

IN THE MATTER OF AN INQUIRY

UNDER THE INQUIRIES ACT 2005

THE NOTTINGHAM INQUIRY

31 March 2026

BEFORE THE CHAIR:

HER HONOUR DEBORAH TAYLOR

RESTRICTION ORDER: OFFICER X

PENAL NOTICE

Any breach of this Order, failure to comply with it or threat to do so, can be certified to the High Court or the Court of Session under section 36 of the Act. A Court will deal with any breach, failure to comply, or threat of failure to comply as though it had occurred in proceedings before that Court.

The High Court and the Court of Session have the power to imprison or fine a person for any breach of this Order.

PURSUANT TO the Inquiry's duties and powers under section 19 of the Inquiries Act 2005 ("the Act");

AND UPON considering the application for anonymity by the Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis for Officer X and the witness statements in support of the application by Officer X of the Metropolitan Police Service and Superintendent Lorraine Bubsy-McVey of the Metropolitan Police Service;

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Officer X is granted anonymity so that their true name and any identifying details cannot be disclosed or published in any form, unless express permission is given by the Chair of the Inquiry, or the Solicitor to the Inquiry acting on her behalf.

2. This Order remains in force for the duration of the Inquiry and at all times thereafter, unless otherwise ordered.
3. The Chair of the Inquiry may vary or revoke this Order by making a further order during the course of the Inquiry.

Deborah Taylor
