that first day?
 2 DAVID WEBBER: So we -- I think it was -- I always get them
 3 the wrong way round, but there was Gemma and Gina, the 4 two FLOs, and I think was it Gemma that was the main 5 one?
 6 EMMA WEBBER: I can't --
 7 DAVID WEBBER: I always get them wrong -- 8 EMMA WEBBER: -- (overspeaking) -- both.
 9 DAVID WEBBER: So they both -- the lady that called me, 10 I think it turned out to be Gemma, and she said that 11 they wanted to come down to see us. So I just said 12 that's absolutely fine and then we hadn't spoken to the 13 other FLO at that point and then they came to our house, 14 and basically, yeah, told us -- I mean, at this point 15 I think it was already all over the news, his face had 16 already -- I don't know how anyone found out it was him, 17 but clearly they did, and it was already -- I mean, we 18 got home, I remember sort of getting into the house at 19 about two o'clock and the doorbell rang and I thought:
 20 ooh, you know, family are getting here quite quickly, 21 and I opened the door and it was a reporter. So I just 22 said, "I don't think it's an appropriate time" and shut 23 the door.
 24 Q. You, as parents, were clearly facing everyone's worst 25 reality in that situation. How was it having reporters

7

1 was in tears, and Charlie you could just see just knew 2 something was wrong, and we just went straight to him
 3 and I think you were the one that just told him -- 4 EMMA WEBBER: (Witness nodded).
 5 DAVID WEBBER: -- and he just broke down and -- 6 EMMA WEBBER: He screamed and he was ... he was 15 years old 7 and he was still wet from being pulled out of the sea 8 and he was screaming and he was banging the side of the 9 school minibus and was saying, "No, no, it can't be 10 true, it can't be true, I can't live without him". And 11 that was of one of the many awful things we've had to do 12 was probably right up there: having to destroy his life 13 and knowing we were destroying his life in that moment.
 14 Sorry.
 15 Q. Don't apologise at all.
 16 THE CHAIR: Emma, if at any stage either of you need 17 a break, please say. I know it's very difficult and -- 18 EMMA WEBBER: We're only ten minutes in, sorry.
 19 THE CHAIR: Yes, but do feel that you're able to take 20 a break because this is very difficult for you.
 21 EMMA WEBBER: It is very difficult, of course. Sorry. You 22 talk.
 23 MS LANGDALE: Let me ask you about the FLOs. So the Family 24 Liaison Officer, you referred, David, to two of them.
 25 Who was responsible for you and liaising with you from

1 or people approaching you at that time?
 2 EMMA WEBBER: It's -- we had -- we had my dad and our 3 friend, Michelle, kind of bodyguarding, bouncing on our 4 driveway, so they kept everyone away. And I think we 5 were just -- it was bad, but I think because they kept 6 them away, didn't -- we weren't that aware of it, and we 7 knew, I suppose, because my background working in media 8 and comms, we knew, you know, that it would be out 9 everywhere. So we took the decision to do a complete 10 media blackout for I think it was about two weeks before 11 we ever even looked at anything. So whilst it was 12 intrusive, it was more important that we had our family 13 and our friends arriving in there with us.
 14 Q. How quickly did you make contact with other bereaved
 15 families?
 16 EMMA WEBBER: Actually, it wasn't me making contact; it was 17 Sinéad, Grace's mum, who asked to our Family Liaison 18 Officers if she could have my number. And of course, of 19 course I said yes. And she messaged me, I remember 20 I was in my bedroom, and she messaged on that Tuesday 21 night, and then we began, ever since then, I've never 22 looked back at that first message -- I don't think 23 I ever want to -- but that's when we first communicated.
 24 And then when we met them was the next day.
 25 Q. When did you first meet the Coates boys?

8

1 EMMA WEBBER: At the city centre vigil, which I think it was 2 the 15th. I remember meeting James. There was a sea of 3 Nottingham Forest shirts, and I remember meeting him and 4 everyone is -- we were all utterly shellshocked, but 5 I do clearly remember meeting one of Ian's grandsons who 6 is Lee's son. I think he was 11 at the time, but that's 7 when we were -- we were never properly introduced we had 8 a sort of very brief meeting with them then, or a brief 9 hello.

10 Q. Can I ask to have a look at a particular document, 11 please, WITN0289002, page 15, and Emma, this is 12 a reflection of a call, DC Farrell's entered a call that 13 she's had with you, and it's at a time when you're 14 preparing and arranging your son's funeral. And it 15 records here:

16 "The Webber family would like to pay tribute to Ian 17 in the ceremony for Barney. They have arranged for 18 Nottingham Forest to send them a shirt and a scarf to 19 place in the Minster in memory of Ian -- Emma has asked 20 if Ian's family would be happy with this? Emma would 21 also like to know how they can contribute in terms of 22 flowers or other means? They are aware of the funeral 23 date of 12th July.

24 "The Webber family would like to make 25 a statement/comment for the funeral, public or

9

1 brought together out of these events, but the support 2 you've offered each other, how would you describe that?

3 EMMA WEBBER: It's a solidarity and it's an understanding 4 that, unless you're the Coates, the Kumars, or the 5 Webbers, you can't possibly understand, but it isn't 6 just a tragedy. I think what we've realised is -- I've 7 put this in something to say at the end but I'll say it 8 now -- is that with all of them unreservedly there's -- 9 there's such humanity and such goodness and I'm so 10 grateful and blessed to have them in my life, but I -- 11 I dearly wish that they weren't.

12 All that being said, maybe we would have met the 13 Kumars anyway because of Barnaby and Grace's friendship 14 but I thank God for them and they've held us up, and 15 I think at times we've been able to do the same.

16 Q. The 14th June, the vigil held in Nottingham, can you 17 tell us about that?

18 DAVID WEBBER: So, yeah, we went to the vigil -- so the 19 University said they were putting on a small vigil in 20 Nottingham for Barney and Grace, and we decided -- well, 21 we went and it was all a bit of a fluster, I have to be 22 honest, because when we went up, I mean I think it's 23 probably quite well documented I'd forgotten my suit and 24 everything because I just literally was just in a world 25 of my own.

1 otherwise. Can Ian's family confirm [whether] they 2 [would] ... be happy with [that]?"

3 So you, in all of the anguish of preparing for your 4 son's funeral, were thinking about them or that 5 situation that they were in; is that right?

6 EMMA WEBBER: Yes. And obviously the same with Grace, and 7 it's -- it's never been any different.

8 Q. That can come down, please. Did you in fact -- were you 9 provided with their details or contact details at that 10 point, or not?

12 DAVID WEBBER: No.

13 EMMA WEBBER: No, and we did enquire after them. We did ask 14 for our numbers to be given to them if they wanted to, 15 at any time, contact us, in any way, any forum, and we 16 were told on a number of occasions that the Coates 17 family wish you well but they're very private and they 18 wish to, you know, continue to process things in that 19 way.

20 So of course I respected that, as did David.

21 DAVID WEBBER: (Witness nodded).

22 Q. And it may have been different, of course, between 23 Elaine Newton and the boys, as we heard yesterday from 24 the boys, how much they appreciated having, as they 25 described, the unwanted family, because you've all been

10

1 EMMA WEBBER: And flip flops.

2 DAVID WEBBER: And ended turning up in flip flops, which 3 probably wasn't what I'd normally do. But yeah, it was 4 just a bit of a whirlwind and I remember the drive up,
5 we stopped in the services, and we had Barnaby's 6 godmother with us, and I went to go into the services to 7 go to the toilet and I wanted a bottle of water, so 8 I went to walk into the shop, and I just remember Abbey 9 walking out the other way, Barney's godmother, and 10 grabbing me and just turning me around and saying, "I'll 11 get it, just get back in the car".

12 And I asked her afterwards why and she said, 13 "Barnaby's face is all over the stands, on the front of 14 every page of every newspaper, and you don't want to see 15 that."

16 And I said, "No don't."

17 And then we went on and then we got to Nottingham, 18 the first person we met was Kate Meynell, and we'll come 19 onto that in a minute, and then we walked up and I just 20 remember walking up to the -- up to where it was being 21 held, the vigil, and we turned round the corner and 22 I was expecting a few hundred people and I don't -- it 23 was a lot more than that. There was just a sea of 24 people there and it was deadily quiet and all I could 25 hear was sobbing and crying and then we walked and sat

1 down and then, yeah, sat there and just shortly after,
 2 Sanjoy and Sinéad and James --
 3 EMMA WEBBER: No, James wasn't there.
 4 DAVID WEBBER: Oh no, James wasn't there on that one, but 5 Sanjoy and Sinéad turned up and, yeah, and it was a bit
 6 of a surreal day, I think it -- 7 Q. You convey in the pen portrait of Barnaby's life how 8 proud he was to have got to the University, being in the 9 cricket team, many friends, celebrating the end of his 10 first year in that week in June.
 11 Did you get a sense from that vigil of the impact it 12 had had on others around him, other students and those 13 students who were there, either knew them or could very 14 quickly relate to their lives and experiences at 15 Nottingham?
 16 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, very, very much so. You could see, and 17 you could feel, it's almost like a visceral, like 18 a febrile atmosphere of shock and horror and abject 19 sadness, and already all the flowers and the tributes 20 and I always remember reading Nathan, who was one of 21 Barnaby's really good friends, they became really good 22 friends really quickly in the cricket team, he'd written 23 this lovely little note and it just said: "Barnaby, I'll 24 miss you, I'll miss your personality and your stupidly 25 straight teeth. And I'll do Zante 2024 for us both."

1 told, the police hadn't told us, the University hadn't 2 told us, and they should have. You've already had 3 Claire Thompson in the very first week who was the 4 person assigned to look after us, and we knew nothing of 5 her previous interactions, but I think of everything 6 that she said, the one thing that really hurts the most 7 is that they didn't -- they must have chosen not to tell 8 us that the murderer of our child was a student there as 9 well. But that's when we found out.
 10 Q. Do you think there would have been an opportunity for 11 her to tell you that on the day of the vigil --
 12 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.
 13 Q. -- do you think that that should have been relayed even 14 there?
 15 EMMA WEBBER: Yes, because we were there by lunchtime on the 16 14th. So we had the 14th, we had the vigil at the 17 University, we had the evening there and then we had all 18 of the next day until we went to the -- 19 Q. The one in Market Square -- 20 EMMA WEBBER: The city, yeah, the Market Square. So the 21 university and the police also had ample opportunity to 22 at least tell us that.
 23 Q. When you were staying over in Nottingham, I think that's 24 where you met the Chief Constable, was it, in a hotel or 25 somewhere there; tell us about that.

15

1 And I think that's when it started to hit home of,
 2 you know, the impact that he'd already had on the 3 community he had made there, and it's so hard, it's so 4 devastating.
 5 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah.
 6 Q. When did you first learn that VC had been a student at 7 the University as well?
 8 DAVID WEBBER: I think the -- there was a comment made at 9 the vigil on the 15th.
 10 EMMA WEBBER: It was in the city centre vigil.
 11 DAVID WEBBER: In the city centre vigil which -- 12 EMMA WEBBER: Was it one of the faith speakers?
 13 DAVID WEBBER: I think it was -- I think it actually might 14 have been the Vice Chancellor or whatever from the 15 University made a comment that -- 16 Q. It was a different Vice Chancellor, wasn't it, at the 17 time, wasn't it, to the one that has given evidence?
 18 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah, I believe so. I don't think I paid 19 much attention to it, to be honest.
 20 EMMA WEBBER: I did. It floored me.
 21 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah, but they just mentioned that they were 22 trying to come to terms with the fact that he was a past 23 student and I think it just sort of went straight over 24 my head at the time.
 25 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, it floored me because we had never been

14

1 EMMA WEBBER: Well, as David said, literally the first 2 person we saw when we got out, it's called the Orchard
 3 Hotel and it's on campus at the University and we walked 4 into the reception and the very first person that came 5 up to us was the Chief Constable Kate Meynell, she 6 hugged us, she had tears in her eyes, and she said, 7 "I am so, so sorry for this awful thing that's happened 8 to you, but we've got him, and he'll go down." 9 And I think that was the moment in my head I had to 10 not even think about the horror of the crime, and so 11 I sort of parked the policing side of it in that regard 12 then.
 13 Q. Did you get any comfort from the message "We've got 14 him"?
 15 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.
 16 Q. And, I suppose, "He'll go down"?
 17 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.
 18 Q. But you thought they'd understood what had happened and 19 they'd got the right person?
 20 EMMA WEBBER: Yes, absolutely.
 21 Q. You met the Senior Investigating Officer Detective 22 Superintendent Leigh Sanders, I think, on 23 12 September 2023, and he visited you at your home with 24 the FLOs; is that right?
 25 DAVID WEBBER: Yes.

1 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.

2 Q. Can you tell us what you remember of that first meeting 3 with him and what was communicated to you?

4 DAVID WEBBER: I think the first meeting we had with him, he 5 was setting the scene of who he was, who VC was, and he 6 was telling us, you know, we got the "sofa surfer" 7 comment that he was of no fixed abode, and he had family 8 all around the country and would sleep on people's 9 sofas. So we just got this sort of image of a sort 10 of -- well a homeless person who just basically sort of 11 moved around the country.

12 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, I asked a question, I said, "So you're 13 saying he's a sofa surfer, so he doesn't have any fixed 14 abode. Is he homeless?"

15 And he said "No, no, he just has a nomadic 16 lifestyle."

17 And I remember saying:
18 "So he didn't have a property in Nottingham?"
19 "No, he was a sofa surfer."

20 And that was repeated right up until we were finally 21 told in our meeting on 7th December that he actually had 22 premises in Nottingham and he'd been evicted on 23 11th November.

24 Q. So what image did that meeting create for you about the 25 attacker, then, the sofa surfer nomadic? What were you

1 assumption that they would not be mentally well. I 2 cannot see a reason for anyone with rational thought to 3 do something like that. But with detail, did you --

4 DAVID WEBBER: No, I didn't. I don't remember any comment
5 about that. I think I was quite fixated at the time on 6 trying to find out about this warrant that was 7 outstanding for him, and that was sort of, I know -- 8 I remember at the time that was sort of mainly what 9 I remember from the meeting is just trying to get that 10 information and not getting that information.

11 Q. You began, did you, when you first met the police and 12 when you got this horrific call and information, did you 13 begin with a position of trust, as far as the police 14 were concerned, that they would tell you what you were 15 asking and what you would want to know?

16 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.

17 DAVID WEBBER: Yes, yeah.

18 Q. We know from your statements, David in particular, that 19 rumours began to circulate, information became known to 20 you about this warrant. Can you just tell us when you 21 had an inkling or some knowledge of a warrant being out 22 in relation to VC and to his arrest?

23 DAVID WEBBER: So exactly, so there was rumours that were 24 flying around that there was a warrant for his arrest 25 that was outstanding. I then distinctly remember having

19

1 thinking about that?

2 EMMA WEBBER: Well, I think it was so difficult because,
3 we -- to be clear, we did -- I think, you know, by then 4 we would have known his name and seen that face. But it 5 was very difficult -- it's a difficult balance, which 6 I understand the police have to manage, of detail.
7 However, we were asking very clear, obvious questions 8 about where he lived. We wanted to know his age, his 9 background, and where did he work? Did he -- you know, 10 what jobs and stuff did he do, and where had he been 11 prior? And none of that was really, really made 12 available to us, was it?

13 DAVID WEBBER: (Witness shook head).

14 EMMA WEBBER: I think we were told he didn't have a job. We 15 certainly weren't told about the incident in the factory 16 in Leicestershire, and that would have been a clear 17 opportunity to do that. So we were being painted 18 a picture of somebody who was nomadic, of no real 19 career, purpose, and lifestyle.

20 Q. Any mention about mental health or anything like that in 21 that first meeting?

22 EMMA WEBBER: Not that I can distinctly recall enough to 23 give evidence on. If there -- I suppose when somebody 24 has committed a crime like that, in cold blood, there's 25 the understanding or on my part there would be the 18

1 a conversation with Sanjoy, because I remember walking 2 around my garden talking to him the day before, and we 3 were discussing this alleged warrant that was there.

4 Q. Roughly when are we talking about?

5 DAVID WEBBER: This was the day before. This was the day
6 before, that Leigh Sanders came to our kitchen --

7 Q. So September?

8 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah, yeah. So we were discussing it and 9 neither of us had a straight yes or no answer, which was 10 a bit strange because we thought well it's actually 11 it's -- either a yes or it's no.

12 So I said to Sanjoy "I'm just going to ask him 13 outright when he's in the kitchen," which I did, and 14 I seem to remember -- I definitely didn't get a "Yes" or 15 "No" answer, but I think I got a very wishy-washy answer 16 back. I can't quite remember what it was but I know 17 that I was not walking out of that kitchen thinking 18 there was a warrant for him.

19 EMMA WEBBER: I can remember passing references to -- there 20 was an incidence when he was brought into custody but 21 then released and there was -- but it was -- there was 22 reference to it, but had we been told that there was 23 a warrant for his arrest that was never executed with no 24 bail for the violent assault of an emergency worker, we 25 would have remembered it, despite our grief, our horror

1 and our shock, we would have remembered that.

2 Q. Do you understand, and would you have understood then,
3 the significance of not backed for bail on any warrant?
4 If somebody said to you "It's not backed for bail," 5 would you have known what that meant?

6 DAVID WEBBER: I don't know if I would have understood it 7 completely but --

8 EMMA WEBBER: But we would have asked the question.

9 DAVID WEBBER: But I'd have asked the question.

10 EMMA WEBBER: And my assumption would have been, as I would 11 imagine many people, if you're not backed for bail, that 12 adds a level of seriousness to why you're wanted.

13 Q. And if you were told there was a warrant for arrest, 14 there is a significant difference between that and 15 a warrant not backed for bail, knowing that someone has 16 got to be taken to court, arrested, detained, taken to 17 court before anything happens next.

18 When did you appreciate it was not backed for bail 19 and what the process would have required, in terms of 20 duty solicitor, appearing before a magistrate, likely 21 Mental Health Act assessment? When did you fully 22 understand that?

23 EMMA WEBBER: I think it might have, for me, this Inquiry.

24 DAVID WEBBER: I was about to say I think it's this

21

1 aware of it.

2 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah, but I think from my perspective the -- 3 I find it very offensive when people say things like 4 that because it's, actually, that's not really the 5 point; the point is you didn't do your job.

6 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, it's misleading.

7 DAVID WEBBER: If you'd done your job, you don't know what 8 would have happened, so --

9 EMMA WEBBER: How dare he?

10 DAVID WEBBER: -- now we've had it explained to us here in 11 the Inquiry by all of you guys and what that really 12 means, you think to yourself: well actually it could 13 have made quite a big difference.

14 Q. And at the time, David, I think you were picking up as 15 well the sliding doors reference, talking about sliding 16 doors, you didn't particularly appreciate that even 17 before knowing these events, did you?

18 Can you unpack why you didn't like the reference to 19 sliding doors in the context of this case?

20 DAVID WEBBER: I don't -- I didn't -- so sliding doors, it 21 seemed to just trivialise what's happened to our son, to 22 Grace, to Ian, and to the three survivors. It just 23 seemed to make it seem like it was -- oh it was just an 24 accident, you know --

25 Q. Wrong place, wrong time --

23

1 EMMA WEBBER: To see --

2 DAVID WEBBER: I've had it explained a few times but --

3 EMMA WEBBER: -- on the much shown NICHE rebuilt system, 4 "Not backed for bail", I'm pretty certain that's where 5 that phrase, that first use of words, it's the first 6 time aware of not backed for bail.

7 Q. And you were obviously at the time unhappy about the 8 press release that Assistant Chief Constable Griffin had 9 given relating to that time and saying, effectively, 10 there wouldn't have been a custodial sentence if he had 11 been brought before a court.

12 Do you understand now that the picture is broader 13 than that? It's not about being sentenced for that 14 assault; it's what the court would have done, given 15 there was that assault pending, and add also another one 16 that he'd just committed in Arvato premises.

17 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, and all the history, and I think with 18 respect to Rob Griffin -- and we heard it here, 19 I believe again this week -- is that where I'm aware of 20 the statement of "It wouldn't have made any difference 21 anyway" type effect was after and around the hearing in 22 January '24?

23 DAVID WEBBER: Well, I think it was before that -- 24 (overspeaking) --

25 EMMA WEBBER: It might have gone out but that's when I was 22

1 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah.

2 Q. Nothing could have been different.

3 DAVID WEBBER: And I find, you know, I'm quite 4 a straightforward person, I don't like all -- you know, 5 I don't like -- I like to deal in fact, and to me it's 6 just actually, if you'd done everything you were meant 7 to do and this had still happened, then potentially that 8 could be, you know, then there's nothing we can say, 9 you've done everything you should have done, and then 10 you can make -- well, you wouldn't need to make 11 a comment because you wouldn't be saying it would have 12 made no difference.

13 So I find it very difficult when people want to talk 14 about things that may or may not have made a difference.
15 Everyone becomes an expert when half of them don't have 16 the real information that they probably should have 17 before they make an assumption.

18 Q. On the point of information, knowing what you know now, 19 what do you think you should have been told at that 20 first meeting in September with the Senior Investigating 21 Officer about the police's previous involvement with VC?

22 DAVID WEBBER: We should have been told the truth. We 23 should have been told "This is what's happened." Much 24 like we now have here, we should have been told. They 25 knew at that point, so they should have just told us the 24

1 truth. And I know, you know, some of the excuses I've 2 heard, you know, is: well, they didn't want to know,
3 they didn't want to know. I find that a little bit 4 offensive.

5 EMMA WEBBER: A little bit?

6 DAVID WEBBER: Well, it's clearly offensive.

7 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.

8 DAVID WEBBER: But, you know, if we had known at the time 9 that all of this history sat there and the warrant was 10 outstanding and that the Leicestershire incident was 11 literally the month before, and now knowing that the 12 actual full details were given to Leicestershire Police 13 on 24th May and you're thinking, well, hold on a second, 14 that tells me that there's a pretty good chance, 15 actually he wouldn't have been on the streets on the 16 12th or 13th of June, and, you know, Barney, Grace, Ian 17 and the other guys would have just carried on their day 18 as normal.

19 So again, it comes back to that. Just tell the 20 truth, and I find it very hard when people just want to 21 protect their own position.

22 EMMA WEBBER: I believe, and I -- I believe, this is my 23 opinion, that the Nottinghamshire Police Force actively 24 chose not to tell us that information, and all of the 25 excuses that have been used about trying to protect us

1 taken you -- to the fact that things should or -- were 2 very different or could have been or could have been 3 very different, what would your advice be to officers 4 now who may be in situations where they're dealing with 5 people in their worst reality, with grief, unimaginable 6 grief for others, what is the advice to them about how 7 that should be approached, giving more bad news? More 8 bad news about what happened and how things might have 9 been different? How could that have been staged or 10 presented to you where you were ready to accept it, 11 wanted to accept it, and everybody knew its impact?

12 EMMA WEBBER: Can I just say two things and then I'm sure 13 Dave has got much more that he can add, but it's 14 something that the Chair has asked already, I think when 15 you're victim, as we, you know, as we are, what happens 16 is -- and it's often used in the press releases in 17 horrors and tragedies, especially trained officers are 18 assigned to look after the families, and these are 19 Family Liaison Officers, but these are police officers, 20 and I don't believe they're there to advocate for the 21 families, the victims. They are there to advocate for 22 the police force, clearly, and as kind and caring and as 23 much as they try to do, they are still there to serve 24 the police force.

25 So I believe in that instance when you're the victim

27

1 and not tell us, and manage us, is insulting, because we 2 have and had the right to know that, and clearly, had we 3 known that, even in our deepest grief and shock, we 4 would have obviously been asking many more questions.

5 And could I just make a comment just about that one
6 meeting we had in our home with the Senior Investigating 7 Officer, with Leigh Sanders? His demeanour, his 8 approach, was much like we saw when he gave evidence 9 here: very forthright, very confident, but also very 10 opinionated. And he was very, very clear that this 11 individual was evil -- he used that word -- was awful, 12 had continued to be -- I can remember him telling us he 13 continued to be awful in custody, that they had so much 14 evidence that it was clear-cut murder, and that he went 15 into some detail with us about his surprise that he 16 hadn't been shot, and that he was only tasered.

17 I just feel it's important to make that point 18 because with that approach and what we've been told, we 19 were still, in September, under the -- what is now the 20 delusion -- that the full and proper weight of our 21 criminal justice system would be applied. So there was 22 nothing to make us question more.

23 Q. Dealing with the point, Emma, about whether you should 24 have been told there and then about police interactions 25 with VC before then and knowing where that might have

26

1 of such a heinous crime, to have no advocacy available 2 to you is something that needs to be addressed because 3 that would make a very big difference because those 4 people, that person, perhaps, might be able to make that 5 judgment of what you must be told and what you 6 mustn't -- aren't ready to hear.

7 Nothing can be worse than being told as a parent 8 your child is dead. So therefore, having to hear that 9 the individual that did it had a history, and that there 10 were mistakes and, you know, clear evidence of police 11 failures, then even if you don't want to hear it, then 12 I do believe it should at least be put in writing so 13 that it's there, because we were doing an awful lot of 14 "We were told this, they said that, this what the FLOs 15 put in their notes".

16 We can only give you the evidence of what we heard 17 and what we interpreted, but that's what I think.

18 DAVID WEBBER: I think it just comes back down to --

19 EMMA WEBBER: It's candour, isn't it?

20 DAVID WEBBER: -- duty of candour, tell us the truth, just 21 be honest. You know, because -- I mean, watching it 22 now, it is just, you know, it's everyone trying to cover 23 up, it's all slippery shoulders, "It's not my fault, 24 it's his fault" and actually hold on a second, it's just 25 with us as the victims, we just want to know the truth.

28

1 I'm not trying to -- I don't want to catch anyone out, 2 I'm not interested in doing that; I want to get to the 3 truth of how my son was murdered, why my son was 4 murdered, you know, and then you can start to piece it 5 together, and it'll be painful and it'll probably take 6 the rest of my life, and I probably will never come to 7 terms with it -- in fact, I know I'll never come to 8 terms with it -- but the reality is if you're told the 9 truth, you know, we're intelligent human beings, as much 10 as it's going to hurt, as Emma said, it's not going to 11 hurt as much as that news that was delivered on the 13th 12 in the morning. So for me it just starts to get me to 13 understand how something has happened.

14 And also, for them, and it gets them to understand 15 how actually, you've made these mistakes, all these 16 institutions have made mistakes. How do you learn?
 17 Because you talk about lessons learned, you don't. You 18 never have. You never will. So actually, the way to do 19 it is to be honest and then, you know, we can't have 20 a public inquiry every time this sort of thing happens.
 21 It just needs to stop.

22 Q. Just picking up on the point you make about the police 23 Liaison Officers, the Family Liaison Officers, Emma,

25 Without going into the detail of discrepancies and 29

1 and it's got to be better.

2 Q. Thank you. That can come down now. You tell us at 3 paragraph 32 of your statement, that:

4 "The first interaction with the police which 5 involved any disclosure of VC's mental health occurred 6 on 4th October 2023."

7 And you were "in the car on the way to a concert 8 when DC Farrell called." And I think you put the call 9 on speaker. Can you remember that? Do you want me to 10 take you to the paragraph or can you remember that call 11 now?

12 EMMA WEBBER: I can remember it clearly.

13 Q. Tell us, then.

14 EMMA WEBBER: We were driving to Frome. If anyone knows how 15 far away Frome is from Taunton in Somerset, it was 16 a long old drive and we were chatting away and we had 17 the phone call and put it on speaker, and I can remember 18 our FLO saying, "Right, the defence have played their 19 hand. They're going down a diminished route but we're 20 not taking any of that. The CPS, we're going to --" 21 what was the word? "We're going to push back against 22 that".

23 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah, they weren't accepting it, they were 24 saying.

25 EMMA WEBBER: And, you know, it was a short, quite a short

31

1 details, as we see from this, it's something that you 2 raise, and is the case that you weren't all getting 3 information at the same time to the same level of detail
 4 because you had different FLOs; is that an accurate 5 summary?

7 DAVID WEBBER: Yes.

8 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.

9 Q. What was your concern about that, Emma? What was the 10 impact of that?

11 EMMA WEBBER: Well, I think it goes to show that we -- 12 clearly because we were in communication with the 13 Kumars, which isn't always the case when there's, I 14 suppose, multiple victims, you could hear -- you could 15 have hearsay, you could have second-hand information and 16 it's so important that you get the right information 17 delivered properly, comprehensively at the right time, 18 and there's countless evidence in our evidence folder
 19 where we were given different variations than I know 20 Sanjoy and Sinéad, and I now know historically, as we 21 heard yesterday, with James and Darren and Lee and 22 Elaine, and it's so important that you might be an 23 operational officer and you're in different departments 24 and you have different shifts, but, you know, but grief 25 and tragedies and murders don't have a 9 to 5 schedule 30

30

1 telephone call on speakerphone. I didn't at that point
 2 in time even know what diminished responsibility meant.
 3 I didn't know. Sadly, I know all too well now, but 4 I didn't, and they said, "Well, they've played their 5 hand, but we're pushing back." Again, it plays again 6 into, "well, our trust is in the criminal justice system 7 and the CPS to be doing the right thing".

8 Q. Arising from that, you requested a meeting and had 9 a meeting with the CPS; is that right? On 28 November?

10 EMMA WEBBER: It wasn't arising from the call on the 4th of 11 October because I think that happened, and from what 12 I've just said, we almost dismissed it. It did not 13 register. The significance of those few minutes of 14 conversation clearly didn't register with us. I think 15 it was used this week that "the families failed to 16 absorb", which I found insulting.

17 It's hard enough in the situation we're in, but if 18 we're failing to absorb it's because you're not giving 19 us the information properly. It's not our fault; it's 20 not our failure. So we clearly didn't have 21 an understanding of the potential of that brief phone 22 call.

23 Q. When did you start to realise the significance of that, 24 and effectively move to the meetings in November? What 25 happened?

32

1 EMMA WEBBER: No, it was in that meeting, the first ever
 2 meeting with the CPS, online, Teams call, with Sanjoy
 3 and Sinéad and ourselves and Julian Hendy from Hundred 4 Families, who we had to fight to be allowed into that 5 meeting.
 6 Q. Well, let's look at the emails that deal with that,
 7 CPSE0002419. So CPSE0002419, page 2. You have asked, 8 if we go to page 2 first, please, they're the wrong way 9 round -- you had asked that Julian Hendy could come with 10 you to the meeting, couldn't you, didn't you?
 11 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.
 12 Q. Just briefly, why did you ask that? Why did you want 13 him to come and how had you made contact with him?
 14 EMMA WEBBER: Because, as I've already alluded, you have no 15 real advocacy as a victim and the police are the police, 16 and so Julian had made contact with us from Hundred 17 Families, and he was the first I call "hand on shoulder" 18 that we had, and kind of gave us an understanding of 19 what -- because his father was murdered by stabbing, I 20 can't remember how long ago it was. So Julian became 21 the first person to become a bit of an advocate for us, 22 so therefore we'd already knew we needed -- we needed 23 somebody who had more understanding than we did with us, 24 and there was a pushback clearly to not have him in, and 25 then, as is clear with me, I'll push back again, because

1 dunk of this is going to become -- this is a massive 2 turning point in all of this. So that's what we were 3 heading into. Clearly, we had no idea. They didn't 4 infer that what we were really heading into wasn't 5 an introduction, it was -- I think it's also worth 6 pointing out that I think the pre-trial hearing, if 7 that's what it's called, was on something -- was it the 8 28th of -- 9 Q. Yes.
 10 EMMA WEBBER: 28th November, and the suggestion had been 11 made to us that we could have our first ever meeting 12 with this introduction an hour before online. I suspect 13 Sinéad and Sanjoy can confirm that as well and that 14 didn't feel right then, so we did ask for it to be 15 brought forward and we were granted that on the Friday 16 before. So bear in mind this is the Friday with the 17 morning scheduled for the 28th on the Tuesday. So this 18 is the timescale.
 19 Q. If we go to page 1 of the same document, please, we see 20 your response to the refusal to have Mr Hendy with you.
 21 "I'm afraid I'm not prepared to accept this. We are 22 entitled to appropriate support at important meetings
 23 and as such I want Julian there.
 24 "I do not want to escalate this as it's already 25 causing extreme stress however if I need to I will, and

35

1 this is so important. Can't, you know, miss the 2 opportunity to have someone who might understand better
 3 than David and I there. So this is said. This speaks 4 for itself, I think.
 5 Q. Tell us what this says. We can see it but it's your 6 words. What did you make of that when you got it back?
 7 EMMA WEBBER: It's the usual. It's, you know, the relation 8 to, you know, Mr Sanders, Leigh Sanders we'll speak to 9 him separately and have a meeting following that.
 10 And --
 11 Q. They didn't want him to be there.
 12 EMMA WEBBER: It was clear.
 13 DAVID WEBBER: They didn't want him there -- (overspeaking) 14 -- 15 EMMA WEBBER: They didn't want Julian there.
 16 DAVID WEBBER: No.
 17 EMMA WEBBER: I can't understand why. I still don't 18 understand why.
 19 Q. They wanted to introduce the lawyers and prosecution 20 counsel to you "to explain the court process ... to 21 explain some of the law involved in the case ..."
 22 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.
 23 Q. "... if requested." You obviously -- 24 EMMA WEBBER: Can I just -- what we faced when we went into 25 that meeting was not an introduction. That was a slam

34

1 however high I need to."
 2 And then you get a response if we can go, please, 3 HMCP0000312, page 1, apologised in paragraph 3: 4 "... for the upsets ... caused you ... hopefully can 5 move forward ..."
 6 And "A positive change ..."
 7 "Your request was discussed with the Chief Crown 8 Prosecutor. The CPS wanted me to convey to you that the 9 only reason they didn't initially agree with the request 10 was because of concerns around privacy and the risk that 11 anything discussed outside the meeting could potentially 12 jeopardise the proceedings."
 13 So you pushed for it, and then it happened. As 14 somebody in your situation, victims, bereaved parents, 15 what was it that made you consider one, in the first 16 place that you needed and wanted the support of Julian 17 Hendy at the meeting? What had you already sensed or 18 picked up? And secondly, how did you view this U-turn 19 in terms of the refusal at the beginning?
 20 EMMA WEBBER: I suppose, with hindsight, there must have 21 been some red flags, there must have been some 22 underlying concerns. Perhaps, Dave -- I can only give 23 that as the explanation. There must have been an 24 instinct that something wasn't perhaps quite right?
 25 DAVID WEBBER: I think it's exactly that. I think we

36

1 sniffed it wasn't right. There was something going on 2 that wasn't correct. How could something go from one 3 side to the other that quickly with really very little 4 explanation? So from our perspective it just didn't 5 feel right. You know, we'd been quite honest, certainly 6 for myself and Emma's point of view, we don't understand 7 this world, and we wanted someone like Julian there who 8 did understand it, and we were blessed because we had 9 Sanjoy and Sinéad, and Sanjoy especially, because he 10 understood this world, but we also appreciated that 11 Sanjoy was in a lot of pain at the time and, you know, 12 we wanted someone else just to listen and give their 13 opinion as to what was being said and probably 14 real-world experience of what that actually means in the 15 long term. So hence why we wanted Julian to sit in with 16 us.

17 Q. That can come down, please. How was that meeting, when 18 you had it? What do you remember about it?

19 EMMA WEBBER: Do you know, I can remember, because it was 20 a Teams meeting, I can remember seeing Sanjoy's face, in 21 a nice way, when they announced that the decision seemed 22 to have been made to accept diminished responsibility, 23 plea of manslaughter, and I saw Sanjoy's face and the 24 reaction, and the, I suppose, unfolding horror, and in 25 my head it's like -- it was like a ringing, I could just

37

1 written anywhere either because I certainly don't recall 2 reading anything.

3 Q. How long was the meeting on 24 November, the Teams
 4 meeting? Roughly? An hour?

5 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah, I'd say about an hour.

6 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.

7 Q. How many of you were on the call? Yourselves, 8 Julian Hendy, the Kumars?

9 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah, then there was the prosecution 10 barrister.

11 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, so the prosecution team introduced 12 themselves. Our Family Liaison Officers, I think Sanjoy
 13 and Sinéad's Family Liaison Officers. What I do 14 remember from that meeting when it was all unfolding was 15 asking the question: "Have the Coates family been 16 invited to this meeting? And why aren't they here?"

17 And I can remember distinctly a very pregnant pause 18 and sort of shuffling in seats, and then I think the 19 answer came along something like "No, they want this to 20 be given -- information to be given to them by their 21 Family Liaison Officer" or by Leigh Sanders, I can't 22 remember, but that was the answer we were given. But we 23 did ask: "Had they been invited?" I distinctly remember 24 that.

25 Q. Paragraph 39 of your statement, you refer to the hearing

39

1 hear the words "manslaughter" and that's the first time
 2 that that had even entered my head.

3 DAVID WEBBER: Yes, yeah. I think it's exactly that. It's 4 a bit of a state of shock because you've --

5 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.

6 DAVID WEBBER: -- set yourself up for this is what we're 7 doing, it's three counts of murder, three counts of 8 attempted murder and this is where we're going and this 9 it's what we're --

10 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.

11 DAVID WEBBER: -- and then all of a sudden it's a complete 12 U-turn, "no, actually, we're going to do this now" and 13 we've had no chance to really discuss it with them and 14 to go into the detail of how they got to their decision.

15 Q. On the 24th, had you seen any psychiatric report or was 16 that the first time you were told about the psychiatric 17 reports on that Teams meeting?

18 EMMA WEBBER: We -- on that short phone call on 4 October --

19 Q. Yes.

20 EMMA WEBBER: -- we'd been told that the defence were 21 playing their hand and that they'd had a report on his 22 mental health in. But with regards to detail, it was 23 not until then, and I cannot recall anything in between 24 4 October and 24 November whatsoever. If it was said to 25 us, I do not remember it. And I don't believe it was

38

1 taking place on 28 November. Emma, you chose not to 2 attend. David you did attend remotely.

3 DAVID WEBBER: Remotely, yes.

4 Q. So it was possible to do that, the court arranged that?

5 DAVID WEBBER: Yes, yeah, the court arranged for me to be 6 able to ...

7 Q. What did you learn from that hearing, David?

8 DAVID WEBBER: From memory it was a very -- because we'd at 9 that point told them that we didn't accept that this was 10 the way forward, and we wanted them to pause and 11 basically take time, because it felt at the time that it 12 was all very rushed. There was no -- everything just 13 seemed to be just going at such a pace. It just -- it 14 felt not right to us, you know. I mean, to be as blunt 15 as this, I couldn't bring Barney back so time didn't 16 matter at this point; I wanted it to be done properly 17 and if it took longer, it took longer.

18 But yeah, the hearing from memory was just -- 19 I watched it, Mr Khalil basically had taken on board 20 what we said and said that they wanted to see another 21 report.

22 Q. Dr Latham's report.

23 DAVID WEBBER: Dr Latham's report.

24 Q. A further psychiatric report.

25 DAVID WEBBER: Absolutely, yeah, which didn't seem to go

40

1 down very well with the defence and they seemed to be 2 almost saying, "Well, we need to get this over and done 3 with, you know." It felt just -- 4 EMMA WEBBER: Hurried.
 5 DAVID WEBBER: -- it felt very hurried, very rushed and just 6 didn't feel correct at all.
 7 Q. We know after the meeting, if we can go to WITN0289014, 8 page 1, after the meeting and after the hearing. This 9 is an email to you, David. An update from the CPS and 10 the SIO, and to offer a meeting "next week".
 11 "The reason for the update [we see in paragraph 2] 12 is that after Court this week, things are obviously 13 progressing in terms of the preparation of a further 14 Psychiatric report to be completed by 15th December ...
 15 and the thought is that it would benefit [to] you to 16 have a timeline of the investigation and a timeline of 17 the mental health of the defendant - and a meeting with 18 you to go through this. [The SIO was] able to see you 19 at home, or you are welcome to come to Nottinghamshire 20 Police Headquarters ..."
 21 "Also", if we see further down:
 22 "... the CPS have offered a further meeting to go 23 through Dr Blackwood's report."
 24 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah.
 25 Q. Next paragraph:

41

1 they were -- it was all just felt it wasn't -- just 2 didn't feel right. They were making assumptions about 3 something when they weren't even there. And that's 4 where we sort of, I suppose, if you look at us as 5 families, that's where we would bow down to Sanjoy and 6 Sinéad as experts in that field, the medical field.
 7 Because it's all new to me.
 8 But yeah, it just -- the whole thing just didn't -- 9 again, all I can remember, it's such a long time ago, is 10 nothing felt right. It just -- it just felt like they 11 just wanted this to go away as quick as possible, and 12 they'd sort of got three psychiatrists basically saying, 13 "Yeah, you know, you can do this, that's the really easy 14 way of getting rid of them", and that's what it felt 15 like. The whole thing just felt like it was just "Let's 16 rush this through as quick as possible and this problem 17 will go away from us."
 18 Q. And you had a meeting, didn't you, on 7 December 2023.
 19 There's a typed version and you were also taking notes
 20 of it, David. I'll come to your notes after the typed 21 version, if I may. WITN0289004, page 1, please.
 22 Here we see who is present at the meeting. So 23 prosecution, yourselves, the Senior Investigating 24 Officer.
 25 So in this detailed note we see various points are

43

1 "... meetings with the SIO and CPS respectively
 2 would need to be before 15th December."
 3 Then over the page, second paragraph:
 4 "... no issue in the case regarding the defendants 5 actions. The evidence to that effect is compelling." 6 What did you take from the whole of this letter, and 7 that in particular that's highlighted?
 8 DAVID WEBBER: So I took from that that it -- basically 9 there was no defence, in the sense of what he'd done, 10 other than the diminished responsibility line, which 11 I was then told "Well, that's -- it's diminished 12 responsibility; it's not extinguished responsibility".
 13 And yeah, we took it that the report that was -- 14 I mean, I'm just going back to Dr Latham's report on the 15 other page, just trying to get my head into gear on this 16 one. When that report was requested, we wanted that 17 report, and I remember Sanjoy specifically putting down 18 exactly what we as families wanted, the main thrust 19 of it being we wanted to understand on the day what his 20 -- you know, what was his mental state of mind? Because 21 we knew that you cannot be continually in a state of 22 psychosis, you have to ebb and flow, and so what was 23 actually on the day, where was he?
 24 And we didn't believe that the other reports would 25 have picked that up because it didn't seem that they --

42

1 being raised by all of the contributors and all of you 2 as parents of the deceased, and if we go, please, to 3 page 2, Emma, we see a contribution from you near the 4 bottom, "States" -- that's Samantha, or Sam Shallow who 5 is from the CPS:
 6 "States to SS ... they were going to accept it and 7 asks if they were not accepting because they made 8 a fuss. Describing the CPS as 'Flip-Flopping with 9 decision-making'.
 10 What did you convey there?
 11 EMMA WEBBER: I'm never as eloquent in my writing as Sanjoy 12 or Dave but it's clear -- I felt like it was being, as 13 I went on to say, very much led by experts, doctors, in 14 something so serious. And what isn't clear in here is 15 that in our prior meeting with the CPS, and I believe 16 that the Kumars will probably cover this in more detail, 17 we were very, very clear on the contemporaneous element 18 of how VC was behaving on the 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th
 19 onwards of June, and were asking questions which I 20 believe are reasonable questions. How was he presenting 21 in custody? What was he like in his CCTV of his 22 interviews? And we were told in this meeting by Leigh 23 Sanders there was no CCTV available. We were clearly 24 told in this meeting, I don't know if it's minuted here.
 25 I think it was. But I remember Sanjoy asking questions

44

1 like why -- what was the interview with the Seely Hirst
 2 House security guard/cleaner? What was his 3 interpretation? What was the conversation and detail
 4 with VC's brother when he called in between the murders?
 5 And --
 6 Q. Just pausing on the CCTV, Emma, do you mean the audio -- 7 you were told there were audio tapes --
 8 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.
 9 Q. -- of the interviews of VC -- 10 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, we were told there was -- 11 Q. -- and the fact there was video?
 12 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, there was -- speaking as a layman here, 13 when you see on the TV and you see on the news people in 14 custody, and also being interviewed, that's quite often 15 played for the public to see, isn't it?
 16 Q. Mm-hm.
 17 EMMA WEBBER: So in my head it was I just -- the assumption 18 that there would have been, as well as audio recordings, 19 video CCTV recordings of VC whilst he was in custody and 20 being interviewed, because he was interviewed -- was it 21 five times, I think? It was certainly a good number of 22 times. And we were clearly and plainly told: "There is 23 no CCTV".
 24 And then Leigh Sanders goes on to say, when he does 25 admit it, shortly before the sentencing in an email I

45

1 Where is that? It's halfway down the page on 2 page 6.
 3 "... Mentioned that a manslaughter charging decision 4 would not be acceptable and that they had a meeting 5 arranged with the Rt Hon Alex Chalk KC MP".
 6 So that's the Secretary of State for Justice.
 7 So tell us where you were going at this point. You 8 knew what the issues were. It sounds like you knew what 9 was coming down the road, or you thought you knew what 10 was coming down the road. So what was the appointment 11 you'd arranged and what was your issue for the Justice 12 Secretary?
 13 EMMA WEBBER: Pretty much everything we've just been 14 discussing this morning: that we had been very much led 15 to believe that the murderer of our child was going to 16 be done for murder, and at the 11th hour that was turned 17 into a manslaughter plea, and I -- I -- do you know, 18 I guess it's best to explain it is instinct, certainly 19 parental instinct. When something is wrong you just 20 know something is wrong. And I knew something was wrong
 21 and I knew that I had to do anything and everything 22 possible to understand. And I think at this point I was 23 still trying to find a way of understanding, despite 24 every part of my instinct screaming "This is wrong, this 25 is wrong," and, you know, if you want answers, you have

47

1 believe you've also got, "Actually, because he was in 2 a new custody suite, there was CCTV available. However, 3 it wouldn't have made any difference because he did 4 a 'no comment' interview."
 5 And I do not accept -- from -- was it Dr Milton that 6 said that somebody's presentation and their body 7 language you can get an awful lot, you read an awful lot 8 out of that, and especially if someone is giving a "no 9 comment" interview to part of the interview, not all of 10 it, then surely how they are acting and how they are 11 responding physically is important.
 12 Q. And this was being raised, and if we look at the page 13 that we're on at the top:
 14 "[Sinéad O'Malley-Kumar] - Again requested detail of 15 the psychiatric report to understand the [mental health] 16 ... give context."
 17 And refers on page 3 halfway down:
 18 "SK requires request timeline of doctors seeing him 19 in custody."
 20 So the points that you supported, as we see through 21 emails, and agreed with, yourselves. And page 6, you 22 say halfway down -- I don't think that's page 6, or 23 further up.
 24 "[Emma Webber] - Mentioned that a manslaughter 25 charging decision would not be acceptable ..."

46

1 to go to the top because we'd clearly been pushed back, 2 pushed back, all the way along. And we'd been told off
 3 for directly emailing the CPS because I screenshotted 4 an accidental email with their full email addresses in 5 it, and we got told off and the Family Liaison Officers 6 got told off for us seeing that, which, you know, 7 I think is just indicative of how we were treated.
 8 So we were desperately trying to speak to somebody 9 who we felt could help us, and he did agree and he did 10 speak to us on a number of occasions.
 11 Q. And if we go to the top of page 7, David, you say: 12 "... Stated he wanted the defendant to get the 13 maximum sentence possible and felt from what had been 14 explained and shown the defendant was making rational 15 decisions."
 16 And if we go to page 11, something else you say, 17 David, on the third paragraph down:
 18 "Not criticizing - I'm not expert, we are parents 19 and seeing this from a different point of view, needs to 20 be challenged. Go back and say I get that, let a jury 21 see all this, if a jury saw all that then they would be 22 the same."
 23 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah, I think from my perspective it's -- I'm 24 not an expert. It felt at this point it was all being, 25 as we've said throughout this, trial by doctor. So I --

48

1 again, coming back to what Emma said a second ago, it 2 didn't feel right. I remember this meeting. One of the 3 things that Leigh Sanders said -- I think he says he 4 might have only been speaking to me, but he said, "This 5 meeting will answer your questions". And all I remember 6 is coming out of this meeting and thinking I've now got 7 a load more questions that I didn't have before.

8 Q. Let's have a look at your handwritten note please, 9 WITN0289005.

10 You have set out in that last paragraph various 11 facts that you are recording, "Disappears until 1.17, 12 dropped or dumped the bag, changed footwear."

13 You refer thereafter to where the sightings where 14 he's not, when he's under the tree, sitting under the 15 tree.

16 Then over the page, "Potential explanation not 17 ..." -- what does that say after "not"?

18 DAVID WEBBER: I told you I probably couldn't read my own 19 writing!

20 Q. That's the only bit I've really struggled with.

21 EMMA WEBBER: "Not definite", I think.

22 DAVID WEBBER: I think it's "not definite".

23 Q. "Not definite".

24 DAVID WEBBER: A scrawl.

25 Q. "Not definite. Now on meds, when?"

49

1 to want to answer any of the questions. So again it was 2 now starting to build up another head of steam of this 3 doesn't -- none of this makes sense, disappearing for 4 ages and then changing completely. You know, and then 5 coming back out, bag's gone, where'd the bag go? Oh, 6 you know -- oh, the answer, well, it was probably -- it 7 was a bit of a rough part of Nottingham so it's probably 8 just stolen by, you know, a local homeless person who 9 ... it's like, well, I don't understand, I don't think 10 that's the case. But surely you would find the bag?
11 Or, you know, even if they'd nicked all the contents out 12 of it you'd still find the bag somewhere. But they 13 seemed to have no -- they didn't seem to think that 14 anything was -- that wasn't important. It's almost like 15 "We've made our decision, let's get rid of this now as 16 quick as possible because this is all going to become 17 very embarrassing if we let this go on much longer".

18 And maybe -- well, not maybe, we were starting to 19 ask questions that were challenging them.

20 Q. Well, we can see -- that can come down and if we can 21 have instead, please, WITN0289007. So 0289007, page 2, 22 first. And this on page 2, is a letter from Dr Kumar to 23 Sam and Lee, and so to the CPS and the SIO:

24 "Thank you for travelling down to Avon in Somerset 25 to come and meet with us. We appreciate the efforts

51

1 "Fit to stand trial ...

2 "He says hospital order ...!"

3 So you appear to be setting out the parts that 4 are decision-making or rational or the things you're 5 concerned about from the meeting at page 3. You say:

6 "Bought a knife? 2022."

7 So listening to that meeting, you're recording 8 changes of name and the like, what were you taking from 9 the meeting?

10 DAVID WEBBER: Again, it was coming back to just seeing 11 someone acting in a way that was completely at opposite 12 ends to how it was being explained to us and how the 13 psychiatrists were seeing it at the time. And again, 14 coming back to questions just not being answered.

15 When I -- I had various questions but the Slazenger 16 bag was one that I pushed hard on, and one of my 17 questions was: "Did they have the Slazenger bag on the 18 way to London, or did he have the Slazenger bag when he 19 went to London, or did he only have it when he came 20 back?" They couldn't answer that.

21 I asked about the £10 he withdrew, I said that's a 22 very low amount to go to a cashpoint. Why would you do 23 that at one o'clock or 1.30 in the morning. Did he have 24 that on him when you arrested him?

25 There's a whole -- and again, they just didn't seem

50

1 made by the whole team. After digesting the timeline, 2 there are several serious concerns and questions which 3 I attach for you in a Word document."

4 I won't go to that now but there is a Word document 5 that accompanies that.

6 And if we go to page 1, we see, Emma, your email -- 7 you were obviously copied into the earlier one. So what 8 are you jointly saying at this point?

9 EMMA WEBBER: David and myself, you mean?

10 Q. Yes.

11 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, we've obviously spoken in depth with the 12 Kumar family and we've, you know, completely united in 13 our concerns, and those concerns were raising and 14 increasing almost by the hour. That meeting on 7 15 December was up there in, again, one of the worst things 16 I've ever had to do. It was appalling. We were given 17 this guided CCTV sort of storyboarded timeline, and as 18 David has said, Leigh Sanders opened that with "You 19 know, we've done this because we think it will alleviate 20 your fears about the decision that's been taken." And 21 it did the polar opposite of that. They could not 22 answer simple questions during that meeting. I remember 23 Sanjoy and Sinéad asking about toxicology and I think 24 that's the first time that raised in our heads its 25 forum. And they could not answer. I can remember Sam

52

1 Shallow shuffling through, "Did you take toxicology-- 2 "Oh, I think we took toxicology." They didn't know and 3 I remember Sanjoy saying like this, "You should have 4 this at the tip of your fingers." They didn't know that 5 and it was scrabbling and it was so -- it was just so 6 alarming and so distressing and it was hours and hours
7 and hours, and then you see Sinéad and myself and David 8 I think left the room. Sanjoy stayed in.

9 But when you see your child walking -- yeah, the 10 still of him and Grace walking towards their fate, and 11 I knew what clothes he had on, I knew where he'd got 12 them from, and they were walking, they were chatting, it 13 was daylight, and it happened in the first couple of 14 days of this Inquiry. In my head it's like -- it's that 15 ticking time bomb of 1 am, 2 am, 3 am and then 4 am, and 16 then 4.04, and we know what happened.

17 So we are doing everything that we can because we 18 know it's wrong. So we left the room when that awful -- 19 the awful details were given to Sanjoy. But I do also 20 want to say, in that meeting we asked again "Were the 21 Coates family invited to join us today?" And we had the 22 same copy and paste repeat "No, they weren't, they 23 didn't want to join."

24 Q. David, you wanted to say something?

25 DAVID WEBBER: It's only because I've just glanced down to 53

1 DAVID WEBBER: So yes, so they did the read-through. We 2 weren't allowed to see the report, but they were 3 prepared to read it to us.

4 Q. So you couldn't even have the report in front of you in 5 the room, it was read to you?

6 EMMA WEBBER: We weren't even allowed to see the words, even 7 online --

8 DAVID WEBBER: We were told at the time we weren't allowed 9 to have a physical copy, that would be provided after 10 the case was --

11 EMMA WEBBER: After the sentencing.

12 DAVID WEBBER: -- after the sentencing.

13 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.

14 DAVID WEBBER: But they would read it to us and they would 15 obviously omit anything, any personal details. So yeah, 16 we sat and listened to them reading it to us.

17 MS LANGDALE: Chair, I wonder itself that's a good moment 18 for the morning break; it's 11.15.

19 THE CHAIR: I think what we'll do is take a 20-minute break 20 and be back here at 11.35. Thank you.

21 (11.15 am)

22 (A short break)

23 (11.35 am)

24 MS LANGDALE: Can I just ask you, David, something arising 25 from the meeting on -- the one in November. The

55

1 the bottom of that document that's in front of me now -- 2 I don't think anyone else can see it -- but from Leigh
3 Sanders back to Sanjoy:

4 "Hi Sanjoy, yes, I can confirm receipt of your 5 email.

6 "We are working on another enquiry at this time but 7 as soon as I get some down time I will ... read [it] and 8 back get to you."

9 And I don't think he realised how that would have 10 made us feel. You know, he didn't even -- even if he -- 11 you know, I'm not stupid; I know he would be working on 12 another inquiry. However, that's just disgusting. I 13 don't need to know that. The most important case in my 14 world that you're working on is the one where my son has 15 been brutally murdered, so don't come back and tell me 16 that you're busy on something else and you haven't got 17 the time to read through the thing what Sanjoy has taken 18 a lot of time to put together for you.

19 So I find that very offensive and I think it just 20 shows, again, this complete lack of regard for us as 21 victims.

22 Q. If that can come down please and have NGPF0004150. We 23 know that you had a read-through, as it were, of the 24 psychiatric reports. Can you tell us about that 25 meeting?

54

1 reference, please, is CPSE0010008. So CPSE0010008.
2 This is when you're meeting prosecution counsel in 3 November, 24 November. If we can go to page 3, please, 4 there's a description given, if we look in the box on 5 the right, at paragraph 2:

6 "If one steps back and looks at the carnage he 7 inflicted. It is not of any surprise for him to have 8 acted as he did. He used a dagger on people unknown, 9 with no motive. Then took a vehicle, and drove into 10 further victims, again nobody he knew and no motive. He 11 then parked up and allowed his arrest seems 12 extraordinary ..."

13 If we go to page 10 of that meeting, you say, 14 Mr Webber: "I thought the police had to stop the van."

15 So what was it about that description that made you 16 check that, and did anyone respond then or subsequently 17 to you about what you said there?

18 DAVID WEBBER: So the answer to the second part of your 19 question is no, I didn't ever get a response to that.
20 Because, again, with the timeline when we were explained 21 how the vehicle was pulled up, we were told that a dog 22 unit had pulled in front of him and then the armed 23 response had come into the side of him, which we've now 24 all seen.

25 So when I read that apparently he'd just pulled up

56

1 and it was sort of almost like oh, he's just given 2 himself up. It was like, well, no, he didn't, he was 3 stopped by the police. He couldn't get through. And 4 then he was -- so it -- I just -- yeah, it just wasn't, 5 again, it was just not -- it wasn't the truth.

6 Q. We see Leigh Sanders says:
7 "In terms of providing you with the full details, 8 I am happy to come and do that. He was followed by the 9 police. ... came to a stop, when he was detained, he 10 was reaching for a weapon which is why he was Tasered.
11 We are seeing you next week. We will go through it ...
12 if you want to."

13 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah, I mean, again it was -- yeah, it just 14 didn't ring true, what he was saying because again, he's 15 just said there that he pulled up, and I think we've all 16 now seen he didn't just pull up.

17 Q. Thank you. That can go down. Can we have now, please, 18 CPSE0000207, page 1. This is the letter you received on 19 18 December 2023 referring to the pleas. We see, 20 I think you said, Emma, this was hand delivered, was it, 21 this letter? This is the one that explains what the 22 prosecution decision has been and what they're going to 23 do in terms of accepting pleas?

24 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, they say hand delivered; it was pretty 25 much forced upon us. We had made it very, very clear

57

1 What particularly Sanjoy and Sinéad, what we asked
2 for was not what was carried out by Dr Latham. He did 3 a peer review only and we had made it very clear that it 4 was so important that witnesses were spoken to, that 5 CCTV or footage was made available, and that VC himself 6 was interviewed and given -- if you look at the 7 quickness in Latham's report, none of that was done.

8 And then what was further insult to our injury was 9 to hear in the opening of the case from the CPS and the 10 sentencing hearing that such was their determination to 11 ensure that they had reached the right conclusion that 12 they instructed I think it was four reports, and 13 inferred that that was done at their behest. It wasn't.
14 It was done because we were begging and pleading for 15 them. And I found that so insulting to use that as, in 16 my opinion, another way to dim us down.

17 Q. If we go, please -- that can come down -- to 18 NGPF0002572, you, on 19 January, Emma, email Gemma 19 Piggott, DCI, with various questions. In fact many 20 questions at different points and this is but one, but 21 I want to turn attention particularly, if we go to 22 page 1 first, it's actually page 2 that I'd like us to 23 look at.

24 You're saying, and this is in December you're saying 25 this:

59

1 that we did not accept it and we were -- I think there
2 are other mails that pertain to "Please don't do this",
3 but they drove -- the Family Liaison Officers drove down
4 from Nottingham and hand delivered it to us on 18 5 December.

6 Q. You expressed grave concern about that at the time. If 7 we have, please, NGPF0002505, page 3, you wrote to the 8 CPS on behalf of the O'Malley-Kumar family and your own 9 family. Over the page, you say at paragraph 4: 10 "Given that the first contact we had with the CPS 11 was the 24th November (four days before the pre-trial 12 hearing), we emphasise how rushed, hastened and 13 railroaded we feel".
14 Would you like to expand on that?

15 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, I think the timeline speaks for itself.
16 And the fact that I've given in evidence that the 17 initial request from the CPS for their first ever 18 meeting with us was going to be an hour before accepting 19 the plea is clear, that's no proper time. That's no 20 opportunity to digest and ask questions, as victims, as 21 I've already again referred to, we have no advocacy. So 22 we felt all at sea and on our own in doing our very 23 best.
24 What I go on to say down there is explicitly asking 25 for the fresh set of eyes upon psychiatric evidence.

58

1 "We are still very unclear on his outstanding
2 offence of assault on [a] police officer. Can you 3 please confirm the date of the offence (assuming also in 4 Nottingham) and that there was a warrant outstanding for 5 him. We have also been advised [that] the assault 6 resulted in him being tasered (and also we presume that 7 this also required medical treatment)."
8 And we see there the answer to your query around the 9 warrant:
10 "He was detained as an inpatient under Section 2 of 11 the Mental Health Act ... He remained as an inpatient 12 (in secure accommodation) where he was treated and 13 assessed by health care professionals. He was reported 14 for summons August 2022. He was due to appear at the 15 magistrates Court on the 22nd September ... He failed to 16 appear. A warrant was issued for his arrest. At the 17 time of these offences ... he had not been arrested."
18 Still no mention of not backed for bail.

19 EMMA WEBBER: No.
20 DAVID WEBBER: No.
21 EMMA WEBBER: No.
22 MS LANGDALE: For what it's worth. So did you understand at 23 that any point, even then, what that meant, that he 24 would have to be taken to a court, before you came to 25 the Inquiry?

60

1 EMMA WEBBER: No, and it's -- again it's clear that despite 2 what we've heard from Mr Sanders and ACC Griffin is that 3 we had failed to absorb whatever information they felt 4 had been given to us because it's very clear from 5 that -- and I'd also like to point out the date that 6 this information came back to us was literally just 7 before the sentencing was due to take place. And that 8 I had been asking in various forms for all of these 9 things for weeks and weeks and weeks.

10 Q. Thank you, that can go down.

11 If we can have up, please, CPSE0000212, and this is 12 the meeting on 15 January. So we know this is a meeting 13 again with the prosecution counsel this time, CPS, 14 yourselves, and your Family Liaison Officers. And 15 there's a number of matters raised in this, including 16 toxicology, psychiatry, and there's a discussion about 17 how the hearing may happen or how the hearing is likely 18 to unfold.

19 Can I just ask you to have a look, please, at 20 page 2. And there's reference to the footage: 21 "I ... refer to the moving and audio material from 22 CCTV for each of the key events. This can cause 23 distress to people in the court. I would pause to allow 24 people to leave. Those representing the defendant wish 25 to avoid playing key CCTV in the courtroom. We have not

61

1 considering his history of deceit with his medication
2 and his planning of the event. He has a history of 3 violence in the past. He has been violent to his 4 flatmates, co-workers and a police officer too. It is 5 in his history."

6 It says:

7 "Families, these points are being made."

8 Then we see from you, Emma, at page 9, you say:

9 "I want to read my statement and read it at him.

10 Can you tell [the judge] I've got a video to be played 11 too. What details do the media have? What can they 12 report?"

13 You say:

14 "We do not want any CCTV released to the public, but 15 the details of the timeline and his actions will be 16 reported in the court. Very different from looking at 17 CCTV. I will be content as long as the facts are 18 reported but not in any detail.

19 "The public need to know what this monster has 20 done", is what you said.

21 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.

22 Q. So did you understand the ambits of the hearing and what 23 would be put in or not?

24 EMMA WEBBER: Not really. I understood some, not all.
25 David?

63

1 been provided with the reasons, just that they object.
2 Trying to reduce distress to people in court. ... we 3 await arguments ... Part of my response was 'It would 4 be a bizarre and remarkable case where a sentencing
5 [was] prevented from seeing the evidence. [The judge 6 prevented]. We would agree [the judge] can see in his 7 room'. The defence indicated they have no objection to 8 [the judge] seeing it alone."

9 Now you obviously were concerned, rightly, that the 10 essential footage of the offence on your son wasn't 11 viewed in court, but did you understand what was being 12 suggested here or said here?

13 EMMA WEBBER: No. I think it speaks for itself, just the 14 overwhelming sort of diatribe of information that's 15 being given to us in a not terribly clear manner, and 16 we're going into a level of information there where we 17 are still so deeply distraught and concerned about the 18 plea itself, that we're overwhelmed with information 19 from literally every single angle.

20 Q. And we see at page 7 of the same document at the bottom:

21 "The defence will say stuff about the defendant.
22 They won't try to sway [the judge] about the punishment, 23 they will mitigate."

24 Over the page, page 8:

25 "[Sinéad O'Malley-Kumar] - Please you are 62

1 Not really, I think it's so -- I think I was just so
2 utterly overwhelmed and horrified at the thought there 3 was even footage of my child being murdered. That's 4 hard to process. And to put it into context of a legal 5 forum, where there will be media, and it's not even 6 going to be a trial. It's very difficult to process.

7 DAVID WEBBER: (The witness nodded).

8 Q. Understood. If we go, please, to WITN0289009, page 2.

9 There was an issue, wasn't there, about which court it 10 would be in? You get this email, David.

11 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah.

12 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.

13 Q. Currently "listed in Court 3 ... a lot smaller."

14 Tell us what your response was to that and what you 15 understood was being said by that?

16 DAVID WEBBER: So basically it felt again, to us, it was 17 a very convenient way to sort of limit the press, limit 18 the exposure, and not allow us to have as many of our 19 support with us as families that we wanted. It just 20 felt like it was again just being dismissed as "Let's 21 just get rid of this as quick as possible, make it 22 small, don't -- you know, the quicker we can just get 23 this person disposed of, the better."

24 And that's what it felt like. It wasn't, you know, 25 we knew we weren't having a full trial. But, you know,

64

1 it just felt that this was not allowing us to have, you 2 know, the people we needed around us and to have this 3 heard in the correct way.

4 And I think the bit there again:

5 "This is because there are other large trials 6 scheduled for Court 1 and 2".

7 Again it's offensive. You know, I'm sorry --

8 Q. You're not interested in the other cases?

9 DAVID WEBBER: -- in Nottingham at that point.

10 Yeah, and we've never found out what trials were 11 bigger, and I don't think there ever was. I think, 12 again, it was just another way of deflecting us away 13 from, you know, get as many of the press out there as 14 possible and try and keep us, keep us quiet.

15 EMMA WEBBER: Damage limitation I believe.

16 Q. And it was in fact moved to court 1, was it, 17 eventually --

18 DAVID WEBBER: Eventually.

19 Q. -- after you responded to this?

20 EMMA WEBBER: I think I got in touch with the Right
21 Honourable Alex Chalk MP again, and yes, it -- but it
22 took -- there were phone calls with the Family Liaison 23 Officers, and I think -- I think I was on a train going 24 to -- coming up to London, and I remember saying, "Look, 25 sort this. We need -- don't diminish us by removing us

65

1 a statement, didn't you, outside the court, Emma, as did
2 Dr Kumar. So what motivated you, if it's not obvious, 3 to say something immediately after the sentence?

4 EMMA WEBBER: We hadn't been given any opportunity to be 5 heard properly. We were even managed in our victim
6 impact statements very, very carefully, which I regret 7 listening to, because we were dealt with differently 8 than the other two families and what we were told we 9 could and couldn't do. That's one example. So we 10 hadn't been heard.

11 Q. Expand on that, that's a significant point, isn't it --

12 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.

13 Q. -- what you were told in terms of what your family could 14 do for Barney in victim impacts. Could you tell us 15 that?

16 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, so we were told that there were -- 17 because of the amount of victims, there would be a lot 18 of victim impact statements being made. Therefore, we 19 needed to keep ours short as possible. We needed to 20 make them available via our Family Liaison Officers and 21 it was quite well in advance we were being pushed to 22 give them.

23 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah.

24 EMMA WEBBER: And that it could only come from David, myself 25 and Charlie. And Charlie was 15 years old, and we

67

1 to court three. Get this sorted. We shouldn't have to 2 have this level of stress."

3 I think -- is it like the week before? I think it's 4 really close to, isn't it?

5 I said, "If you don't do it by 5.00, by close of 6 business today, then we're going to have to let the 7 media know."

8 And that almost sounds like a, you know, sort of 9 a small throwaway comment from me, but try to understand 10 that this is yet another example of us having to fight 11 and fight and fight and challenge and push.

12 Q. And what if you hadn't had access or the ability to make 13 the context you did?

14 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, exactly. What we would have -- we would 15 have been in court 3. We would have not had -- well, 16 I don't think we'd be here. And I'm not saying it's 17 because of me; I'm saying it's because of all of us.
18 But it's -- it has taken so much out of us in every 19 possible way to fight, just to get here. And there's 20 insult after insult after insult and disrespect in the 21 way we've been treated, and I'm glad it's being 22 addressed.

23 Q. This can come down, thank you. After the sentencing 24 hearing happened, we've got transcripts, and we're going 25 to hear from psychiatrists, two of them, you made

66

1 didn't want him to be in the court, and he didn't want 2 to be in the court. And therefore we said we will 3 record his and send it to you, and we were told: "That 4 can't happen. We have to come down. He has to sit with 5 us and we're doing it and you're not in the room".

6 So the two Family Liaison Officers recorded Charlie 7 in our living room, and that's what was played in the 8 courtroom. And David and I wrote ours and then spoke, 9 obviously, as we did.

10 But we had family and friends and people deeply, 11 deeply impacted by our loss of Barnaby that we were not 12 allowed to -- we were told we were not allowed to -- 13 they were not allowed to speak or say anything. I think 14 our friends Carol, and Barnaby's, one of his good 15 friends, Tom, they did insist themselves, they found 16 a way to get those impact statements read out.

17 But it's another example. So sorry, to answer your 18 question about speaking on the court steps and, you 19 know, we spoke, Sanjoy and Sinéad and James. I remember 20 James Coates speaking as well, and felt like that was -- 21 was that our only opportunity to actually be heard?
22 Because we'd been brushed aside up until then, and, you
23 know, I -- the words that I spoke or wrote that morning 24 in readiness, because knew what was coming.

25 Q. What followed, if we go to NGPF0007209, page 1, was

68

1 a letter to you and others from the Chief Constable.
2 You all had the same or a similar letter inviting you to 3 meet with her and to hear your concerns about management 4 of the response.

5 You replied in effect to say that you regretted this 6 hadn't been offered sooner and you didn't think it was 7 the right time. So tell us why you didn't think it was 8 the right time then, at this point, to have a meeting 9 with the Chief Constable?

10 EMMA WEBBER: Well, the horse has bolted, hasn't it? The 11 gate has been firmly shut. What's the point? It's far 12 too little, far too late.

13 Q. You were raising concerns and requesting referral to the 14 IOPC, and if that can come down and we can have 15 WITN0289010, page 1. You learn that:

16 "... Nottinghamshire Police have taken the 17 pro-active step of referring [themselves] to the 18 IOPC this morning."

19 What did you think, I'm not going to ask you about 20 the IOPC. They work in parallel to the Inquiry, they're 21 doing what they're doing, the Chair is making her 22 findings and hearing evidence here, so they're separate 23 tracks as it were.

24 But the process of the IOPC and dealing with them 25 and communicating with them, tell us about that and what 69

1 police?

2 DAVID WEBBER: I, at the time I didn't understand that much 3 about them. So I will say that initially there's 4 a little bit yes, I felt that they would come at this 5 from an independent point of view, and they would deal 6 with this, but they would get to the truth. And what 7 came off the back of that would hopefully be the 8 accountability and the changes that needed to happen to 9 stop this kind of thing happening again.

10 I do remember at the time, my brother is 11 an ex-police officer and I had a conversation with him 12 and he told me that I probably needed to be prepared for 13 not getting what I want.

14 EMMA WEBBER: Was it "Manage your expectations"?

15 DAVID WEBBER: I think that was exactly what he said, 16 "Manage your expectations."

17 Q. Were you consulted about terms of reference for 18 different investigations from the IOPC?

19 EMMA WEBBER: To be clear with regards to what is being 20 referred to as Penhallow, which is the Leicestershire 21 officers, we were never included at all.

22 Q. That's been reopened, that investigation, hasn't it, 23 now?

24 EMMA WEBBER: Yes, after a lot of noise being made again by 25 us, that is being reopened. I think what's really 71

1 you expected as laypeople or thought the IOPC do or may 2 be doing?

3 DAVID WEBBER: I think, from my perspective, I-- maybe 4 naively at the time -- thought well the IOPC are the 5 Independent Office for Police Conduct and I thought: 6 they will look at this in an independent manner and they 7 will deal with this. You know, our concerns, they will 8 bring them up and they will deal with them in 9 an independent manner.

10 That's what I understood at the time. I now have 11 a very different opinion of how it works, but yeah, it 12 just felt that -- it just felt -- the whole thing felt a 13 little bit, again, it's all coming out afterwards, and 14 they are almost saying, "Okay, this isn't going away, we 15 need to do something -- be seen to be doing something."

16 I think this one, if I'm correct and I might not be, 17 but I've got a feeling that Leicestershire Police might 18 have gone first and then Nottingham --

19 Q. Yes.

20 DAVID WEBBER: -- it was almost like Nottingham were then 21 embarrassed and said, "Well, we'd better do it, as well, 22 then."

23 It just felt a little bit -- well, again, wrong.

24 Q. And do you or did you have confidence in the capacity of 25 the IOPC to make investigations independently of the 70

1 important is I think there are four or five
2 investigations with the IOPC over the two forces.
3 Leicestershire, we were never made aware, we were never 4 made interested parties. It came about in our first 5 meeting with them, which is, I don't know, March or 6 April 2024, where as a throwaway comment at the end, 7 Derrick Campbell, who was the decision-maker for the 8 Nottingham one's that we were talking about, said that 9 he had "Oh, by the way, we have the Leicestershire 10 officer's referral". It's -- I believe he said the 11 decision had pretty much been made, it was for sign-off.

12 So we're talking, when was that? March, April, '24
13 and we're nearly in March, April '26 and, as we speak 14 today, not one single IOPC investigation has been 15 concluded, and I know we can't speak about those.

16 Q. Not the details but the length of time you can --

17 EMMA WEBBER: Oh my God --

18 Q. From your point of view.

19 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, we could fill another folder. I do -- 20 I've said this publicly -- I do not believe they're fit 21 for purpose. The way we have been treated and 22 communicated with as families falls far short of 23 an independent office who are responsible and the body 24 to manage the police and their actions, or lack thereof.

25 Q. And just dealing with their communication, you refer to 72

1 yourself as "interested parties". Explain us to what 2 that means when you're an interested party in an 3 investigation. Do you get updates, for example, from 4 the IOPC? What do you get as interested parties?
 5 DAVID WEBBER: So exactly, you get -- you're meant to have 6 regular updates. So yes, I mean we're interested 7 parties to the investigations so we're meant to be kept 8 effectively in the loop, and given the updates.
 9 So, yeah, that's exactly what an interested party 10 is.
 11 Q. And we'll see as we move to look at the third-party 12 organisations, you have solicitors by this point, you've 13 got Hudgells and they're involved in you communicating 14 with some of these third-party organisations, the NHS, 15 IOPC.
 16 Again, from a victim's perspective, what is the 17 impact or the effect of having lawyers to assist you 18 navigate this?
 19 EMMA WEBBER: I can't underestimate the importance and the 20 value that we have had from having the support from 21 Hudgells Solicitors. They reached out to us, they 22 supported us, it wasn't given as right, and I again 23 reiterate what I said before, as victims: we so 24 desperately need that void filled where we have that 25 support.

73

1 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, so I emailed it -- yeah, so what had 2 happened before -- that was Thursday -- so before that, 3 I had started to receive messages from the press, the 4 media, saying -- and I think also James Coates alluded 5 to it yesterday -- that we weren't being asked -- what 6 is going on? There was confusion and I think concern 7 from the messages that were coming in: "What is 8 happening? Do you know anything about this? We've been 9 told that we can attend a press conference but we're not 10 allowed to report on it."
 11 Which completely caught me unawares, so that's one 12 thing I do understand a little bit is media and how it 13 works. So of course I wrote straight away saying, "What 14 is all this about?"
 15 And I think what I've said is self-explanatory in 16 that fairly short email to Kate Meynell at 10.58, and 17 then you -- I think the next document is that officer's 18 response, on her behalf.
 19 Q. Let's go back to page 1.
 20 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.
 21 Q. "... won't be raising or discussing any issues which you 22 are not already aware of".
 23 We've gone thorough that in evidence. I don't know 24 if you've had an opportunity to look at it in detail.
 25 Was there anything you weren't aware of, or was there

75

1 So until Hudgells came along in about the spring, 2 early summer '24 it had pretty much been the three 3 families trying to find their own way, and I didn't even 4 know what IOPC meant until after January 2024. I didn't 5 know what an interested party was. I didn't understand 6 the role of decision-makers. I didn't understand -- 7 I spent an awful lot of time Googling and reading stuff.
 8 So the importance of having that hand on the 9 shoulder that makes you think: okay, someone understands 10 this. Because by the time that Hudgells came along we 11 realised that we had put our trust and faith in 12 investigations, and we shouldn't have done.
 13 Q. You deal with the so-called non-reportable or 14 non-disclosure briefing in your statement at 15 paragraph 80, and I think at the time you sent an email, 16 Emma, asking -- you knew that that was going to 17 happen -- if they were going to get any information that 18 you hadn't had, or words to that effect, emailing the 19 Chief Constable; is that right?
 20 EMMA WEBBER: Yes. So I believe it was the morning that the 21 non-reportable briefing was being held.
 22 Q. Let me put it on the screen now.
 23 EMMA WEBBER: Okay.
 24 Q. WITN0289012, page 2. Carry on. We can all see what 25 you've said at the time.

74

1 anything put in a particular way that you would be 2 concerned about?
 3 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, there was loads of that. Without the 4 document in front of me --
 5 Q. I can put it in front of you.
 6 EMMA WEBBER: It might be useful, actually, because I could 7 tell you what we didn't know.
 8 Q. It's NGPF0011160. So NGPF0011160, page 1. So we can 9 scroll through it gently so people have the chance to 10 look at it again, and then say, Emma, where you would 11 like us to stop or what you were not aware of or -- 12 EMMA WEBBER: Nothing on the first page. I think that's 13 just scene setting, isn't it.
 14 Q. Yeah, page 2:
 15 "... next incident relates to an officer ..."
 16 That is PC Gell, a Whatsapp message with his wife 17 and friend.
 18 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah. We had not been given much information 19 about the body-worn footage particularly, and 11 people 20 I think is downplaying what it actually was. It doesn't 21 add up with what we had been given. So we were 22 definitely unclear, but we had some awareness with 23 regards to misconduct and misconduct hearing.
 24 Q. And in terms of what you know now -- 25 EMMA WEBBER: But --

76

1 Q. Did you --

2 EMMA WEBBER: Sorry, can I just go on? I don't think we'd

3 been told about the counter staff at that point but it's 4 what -- what it goes on to, where we knew nothing about.

5 So it completely goes against what the assurance that

6 we've had from the Chief Constable is we did not know

7 anything whatsoever about stalking or about the detail

8 of assaults previously on other flatmates.

9 We had -- we had some awareness that somebody had 10 jumped out of a window to escape him and that may have

11 been injured but that was hearsay. That wasn't us being 12 told. So we didn't know that.

13 Q. So page 5 is the assault --

14 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.

15 Q. -- on Christopher. So paragraph, five, six down.

16 And it is described:

17 "... held a man in a headlock and there was an 18 argument between a group of individuals at the address."

19 EMMA WEBBER: I think you could pretty much say from the 20 top, from May 2021, down to "That individual did not 21 support a prosecution."

22 "Don't want to say anything ..."

23 I -- David, we weren't made aware of any of that,

24 were we?

25 DAVID WEBBER: No, I think a lot of this was all --

77

1 about HMCPSI, and we know, of course, HMCPSI did

2 a report and you deal with that at paragraph 93 onwards

3 in your statement. You point out you didn't have formal

4 legal representation, and you did try and have the 5 report in advance, more than an hour in advance; is that

6 right?

7 DAVID WEBBER: Yes.

8 Q. So tell us about that again, the communication around

9 the report, how it was provided to you, and how much

10 time you had to look at it first before it was 11 published.

12 EMMA WEBBER: When we first met with HMCPSI -- I think

13 that's right --

14 Q. You've learnt a lot of acronyms, I'm sure.

15 EMMA WEBBER: I know, and it's a bit like -- anyway. We 16 were -- I can only describe it as -- and this is 17 a repeat of everything -- we were met with a wall of 18 faces, of grey, serious faces of people introducing

19 themselves as solicitor to this: I'm a barrister to 20 this, I'm a specialist in this, I'm independent in this.

21 So I remember the first meeting we had with Anthony

22 Rogers and his team at HMCPSI, and there were at least

23 double of them to us, maybe even triple, and it was the 24 head tilt, the condolences: we will go through the CPS

25 and we will make sure nothing is -- you know, no stone

79

1 EMMA WEBBER: That's completely new.

2 DAVID WEBBER: Yes.

3 Q. So Sebastian and Christopher, so listening to them, and 4 we can say their first names.

5 EMMA WEBBER: Of course.

6 Q. Hearing their evidence in the Inquiry --

7 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.

8 Q. -- you didn't know anything like that.

9 EMMA WEBBER: No.

10 Q. And you're saying this level of detail here, assault on 11 one of them --

12 EMMA WEBBER: No.

13 Q. "Held a man in a headlock".

14 EMMA WEBBER: No, and we didn't know about the University

15 referring [name redacted] -- sorry, VC to mental health

16 services, the gym. No, none of that at all.

17 Also can I point out, it says, "Interaction with the 18 families":

19 "... This information that we [have] provided for 20 the families is well documented within our family

21 liaison records ..."

22 I've just said I didn't know anything about many of 23 those points, so that's not true.

24 Q. Thank you. We can take that briefing note down, please.

25 Interactions with other organisations. You say

1 is left unturned, et cetera, et cetera.

2 So that was our first introduction. I remember

3 coming out of that meeting and speaking to James Coates

4 and saying, "Oh, that went quite well. I feel like

5 they're gonna listen and they are gonna go through

6 everything."

7 So that was my interpretation of the first of the 8 many, many teams, bodies, investigators, that we came

9 across. And then perhaps Dave can say how it was when 10 the actual report was delivered to us, and how.

11 DAVID WEBBER: Yes, I mean we -- so we were given -- we

12 weren't allowed, as you've just alluded to, we weren't

13 allowed to have the report prior to that meeting, to go

14 through and digest. And bear in mind this is quite

15 a thick report, it's quite a beefy report, it's not 16 something you can just glance through in no time.

17 And at the meeting it was pretty much presented to 18 us that Anthony Rogers had a press conference booked,

19 I think it was -- it might have even been 45 minutes --

20 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.

21 DAVID WEBBER: -- it was hardly any time after, but

22 effectively we were given the reports and he was going

23 to go off and basically do his press -- so we had no

24 time to digest what was in there. He took us through 25 it, but effectively, as far as I -- we could see, it was

80

1 all sort of, yeah, no, everything was done correctly.
 2 The only thing we would say is, you know, we'll go back 3 to 2006 with the -- I mean, I don't again with the 4 law -- excuse me, I don't know about the murder one, 5 murder two charge, whatever.
 6 EMMA WEBBER: The Law Commission Review.
 7 DAVID WEBBER: That seemed to be that he laboured on and he 8 said, you know, he most definitely would have been on 9 that charge, and you just think: okay, that's great, but 10 we want to go back to the actual -- we don't believe all 11 the bits before and you're not really talking to us 12 about how the CPS acted and how all of this came 13 together and how we actually got to this point in the 14 first place. You were just telling people that actually 15 after the event this is what should have happened, if we 16 had our law changed back in 2006.
 17 And that was --
 18 EMMA WEBBER: And there was one learning point that I 19 remember: that the CPS must not say they consulted with 20 families. I remember that.
 21 But yeah, 45 minutes to have a thick report 22 presented to us whizzed through, I remember Sanjoy with 23 his highlighter trying desperately to go through and 24 trying to ask questions that were pretty much being 25 batted back and off, and then he went off and did his

81

1 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.
 2 Q. Is that fair?
 3 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.
 4 DAVID WEBBER: Enforced.
 5 EMMA WEBBER: So it was news to me. We did not know -- if 6 there had been any reference to a group of officers and 7 their Whatsapp group and messages, if we had been made 8 aware of it, it was on such a loose basis that this 9 seemed to be new information.
 10 Q. When did you finally know what the contents of the 11 messages were? I'm not going to go into those, but when 12 did you know what the messages said?
 13 EMMA WEBBER: After this.
 14 Q. So even later than this?
 15 EMMA WEBBER: Yes, and I believe it was Sanjoy's 16 communication with the Chief Constable Kate Meynell in 17 which she provided a paste of the message itself. And 18 I was in -- I can remember when that came in and I think 19 Sanjoy forwarded it to me and David, and we read it, and 20 we were -- not in detail, but we were in Manchester, and 21 we -- reading the content of that Whatsapp message 22 was -- it was just so destructive, so destroying, so 23 awful to -- and I don't mind the words being made 24 public, because the author of that message chose to 25 refer to our children as being "Properly butchered and

83

1 press conference, and that was managed. I believe that 2 was, again, an attempt to down-manage it.
 3 And I expect Sanjoy will bring this up himself, but 4 that report is very thick. I think it's a box-ticking
 5 exercise, personally, but within that there are clear 6 gaps and omissions that Sanjoy has never had answers to 7 his very detailed questions I believe he raised. And we 8 have chased that. We have never had the decency of 9 a response or answers to that report. The first of 10 many.
 11 Q. Can we go now, please, to NGPF0001320, page 1. This is 12 an email to you, Emma, from your later Family Liaison 13 Officer, Phil Cumberpatch, and it looks as though -- 14 well, not looks, it's clear -- he says:
 15 "I have been asked to speak to you to advise you 16 directly with regard to an article that the police have 17 informed the Daily Mail may intend to run tomorrow.
 18 "... concerns a text/Whatsapp message sent by 19 a police officer ..."
 20 So what did you glean from that? What was the 21 reason for the email to you?
 22 EMMA WEBBER: That it -- well, this -- to this -- to me, 23 I think came out of the blue.
 24 Q. It looks like it's been -- it's happening because an 25 article is going to be published?

82

1 innards out," and everything. That's disgusting and 2 grotesque.
 3 DAVID WEBBER: I think to be honest I didn't actually read 4 the message.
 5 EMMA WEBBER: No, you didn't, I think, because I didn't show 6 you.
 7 DAVID WEBBER: I think I refused to read it because I just 8 didn't want to see that, but I knew about what Emma -- 9 EMMA WEBBER: It was some time after this. It's again, that 10 ongoing, drip feed and forcing of information from 11 various different means and Mr Cumberpatch is the Family 12 Liaison Officer that we were assigned after other ones 13 had been withdrawn.
 14 Q. What do you say, where there's a response while officers 15 get compassion fatigue, they're traumatised themselves 16 going to these events, they say or write things they 17 don't necessarily mean, what do you say about that? Is 18 it about people understanding the effect of what they're 19 saying, or what would you say?
 20 EMMA WEBBER: I think there's a very clear line between 21 gallows humour and a very clear need to be able to 22 handle what is often a very, very difficult job, similar 23 to the way doctors or fire people would. But this steps 24 over that mark. This is disgusting behaviour.
 25 The author of that Whatsapp message has only been

84

1 made public name in this Inquiry, and as has been 2 detailed, part of trying to process some of these 3 horrors has been to reach out and to make them aware of 4 how awful that was, because I get -- I bet most of the 5 officers in that group, including the Chief Constable's 6 son, have children themselves. If they don't have 7 children, they are a child of somebody. And just think 8 for a moment how that felt to read that about your 9 child, and to then not have the decency and the respect 10 to at least apologise and for the Chief Constable to 11 refuse to send my letter to them anonymously.

12 Q. Tell us about that. We've obviously seen that in the 13 material we have. But why did you want them to read 14 a very personal letter and explaining the impact? What 15 did you think was the importance of that, for them to 16 see that?

17 EMMA WEBBER: I think the -- I obviously spent a lot of time 18 writing, and it must have a way of getting all this -- 19 you know, everything I'm trying to do out, and to try to 20 face things and process things, but if -- I'm very 21 comfortable, I don't know if you have the letter, but 22 I would be comfortable with it being shared because it 23 isn't an angry, ranty, you know, "I want you lined up in 24 a room" type thing, it was an attempt to explain the 25 impact of that behaviour. And I suppose there was

85

1 or numbers beyond the Whatsapp group of what was 2 involved?

4 DAVID WEBBER: Yes.

5 Q. Again, if it's not obvious, why is this important to you
6 to know who and in what context have looked at material 7 relevant to your son?

8 DAVID WEBBER: I think from our perspective it's as simple 9 as, you know, we -- Barney deserves his privacy, as much 10 as, you know, we were told all the way through this 11 that, you know, for VC, for instance, his privacy was 12 massively important and it just seemed to me that again, 13 in this case, you know, my son, who was the victim here,
14 his privacy was not taken into consideration. Grace's 15 wasn't taken into consideration. Ian's wasn't taken 16 into consideration. And you're thinking: this is wrong.
17 You know, you can't have it both ways. And you seem to 18 be looking to have it both ways, that we can't have 19 certain information because that's actually against 20 someone's privacy.

21 Q. What did you think the extent of the auditing within 22 Nottinghamshire Police was? When you were getting this 23 kind of information, what did you think they had been 24 looking for or checking up on, as it were?

25 EMMA WEBBER: This is all we knew. And to graphically put

87

1 a hope and a want that that would have been 2 acknowledged, accepted, and perhaps an apology, from the 3 people involved.

4 Q. And increasing their understanding?

5 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah -- my therapist says that I use gentle 6 humour, because I said to her "Why do I feel the need to 7 sometimes try and make light of things".

8 And she said: you're using gentle humour because 9 it's a way for you to cope with the horrors of what 10 you're trying to process and I'm sure most of our legal 11 team will attend to that with me.

12 But that's how I do it trying to deal with this 13 horror, and I understand that, as I said, the gallows 14 humour, but this oversteps the mark.

15 Q. We see, if we can, please, WITN0289017, page 1, a letter 16 you both receive on 20 February 2024 from the Chief 17 Constable. This one is giving you information 18 surrounding a Professional Standards Department audit 19 of:

20 "... members of staff who viewed material relating 21 to the tragic events on 13th June ... ... 179
22 individuals in total. From the 179, PSD identified 22
23 officers and staff who may have accessed material 24 without a legitimate policing purpose."

25 Was this the first time you started to get figures

86

1 this to you, we're not talking about people looking at 2 Barney's holiday photographs or his exam grades; this is 3 really difficult to say, but this needs to be said.
4 This is my son lying in the road having been brutally 5 stabbed multiple times, fighting for his life, and 6 ultimately losing it. And people have chosen to look at 7 that. One officer, as referred, looked at it all in 8 great detail. And we were never given that level. We 9 were never given the decency of that level of 10 information, and that's wrong. That's so wrong.

11 And I will never forgive them. And I hope that 12 they're maybe listening to part of this, and rethinking 13 their actions. But, as I think we've made you aware, 14 following what we've heard this week from ACC Rob 15 Griffin, well, this says that there was an audit. He 16 said there wasn't. What's the truth here? Because it's 17 not just the police where there have been gross data 18 breaches and invasion of privacy; it's every single 19 organisation, almost without exception, there's been 20 some example of it.

21 But this, to choose to look at that body-worn 22 footage, and we were told by Leigh Sanders in our 23 kitchen, because we were obviously aware that they had 24 it on body-worn, what happened to them, that it would 25 never, ever be seen beyond those who had access to it.

88

1 It would be under a special, like, lock and key 2 effectively, and they would ensure that would never 3 happen.
 4 DAVID WEBBER: It would never see the light of day.
 5 EMMA WEBBER: What was that, just a direct lie? He said 6 that to us in September. These people I believe that 7 we're talking about -- I think this was in July, all of 8 this was happening. And so where's the truth?
 9 Q. Can we go, please, WITN0289019, page 1. You received 10 this letter in March. So from Nottingham City Council.
 11 What did you get from this letter?
 12 EMMA WEBBER: This came about, as many things have, through 13 us as families, kind of forensically going through the 14 way things have been written to us. And we couldn't 15 understand what reference to -- was it the third-party 16 agencies or something meant.
 17 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah.
 18 EMMA WEBBER: So we asked for clarification of access by 19 third-party agencies, I think I've got the phrase right.
 20 And that's when we were told that it was staff from 21 Nottingham City Council. So this is a response to us 22 finding it out. This was not them telling us.
 23 DAVID WEBBER: No. I think actually it was Sinéad who went 24 and found that information, because I think --
 25 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.

89

1 Q. You want to go what doctors have looked at stuff, and 2 when and why?
 3 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.
 4 DAVID WEBBER: Yes.
 5 Q. Again, if it doesn't seem obvious, why is it important 6 to you to have that information about people and to hold 7 them accountable for that?
 8 EMMA WEBBER: Without holding people to account for not 9 doing their jobs properly, or for choosing to 10 potentially unlawfully access information that they have 11 no business accessing, unless they're held to account, 12 I don't think, in this country, it will ever stop.
 13 Because we're not the exception. How many awful stories 14 have there been within the healthcare system and 15 particularly within the policing system of accessing and 16 sharing of information?
 17 As we sit here today, we have, from the QMC, The 18 University Hospital Trust, I think it is, in Nottingham, 19 an investigation where 150 members of staff, because we 20 insisted on an audit, have accessed Barney, Grace and 21 Ian's medical records for the short period of time that 22 they were in there. And thus far, two-thirds of those 23 have already been proven to have non-legitimate reasons.
 24 We heard yesterday that the courts and the prison 25 have members of staff that are being investigated. We

91

1 DAVID WEBBER: -- initially they weren't, and Sinéad went 2 and I remember her Googling it and going "That's what it 3 is."
 4 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.
 5 DAVID WEBBER: And we suddenly thought: right, that's quite 6 a lot of people.
 7 EMMA WEBBER: She'd get these odd references to things, and 8 unless you go to the next level, yourself investigating 9 them, they'd be overlooked.
 10 Q. Do you feel you are forcing, effectively, admissions 11 around this issue rather than people volunteering --
 12 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah.
 13 Q. -- when you have said very publicly, including today, 14 that it matters to you who has done this and in what 15 context and you'd rather know directly?
 16 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.
 17 DAVID WEBBER: I think, again, it comes back to telling the 18 truth, you know.
 19 Q. You appreciate this Inquiry is looking at unauthorised 20 access from institutions and how they can prevent that, 21 but it's not the format of this Inquiry to look at the 22 every name of every individual, and look at the who, 23 what, when, how; but you want to see that, don't you?
 24 You want to know that from the trust?
 25 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.

90

1 know that the CPS has a file for a potential criminal 2 action. We heard from ACC Rob Griffin that it was too 3 big a job to do an audit of who may have accessed this 4 most sensitive and disturbing footage and information on 5 our children in this case.
 6 And that's where we are. That's what we're having 7 to face on top of all of the failures leading up to and 8 after. It's not just not doing their jobs properly when 9 they should be doing their jobs; these are people going 10 over and above to so disrespectfully and dishonourably 11 look at things they have no right to look at.
 12 Q. Can we have a look, please, at WITN0289020. This is 13 communication about -- you've referred to it, Her 14 Majesty's Prison and Probation Services and the Courts 15 Tribunal Service, because we said in opening in the 16 Inquiry, did you expect that people in courts in 17 different places would be able to access information 18 relating to this?
 19 EMMA WEBBER: No.
 20 DAVID WEBBER: No.
 21 Q. Do you see, amongst many issues in the Inquiry, that you 22 are shining a light on that issue for victims, for 23 bereaved families and those who aren't protected after 24 events like this, where people can read their records?
 25 Do you think this is an important issue that people need

1 to understand more than they do already, looking at all
2 of these bodies where this has clearly happened?

3 DAVID WEBBER: Yes, I think it is very important --

4 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.

5 DAVID WEBBER: -- because I think, again, coming back to 6 what Emma said a second ago, if you don't make people 7 accountable and you don't actually effectively -- people 8 have to be held out to answer for their actions, and 9 otherwise this will just continue happening, and it's 10 not right. It's just not right.

11 This is, again, at the very core of this, this is 12 a tragic, disgusting, horrible incident that's happened 13 that has resulted in the loss of our child, and that 14 shouldn't be -- that shouldn't be something that people 15 want to go and look at and people want -- it just makes 16 me feel physically sick, to be honest with you.

17 EMMA WEBBER: It's the stuff of nightmares, genuinely, to 18 not know what's been looked at, what's been accessed, 19 what's been talked about and potentially what's been 20 shared, and I don't think that we are in any way the 21 exception. It just so happens that we've uncovered -- 22 we've insisted on it being uncovered. It's not through 23 due diligence and institutions doing the right thing, 24 but this has to be addressed, because it's -- it's 25 clearly been happening for many, many years.

93

1 like we don't like the police, because that's not the 2 case. There are many police officers doing incredibly 3 good jobs out there, very hard jobs, ones that I 4 wouldn't want to do personally myself.

5 But in this case they have let us down and they have 6 acted in a way that I think is abhorrent and I really -- 7 I can't forgive them for that, because this is my son, 8 again, at the bottom of this. You know, that's the 9 person that should have -- they should have been there 10 to protect him. You know, he didn't -- he didn't ask 11 for anything else. You know, he was -- should have been 12 protected by them, and they didn't do it. And I think 13 the least they could do now is to actually just tell the 14 truth, be honest, make some change, and hopefully, you 15 know -- I'm mature enough to know that you're never 16 going to stop this happening completely, but I think if 17 you aim at stopping it happening completely, you're 18 going to get quite close to it, and hopefully there will 19 be no other parents like us sat here having to go 20 through this pain.

21 Q. You also say:

22 "The death of Barney could have been prevented and 23 it's unarguable that NHS had significant potential to 24 alter the outcome had they taken a robust approach to 25 the management of VC's risk. ... we believe reform is

95

1 We're shining that light on it, so let's shine the 2 light on it, and you know what? If you get caught and 3 you did the wrong thing and you lose your job, you don't 4 get promoted or whatever, it's an awful lot easier than 5 using your son.

6 Q. Can I turn now, please, to reform and the end of your 7 statement. You begin by saying:

8 "We hope that this statement has conveyed our 9 profound sadness and disappointment at the mistreatment 10 we have received from all organisations involved."

11 Can you just highlight, firstly with the police, you 12 say you started by trusting them, trusting the police in 13 your dealings with them. What do you say about that 14 now, with the facts that you know you didn't have 15 earlier?

16 DAVID WEBBER: I'll say that, when I -- especially looking 17 at the police, I think I alluded earlier to the fact 18 that, you know, my brother is a police officer, and my 19 sister-in-law -- ex-police officers. I have nothing but 20 respect for the police and have always had respect for 21 the police. However, in this particular case, they have 22 fallen very short of what I would expect someone who was 23 there to effectively protect the public should be doing.
24 And they are -- in this case, as I said, I don't want 25 this to come across as something that makes us sound

94

1 urgently needed ... in mental health care."

2 Would you like to say anything about that?

3 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah. I would. Mental health, I think as is 4 evident in the amount of times it's been discussed, from 5 all giving -- nearly all giving evidence over the past 6 four weeks, nearly five weeks, is mental health is 7 a massive hot potato, isn't it, that no one really wants 8 to deal with, but you can't escape the reality that 9 mental health, in our society, in our community, is not 10 being dealt with, it's not being managed.

11 We're spending far too much time worrying about 12 discrimination and segregation and, you know, doing the 13 wrong thing because somebody is of a certain colour or 14 certain age or certain religion. If you're sick, you're 15 sick, and you have the right to be treated respectfully.

16 If you're dangerous, you're dangerous, and it does 17 not matter what colour you are or where you're from.
18 What really deeply concerns me is the reforms that are 19 being pushed through Parliament at the moment for the 20 Mental Health Act fall far short of what they need to 21 be. I believe from what I've read, and the input we've 22 had, we are going to be exposing ourselves to more risk.
23 I understand people that are mentally unwell must have 24 a right to privacy and to their own decisions, but if 25 you're at risk to others, then that has to be managed,

96

1 whatever it takes, because if you don't have public 2 safety, then what do you have?
3 Q. And you say, "Public protection must come first, and 4 professionals must be empowered and expected to act 5 decisively."

6 This in the context of you talking about releases
7 without proper evaluation, and the like. So what do you 8 say about that, for professionals who are prescribing 9 medication, or looking after mental health patients?

10 DAVID WEBBER: I think, again, it comes back to 11 they have -- you know, they have to be empowered to do 12 the right thing, which is if, you know, if somebody is 13 mentally ill and they're dangerous then you need to 14 treat them in a different way to somebody who is 15 mentally ill and not dangerous. But they still need 16 treating. They still need to be -- but it's just 17 a different way of doing it.

18 So from my perspective, I just believe that we have, 19 you know, the hot potato is mental health. We've heard 20 the police already say that now they're dealing with 21 more and more mental health-related crimes, yet they 22 don't want to deal with it. They're not able to deal 23 with it. And I get that. So what do we do? Because 24 actually, you can't get rid of the fact that you've got 25 more mental health issues happening and more crimes

97

1 Even, you know, police forces that neighbour each 2 other pretty much not being able to talk to each other, 3 and I -- that is alien to me. I think, in this day and 4 age with the technology we have and the IT systems that 5 we should be able to -- this should not be a problem any 6 more. That should be the least of our problems.

7 EMMA WEBBER: I think the example of -- it was 8 September 2022, VC being discharged out to the community 9 by a clinician within the mental health team at 10 Nottingham Mental Health Trust for non-attendance, 11 without a full risk assessment, I believe that 12 individual will be answering their own questions posed 13 to them, but also without -- whether it's the ability to 14 see or the ability to access the fact that the person he 15 was putting back out into society had that outstanding 16 warrant for such a serious assault without bail. How 17 can those -- how can that be missed?

18 Q. You say, as well:

19 "We are ... deeply troubled by the dominant role of 20 expert evidence in criminal proceedings. We felt ...
21 the safeguards of the justice system were replaced by 22 a process let by doctors, who appeared to exert undue 23 influence over the entirety of the case."

24 What do you mean by that?

25 EMMA WEBBER: I believe that the expert doctors,

99

1 happening. So actually, what do you do to make that 2 difference? How do you get the police to be able to 3 deal with it? Because their core is to protect the 4 public. Just because someone has mental health you 5 can't go "Well, I can't protect you because you've got 6 a mental health issue."

7 Q. And you say:

8 "We do not believe that perpetrators of crime 9 suffering with mental health issues should be afforded 10 with the leniency that they are currently offered within 11 the criminal justice system."

12 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah.

13 Q. Is that the point you've just made --

14 DAVID WEBBER: (Witness nodded).

15 Q. -- that you think there needs to be investigation?

16 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah. It's been referred to in policy, hasn't 17 it. A mental health crime is still a crime.

18 Q. You also say, "Multi-agency working must also become 19 more robust."

20 DAVID WEBBER: Absolutely. I think what I've heard in this 21 Inquiry so far shocks me, that the fact that we -- that 22 these agencies don't seem to talk to each other. They 23 all seem to be little silos of information, and I find 24 that, in this day and age, just unbelievable, absolutely 25 unbelievable.

98

1 psychiatrists in this instance, were judge, jury and 2 executioner. And whenever we tried to challenge or ask 3 questions of the CPS, the CPS said, "We do not 4 challenge, we do not question, we do not lead. Our 5 expert doctors, they do as they see fit."

6 And I do respect, obviously, experts in their field.
7 However, as I believe we will, I hope, prove, or we fear 8 that there were huge gaps, again, in the quality of that 9 process, which has resulted in, as we've said, enormous 10 miscarriage of justice.

11 Q. You say:

12 "We are ... passionate about improving the rights of 13 victims within the criminal justice process."

14 Where do you think the criminal justice process is 15 failing victims at the moment, in the circumstances in 16 which you were faced?

17 EMMA WEBBER: Everywhere, in a word.

18 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah, I mean --

19 EMMA WEBBER: Again, there's no advocacy for us. I say as 20 a collective term, and it shouldn't be through luck that 21 you happen upon solicitors or individuals who are able 22 to reach out and support you pro bono or, you know, 23 that's -- it shouldn't be luck, should it? It says that 24 the victims are the centre of the criminal justice 25 system. We're not. We're a sort of an annoying sort of 100

1 adage, the bottom of the shoe, you know, to be dealt 2 with on "If needed, as asked" basis, and that's not 3 right.

4 Q. Anything to add to that?

5 DAVID WEBBER: Yes, I was just about to say about the 6 Homicide Victim Support. We had a lovely lady who 7 looked after us. That was our experience and there'd be 8 other families, it wasn't quite the same for them.

9 But again it just felt that these people who are 10 there to help you have such massive caseloads that they 11 can't concentrate on you; so you're seeing them very 12 rarely, sporadically. They're doing their absolute best 13 but it just felt it wasn't enough. You know, we felt 14 that we should, you know, as victims, have someone there 15 to help us, like we started earlier with saying about 16 having someone maybe to sort of make it much simpler for 17 us to understand. You know, we've read some stuff today 18 and it is, it's like another language that's being 19 talked.

20 But we need people that can advocate for us, that 21 can say, "Right, okay, we've got you, we'll help you, 22 we'll guide you, and we're here for you."

23 And it needs to be -- it sounds like it needs to be 24 24/7, not Monday 9 to 5, you know. If you're out of 25 hours and you suddenly have a massive problem, phone

101

1 about events?

2 DAVID WEBBER: I think at the moment, not a lot. I find -- 3 again, I come back, it's the duty of candour, and 4 Hillsborough Law. I think it just says something where 5 you've got to have a law passed to tell someone to tell 6 the truth. I find that very difficult to take on board.

7 So I do think that the only way that these 8 organisations learn is where, as Emma said earlier, 9 potentially people start losing their jobs. People 10 start to, you know -- and where it is a criminal matter, 11 they are put through the criminal system. Because 12 unless you start making proper change and make people 13 think twice about what they're doing, they're just going 14 to keep doing the same thing over and over again. You 15 know, I mean it's the first definition of madness, isn't 16 it, doing the same thing over and over again and 17 expecting a different result. It's never going to 18 happen. So until you actually break that chain and say, 19 "No, this is the way we're going to do this, and by the 20 way, if you don't tell the truth and if you're found out 21 not to tell the truth, this is the consequences to your 22 actions now."

23 And I just think -- just yeah, these organisations 24 seem to now have just got their own way through.

25 MS LANGDALE: Thank you. Those are my questions.

103

1 this number and speak to somebody -- (overspeaking) --

2 EMMA WEBBER: Or phone the Samaritans.

3 DAVID WEBBER: Yeah, or phone the Samaritans, yeah. It's 4 that kind of thing. You need to have this proper 5 support mechanism put in place.

6 EMMA WEBBER: Our lady that supported us was amazing, but 7 she had 50 other families. 50 other families who are -- 8 this is Homicide Victim Support, as well. We're not 9 talking victims of robbery, we're talking homicide. The 10 worst possible crime. She had 50 other families to try 11 and support and hold up. So I think that speaks for 12 itself. And then you're offered 12 paid-for therapy 13 sessions, and that's it. And then, you know, and 14 unless, again, you make noise and a fuss, you are out on 15 your own. And no wonder victims lose their 16 relationships, their livelihoods, their health, and 17 sometimes even their own lives, because you're just -- 18 you're not a consideration.

19 Q. You say finally:

20 "Where inaction on the part of institutions such as 21 the police and the NHS results in death, support and 22 transparency needs to improve significantly."

23 You go back to you refer to the duty of candour and 24 the importance of that. What confidence do you have 25 that institutions are able, culturally, to be candid

102

1 I'd like to ask if you want to add anything or say 2 anything. We've seen your pen portraits, the film, the 3 comments you have made very movingly about the impact on 4 you of these events, but would you like to say anything 5 further now and before the Chair may ask you a couple of 6 questions?

7 EMMA WEBBER: Yes. Some of this I've probably covered so 8 bear with me if I do odd pauses. But I guess this is 9 our time to be heard. So we're going to have to -- we 10 are going to choose to use it.

11 We sit here today not because we want to, but 12 because we have to. We're always told how strong we are 13 and how brave we are. But what you don't see is the 14 shell of a devastated mother in private, behind closed 15 doors, who can barely breathe through her grief. I once 16 said to Dave: "I need to leave this world. I need to be 17 with Barney, and that you, Dave, can then look after 18 Charlie."

19 And it's not that I loved one son more than the 20 other; I just can't bear the thought of him being on his 21 own. But there is still strength in me and there is 22 still determination and I will never stop. I will never 23 stop this fight until this gross wrong has been righted, 24 whatever it takes, and for however long it takes.

25 Chair, I thank you and your team for all that you

104

1 have done and are doing in this much needed statutory 2 Public Inquiry. Do I think it will answer all that we 3 need? No. But I do have faith that for the first time 4 since this horror began, we are finally being provided 5 with the truth and our voices are being heard. We 6 fought tooth and nail and we've given everything we've 7 got, alongside the Coates family and the Kumar family, 8 and we are humbled by their strength and their love and 9 their solidarity.

10 Like Lee said, I wish we had not been forced to meet 11 in this way, but I can honestly say they are all some of 12 the very best of humanity in a world where our loved 13 ones have faced the very worst of humanity. And we 14 really are united now, as a new family.

15 We've had to fight and to challenge and to push back 16 at every turn, every junction, and every crossroads. We 17 fought so hard to make the progress we have, despite all 18 that's been thrown at us. It's not for headlines; it's 19 not for sympathy, but it's for the truth, for answers, 20 and for accountability.

21 But let me be clear: this isn't just our story, as 22 I've said, we're not the exception. We are the victims 23 of systems, institutions, and services that have failed 24 and are failing and have been so for far too long. We 25 have faced evasion, deflection, arrogance, avoidance,

105

1 and thank you for reaching out. Thank you for 2 supporting us, and picking us up at a time when we felt 3 that every door had been slammed in our faces.

4 There is still some good and decency out there.
 5 Most victims don't get this. We are fortunate. But all 6 victims should. All victims deserve proper advocacy.
 7 The prior independent agency investigations that have 8 taken place up until now, 11 at last count, I believe, 9 were not fit for purpose. Little more than marking of 10 homework, tick box exercises and damage limitation 11 dressed up as justice.

12 My son was murdered at 19 years old by a violent, 13 pernicious and dangerous 32-year old man, allowed to 14 roam the streets, and unleash his planned attacks with 15 his rucksack full of weapons, and to ambush those weaker 16 than himself.

17 He chose his spot. He hid in the shadows. He knew 18 what he was looking for. He allowed many people to pass 19 before he found his first prey, and then that rucksack 20 full of weapons were used in what I have had to learn is 21 one of the most brutal attacks many of the long-serving 22 police officers had ever seen. It is the stuff of 23 nightmares and the true face of evil, clearly a sick 24 individual that's never disputed. However, it's one 25 that knew what he was doing. He knew it was wrong, and

107

1 damage limitation, self-protectionism and downright
 2 lies, so many times. The information provided, as you 3 have heard, has been on a drip-fed, need to know, and 4 only if asked basis.

5 Enough is enough. There has to be a line in the 6 sand. In this room full of Core Participants, every 7 single one, with the exception of the bereaved families 8 and the survivors, have very many questions they must 9 answer.

10 So I implore you: do the right thing. Despite our 11 grief and our pain, we've chosen to use our voices to 12 make so much noise that we could not be ignored any 13 longer, and this is our chance.

14 We are also proof that this could happen to any 15 family, anywhere, at any time. How many more [name 16 redacted] [VCs] are still out there roaming the streets?
 17 My faith in the criminal justice system had all but been 18 destroyed. However, I am glad to say that it has in 19 part been somewhat restored. Certainly not by the 20 agencies, as we have aforementioned, the police or the 21 CPS particularly, but from the following: to 22 Neil Hudgell, to Tim Moloney, Angela Patrick and all of 23 your teams, I thank you. We are so very, very blessed 24 to have you. You have been the hand on our shoulders 25 that we should have been offered from the very outset,

106

1 he did it anyway. A master manipulator and a ticking
 2 time bomb. A tragedy waiting to happen.

3 Today, Chair, I ask this: everything you've heard 4 and we've heard is from 2020 onwards. Until this 5 Inquiry we were in the dark about his past, in the dark 6 about the SIO's decision not to interview a key witness 7 who had information about his mental health, potentially 8 from 2012. Nothing was done. How can a senior 9 operational police officer in charge not be interested 10 in anything? How can that be professional policing?
 11 I hold no interest in his colour, his religion, or his 12 immigration status, or the fact that it was three days 13 before his potential involvement in terrorism activities 14 were discounted.

15 What I want to know is why his movements in London 16 on 11 and 12 June were never properly investigated. Why 17 did he have extremist and highly disturbing propaganda 18 on his phone a year before he murdered Barney? Why was 19 it never made public? A second-rate investigation and 20 a weak prosecution, such was the need to rush this 21 through. Was it to prevent the fallout from countless 22 missed opportunities being made public and shaming our 23 criminal justice system and our healthcare systems?

24 Those data breaches have caused us untold pain and 25 unimaginable grief and horror. I have addressed what we

108

1 want done with regards to those from Her Majesty's 2 Courts, Her Majesty's Prison, Nottingham City Council, 3 Nottingham University Hospital Trust and Nottinghamshire
4 Police. It does not end here.

5 We have asked for the investigations that haven't 6 been fully completed and done properly to be reopened.
7 They must be redone with full candour and rigour.
8 A message to those who have taken part in any of these 9 unlawful acts, you have my word that you will be held to 10 account because we have nothing to hide, defend, or 11 embellish.

12 And lastly, I dropped my son to a city that wasn't 13 safe to have him, and that's a burden I must bear.
14 I don't want Barney to be forgotten but I don't want his 15 name to be defined alongside that of a monster. I want 16 those who knew him and loved him to always remember the 17 impact he had and the love of life that he brought and 18 the difference he made in his all too short a time with 19 us.

20 Barney, I love you and I miss you. Always.
21 Thank you.

22 Questioned by THE CHAIR

23 THE CHAIR: Thank you.

24 There were just a couple of questions, if you don't 25 mind my asking them before we break?

109

1 properly explain what that process is, and to have 2 someone like Julian, who just cuts through the rubbish
3 and says this is what it means and this is how it --

4 THE CHAIR: Well, we're going to hear some evidence later on 5 about some of the other cases.

6 Just in terms of yourselves, you've obviously, as 7 you said, received assistance from Hudgells, who were 8 legal representation, later on.

9 As far as the process of the trial is concerned, 10 during that trial, would it have assisted you to have 11 somebody independent to have told you about how that was 12 going to go, to have had more information about, as you 13 say, not in legalese?

14 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.

15 DAVID WEBBER: Definitely. It would have made our life 16 a lot easier to understand. We could have asked 17 questions that were potentially more relevant rather 18 than going off and finding out what we were being told 19 and then having to come back afterwards.

20 So I think having, again, someone who can actually 21 cut through the legalese and say this is what they 22 actually mean, that would help.

23 THE CHAIR: In terms of some of the meetings that you've 24 described, where you didn't have the reports or the 25 agenda, if you like, before the meeting, I'm sure that

111

1 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.

2 THE CHAIR: You've mentioned the advocacy that you seek, and 3 I know that you know that I've asked other witnesses, 4 including the Coates family and Elaine Newton about 5 that.

6 You made contact or Julian Henty made contact with 7 you, and obviously he has experience and what I think is 8 commonly used in many arenas as "lived experience" of 9 this -- these terrible events himself and also through 10 his website. But from your point of view, the 11 assistance that you were given at that point wasn't 12 legal assistance, but it was support. And could you 13 just briefly tell me what that gave you at that point?

14 DAVID WEBBER: I think, it's like we were saying earlier, 15 Chair, it's breaking through the legalese that is thrown 16 at you. It it's someone who can actually explain in 17 layman's terms what is actually said and what it 18 actually means long-term. Things like when we were told 19 that it was an indefinite hospital order and we think 20 oh, that's fine, it's indefinite and we hear the judge 21 saying, "you're highly unlikely to ever be released" and 22 then you've got someone like Julian saying, "Well, 23 actually that's not true, because this is what happens 24 in real terms."

25 And I think that's really important to have someone 110

1 the answer to this in a way is obvious, but would you 2 have felt more comfortable having that beforehand where 3 you'd have a chance to go through that before you went 4 to the meeting?

5 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.

6 DAVID WEBBER: A hundred per cent, yeah.

7 THE CHAIR: I think I've asked also, I think, Elaine Newton, 8 about the introductions that you had to people about 9 their job titles and what they did. Again, would that 10 have been useful before those meetings?

11 DAVID WEBBER: Yes, yeah, because --

12 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, I think I alluded to the fact that I see 13 it as a wall of grey faces and senior titles, many of 14 which I don't understand because I've not, thankfully, 15 ever been part of the criminal justice system before, 16 and everything was new to us. Everything was a first 17 for us. I know a lot now, but I didn't know then, 18 obviously.

19 THE CHAIR: So if you were told what they do rather than the 20 title, you would have been able to ask the right person 21 the right question?

22 EMMA WEBBER: And I think that's where somebody who -- that 23 advocacy, that -- the person that can navigate -- and 24 I maintain that must not be and should not be Family 25 Liaison Officers from the police force; it has to be

112

1 entirely independent, so that you don't miss something 2 that you really must be aware of, but also you don't 3 delve into information that is going to harm you more at 4 that moment in time than help. It's hard to navigate 5 this horror.

6 THE CHAIR: Yes. You've referred to the Homicide Victim
7 Support. That's an independent support, isn't it?

8 EMMA WEBBER: I think it's funded by the Ministry of 9 Justice, I believe, yes.

10 THE CHAIR: But that is something you would support with 11 fewer case -- a lower caseload.

12 DAVID WEBBER: Yes.

13 EMMA WEBBER: Yes, but it's -- but they still do not have 14 the ability to fill that role we've just asked just 15 before.

16 THE CHAIR: No, it's afterwards, isn't it?

17 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah --

18 THE CHAIR: It's a different part of the process.

19 EMMA WEBBER: Yeah, there were literally times where it's 20 almost being told how to breathe and how to get through 21 the end of each day and get out of bed. You know, such 22 is the devastation, and such is the change in your life, 23 that you don't know which way is up anymore, for quite 24 some time, so deep is the shock.

25 THE CHAIR: Just in terms of what we've just gone through, 113

1 the different stages that you had some support, would it 2 have assisted you to have somebody right from the 3 outset, who followed this whole process through with 4 some continuity?

5 EMMA WEBBER: Yes.

6 DAVID WEBBER: Yes, I think someone who can navigate you 7 through the systems and explain, yeah, it would have 8 made a big difference, I think, to us.

9 THE CHAIR: Yes, thank you. That's all I have to ask.

10 Again, I just wanted to thank you for the very 11 moving pen portrait that you put together of Barney, and 12 I think we all get a very strong sense of him and his 13 life and the impact that he made on people. Thank you.

14 EMMA WEBBER: Thank you.

15 DAVID WEBBER: Thank you.

16 THE CHAIR: We'll rise now until 2.00. Thank you.
